dollars. Dog pound, fifteen hundred dollars. Supervisors of elections, six thousand dollars. Tax sales, twelve hundred dollars. Winding Maryland Institute clock, seventy-five dollars. Ringing Mechanics' bells, two hundred dollars. Maryland Institute School of Art and Design, six thousand dollars. New fire plugs, fountains, etc., five thousand dollars. General licenses, fifteen hundred dollars. Refunded taxes, three thousand dollars. State tax on city loans, twelve thousand dollars. Ice-boat Maryland, ten thousand dollars. Insurance of Bay View Asylum, thirteen hundred and five dollars. Assistance to Examiner of Titles, fifteen hundred dollars. Riverside Park (deficiency), one thousand and fifty-six dollars and seventeen cents. Federal Hill Park, ninety-four dollars and eighty-five cents. Johnston Square (deficiency), three hundred and twenty-two dollars and seventy cents. Collington Square (deficiency), thirty-three dollars aud fifty-three cents. In favor of Levi Herzog, Resolution No. 17 of 1888, twenty-seven dollars and twenty-four cents. Making necessary surveys for the removal of railroad tracks from North street, two thousand dollars. Harlem Park (deficiency), three thousand one hundred and twenty-five dollars. In favor of James Coughlin, Resolution No. 28 of 1888, thirty-four dollars and twenty cents. In favor of John F. Wiessner, Resolution No. 37 of 1888, one hundred and sixty-two dollars and eleven cents. Improvements at Eastern Fountain, one hundred and seventy-five dollars. Illuminating clock at No. 6 Engine House, nine hundred dollars. Repairing records in Circuit Court, two thousand dollars. Extension of city limits,

General Expenditures.

seven thousand dollars. Redemption of mortgage on No. 6 Engine House, six thousand one hundred and eighty dollars. Music in the parks, three thousand dollars. Hose for Hanover Market, two hundred dollars. In favor of Baltimore Light Infantry, one thousand dollars. Monument to Francis Scott Key, five thousand dollars. Hose for Centre Market, one hundred and twenty-five dollars. Hose for Hollins Market, one hundred and twenty-five dollars. Hose for Northeastern Market, two hundred dollars. Ordinances and Resolutions, three thousand one hundred and twenty-five dollars.

Public Schools.

Salaries, six hundred and ten thousand dollars. Rents and ground rents, thirty-six thousand dollars. Books and stationery, forty thousand dollars. Heating apparatus and its repairs, ten thousand dollars. Furniture, ten thousand dollars. Fuel, twenty thousand dollars. Repairs and cleaning, eight thousand dollars. Printing, supplies and incidentals, eight thousand five hundred dollars. Manual Training School, fifteen thousand dollars. For lot for a colored school, seven thousand dollars. For lots for Manual Training School, seven thousand eight hundred dollars.

Schools.

Police Department.

Salaries of officers and men and expenses, seven hundred and ten thousand dollars.

Police.

City Poor.

Maintenance of Bay View Asylum, eighty thousand dollars. Transportation of poor,