Dry Goods, Notions, Groceries, Canned Goods, Coffees, Teas, Etc., Etc.

A word about Coffee. We haven't any "Special Agency" for any "special" brands of coffee. But, we sell a "Special" coffee that has a "Special" flavor and goodness of its own and a "Special" price.

20c LB.

We have lower and higher price Coffees, but this "SPECIAL"

20c Coffee

is what pleases so many Coffee drinkers.

Don't pay 25c or 30c for a "SPECIAL AGENCY" Coffee when you can be better suited here for 20c LB.

Also headquarters for the best Mother's bread in this town.

To All Concerned.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—On Sunday evening, March 29th, we have learned there was an atrocious hold-up on one of our public thoroughfares, Queen street, just after the churches closed. Presume the outrage has been well spoken of in all homes in our town, and even the cries of the victim were heard, yet no one went to the poor girl's rescue, and why? The excuse seems to be that so much noise and rowdyism is allowed on our streets no heed was given when great need presented a cause for action. Now, gentlemen, we ask why some effort is not made to capture the villian. If it were your wife, mother or daughter, then what; would you still fold your hands, shut your eyes and stifle your voices? We women call on the men for protection naturally, but we now cry out how long, yes, how long is it to be before our liberty and our persons are to be delivered from the hands of the vile, lazy loafers who traverse our highways on mischief intent? We have not the least objection to these gentlemen or any other commissioners who may fill that office to be remunerated, but would it not be better to pay more night watchmen for the protection of our women and children? We learn of the cutting of a woman in the upper part of our town. Who did such an act? Let them be caught and severely punished for such an offence against humanity, liberty, and for such a beastly act. Wake up, men! In time of peace prepare for war, and be fully equipped for prompt action when the sound for help comes through closed doors and shut windows. On two occasions Church Alley, as it is called, has secreted or held the desperado. Call a vigilance band together and catch the culprit. It can be done, then banish such from our lovely home town. If there is no such law, make one, and that quickly. Now is the time of need. Keep men and women off our streets after specified hours, or let them rest in our public jail, with no respect for persons who have no proper excuse for street walking. Rouse yourselves, dear fathers, husbands, brothers and sons; protect the weak who live to enjoy all pleasures of life, as you should. There is no politics in this great issue. White ladies, colored women, who are out to their working need to be protected as well as church goers and social callers, as the case above stated seems to have been. Stop all loud sounds on the streets so a call will be recognized when protection is needed. Hustle all lawbreakers out of our midst, and that at once. Words fail to express my great earnestness in the welfare of our community, my own home, my birthplace, as also of my forefathers. I have grown with the town, and feel a right to speak out for all its interests and needs. Do hope a word to our wise men may call forth some step to correct the dastardly evils.

Tells Our Readers How To Mix Best Rheumatism Cure.

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the readers of a large New York daily paper the following valuable, yet simple and harmless, prescription which anyone can easily prepare at home:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescscription pharmacy at small cost, and being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained and without injuring the stomach. While there are many so-called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers, if asked to.
