QUEEN ANNES POLITICS.

James T. Bright Still After John E. George's Scalp.

Mr. James T. Bright, leader of the Independents in Queen Annes county, and who was at the Hotel Rennert, Baltimore, last week, said he intends to keep up the fight in the county against the regular Democratic organization, headed by Mr. John E. George, former clerk of the court. "The Independents hold the balance of power in the county," said Mr. Bright. "All we ask is a square deal. That will be a hard proposition in the future, as Queen Annes has been added to the list of Wilson counties. Just think of the last election in the county! Out of a total registered vote of 4,800 the successful party polled only 1,400. Over 2,000 votes are not accounted for.

It is understood that disruption in the ranks of the regular Democratic organization in the county is threatened. Mr. George failed to land a single state appointment for any Democrat of the county. Among the applicants was Mr. Wm. M. McKenney, who is the leader of a large element which has hitherto adhered to the organization. He is not in an amiable frame of mind, because of his failure to land a place.

The Republicans are angry over the failure of the Senate to confirm the nomination of Mr. Mallalieu as minority member of the Board of Election Supervisors. As a result of the failure to confirm the nomination Mr. Anderson, a Republican, and who is a brother-in-law of Mr. John E. George, holds over. Mr. Anderson's name was not on the list submitted to the Governor by the Republican State Central Committee. The Republican leaders of the county are contemplating addressing an open letter to Gov. Crothers, in which they will ask the appointment of some other Republican in place of Mr. Anderson, who, they say, is not their choice as minority member of the board.—Baltimore American.

THE EASTER WELCOME.

Welcome Easter day; devinely blest,
Let anthems loudly ring,
Memorial of our great High Priest;
Jesus Christ the risen king.

'Twas on the cross His blood was shed
That the world might all go free
He tasted death for every one,
And died in agony.

There was jealousy existing
Over the ruling of the land,
The Jews then sought to kill this Christ
That Herod's kingdom might ye t stand.

Away they led Him to the court room
Where the just, and unjust were tried
And the yells rose from the gathering
Let this Christ be crucified.

They proceeded to the mountain
Where they nailed Him to the tree
Though guiltless yet as a transgressor
Yet He died for you and me.

Upon Calvary's dred mountain
There came darkness o'er the land
As Jesus hung in silent slumbers
With a nail through either hand.

In a grave they placed His body
Where before no man was laid
Thus the prophecy fulfilling
With the rich His grave He made.

On His tomb a stone was rolled
While soldiers guarded where He lay
But the grave gave up its victim
He arose on Easter Day.

'Twas on the third day in the morning
He arose and went on high,
To prepare a palace for us
Where He will gather us by and by.

And we shall see Him in His beauty,
And no longer the weary paths tread,
But enjoy sweet rest and comfort,
With the living, though once was He dead.

Then roll on Him your burdens,
And in you, fear will have no place;
Just follow close His foot-steps,
And you shall see Him face to face.

Let us ever celebrate this day,
Because our King arose;
He gained a victory o'er the grave,
And triumphed o'er his foes.

BERNARD REILLY.

SORRY TO LOSE PASTOR.

Rev. Wm. A. Melvin's Good Work at Cumberland.

The members of the several Methodist Protestant Churches of Cumberland heard with regret the removal of Rev. William A. Melvin, pastor of Bedford Street Methodist Protestant Church, to another field, Rev. Melvin having been appointed to Broadway Church, Baltimore.

During the several years Rev. Mr. Melvin has been stationed in Cumberland he has done most effective work, including the establishment of congregations and the building of churches in sections of the city in which there were no churches. He organized a congregation of his faith in East Cumberland, near Lindnerviile, and erected a new church edifice, naming it after his mother, Melvin Chapel. This organization has grown wonderfully, and Rev. Mr. Melvin has been paid by the congregation for the building and lot.

He next organized a congregation in Mapleside, below South Cumberland, secured an old church building that had not been used for years, had it remodelled and almost made new, and this congregation has prospered so much that the purchase price for the building first paid by Rev. Mr. Melvin has been returned to him by that congregation. There he found a large congregation, but no church. He secured a lot and erected thereon a church which he called Fairview Avenue Methodist Protestant Church. He then invited the people of that prosperous section to attend the opening services of his new church and the dedication exercises. He soon had established there a new congregation. Rev. Mr. Melvin then turned his attention to the northern section of the city, with a Sunday school and a Christian Endeavor Society, and the congregation has since paid Mr. Melvin for the new building.

In addition to all this, he has lifted the debt from his own church, and for part of the time he made it his business to serve at least three of the churches each Sunday. In his work he has been assisted lately by Rev. Mr. Hoffman.

When we dissect your watch--

When we get all the tiny little wheels and pinions and things separated—then clean them all up as bright as new, then put them all together again—that watch of yours is going to run as good as ever.

It can't help it. It is practically a new watch once more.

Of course it will need our attention again in about a year—as it is always better to be too soon than too late.

Maybe you knew all this before, but somehow people have a habit of attending to everything else in the world but their watches.

If you think a cleaning would do your watch good, don't wait until it stops. Bring it to our repair department.

We have the finest equipped repair shop in this part of the country and can do all your repairing promptly, and in the best manner possible.
