Second National Bank

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Capital	$50,000
Surplus and Profits	48,000
Liability of Stockholders	50,000
Security to Depositors	$148,000

In estimating the safety of a Bank, it is always well to remember that the CAPITAL, SURPLUS and PROFITS, in other words, the BANK'S OWN MONEY, is that which gives SECURITY to the DEPOSITORS. In view of the financial disturbances through which the country has just passed, SECURITY is the feature which should merit the FIRST consideration. The Capital Surplus and Profits of this Bank form a fund that insures SECURITY to those who entrust their money to us. This Bank is under rigid government supervision, and its directors consist of men of experience, sound judgment and undoubted integrity—a board of unusual strength. They are directors who DIRECT meeting once a week to discuss the affairs of the Bank and the building up of its business.

Let us have YOUR business. We give equal attention to small and large accounts. Interest paid on Savings Deposits.

Very Respt.,

To Our Patrons.

We thank our patrons very much for the generous manner in which they have responded to the letters sent to them regarding subscriptions. There have been so many renewals, and so few discontinuances that we are led to believe that the people of the county and state appreciate the efforts the paper is making to protect the interests of the people, and to advance all the vital interests of the county. We desire a continuance of these reciprocal relations and trust that no one will judge us harshly because of a compulsory regulation of the Postoffice Department. Keep on taking the TRANSCRIPT, and those of our people in the town and county who do not take the paper subscribe for it, for it is distinctly the paper of the people, always guarding the moral, political and social welfare of the people. Our bookkeeper has been very busy during the week sending out these appeals to our patrons, and we trust that each may receive a prompt response. No power in the world has so much to do with building up a community and county, and advertising its agricultural, physicial and natural advantages to the world free of charge, as the home newspaper, and every family in the county, whose members can read and write, should sustain the county newspaper for what it does for the county by becoming a subscriber at $1 per year. The newspaper makes your farm lands more valuable, gets you better prices for your commodities, protects your property and your homes from the lawless, and strives to build up the moral life of your community, all free of charge, and it has a just claim to the patronage of the people at only $1 per year. Subscribe to the TRANSCRIPT, and get the news all the time

DR. H. C. HUGHES, DENTIST.

Will be in his office in the Old TRANSCRIPT BUILDING, Chestertown, Md., TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY of each week, commencing April 28. Baltimore Office 2111 St. Paul Street. apr25-tf.

Twelve Pages To-day.

We are sending to our readers this morning a twelve page paper. It will be observed that the paper is so arranged that there is good live local and newsy matter on every page in the paper. There are the local laws, interesting to all tax payers and voters, all the proceedings of the April term of court, large and interesting advertisements containing valuable imformation to purchasers, interesting news about your friends, and spicy local happenings. We believe you will find the TRANSCRIPT a bright paper today just as we always endeavor to make it, and it fully sustains its reputation of containing the best classified and newiest news.

Wedding Bells.

MILLER—PEARCE.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Pearce, nea Middletown, at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon of last week. The contracting parties were Miss Olivia Pearce and Mr. Jos. L. Miller. Rev. C.T. Wyatt, of Wilmington, was the officiating clergyman who tied the nuptial knot pronouncing the ceremony which united the lives of these young people. The wedding was witnessed by a large number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties, and the house was prettily decorated for the occasion. The bride was attended by Miss Grace Miller, sister of the groom, gowned in white and carrying pink carnations, while W. T. Pearce, Jr., brother of the bride, acted as best man. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue cloth with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white carnations. After the ceremony congratulations were in order. Many useful and very pretty presents were received. A wedding dinner was served and the young couple took the train for Washington and other points on a short wedding trip. Mr. Miller is well-known in Middletown, having rapidly risen from messenger boy at the railroad station to telegraph operator and now enjoys a most excellent position as operator at Dover, where the young couple will reside. Those present were: Mrs. Thomas O'Neil and Mrs. N. S. Melvin and son, of Lynch, Md.; Mr. John Peterson, of Crumpton, Md.; Miss Grace Miller, of Ridgely, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Cooper and two daughters, Etta and Hattie, and Miss Ethel Ringgold, of Chestertown, Md.; Miss Martha Bailey and Miss Christina Luthringer, of Cecilton, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Pearce and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Brady and two daughters, Grace and Clara, Mrs. M. Banning, Miss Emma Minner and Mr. Elwood Banning, of Middletown.

COLLADAY—HURLOCK.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mae B. Hurlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hurlock, to Mr. Charles R. Colladay, a prominent young business man of Baltimore, on Monday last, April 20th. The bride is well-known in Chestertown and Kent county, and her many friends here wish her much joy in her wedded life. Mr. and Mrs. Colladay are at home at 2401 Maryland avenue, Baltimore. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal Church by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Rall. A feature of the marriage was the complete surprise which the happy couple worked upon the boarder of the home where Miss Hurlock boarded. While they were very much disappointed by the surprise, the bride seemed delighted that she had turned a trick on the entire house. Mr. Colladay is a wellknown and popular young business man of the city and has a fine position.

JOLLS—EDWARDS.

John J. Jolls, son of Register in Chancery Joseph B. Jolls, of Middletown, Del., was married at noon Thursday to Miss Alverda Edwards, of Chestertown, Md. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Edwards, in Chestertown, Md. The couple will reside in Middletown, where Mr. Jolls has a house ready for occupancy. He is a clerk in the office of his father at the court house, in Wilmington.—Wilming Every Evening.

HINES—SIMPSON.

Mr. Thomas Hines, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hines, of Baltimore, and grandson of Hon. Joseph A. Wickes, of Chestertown, was married to Miss Adele Simpson, of Henry, Ill., on April 11. Mr. Hines is a civil engineer, and is connected with the sanitary district of Chicago, where he resides.

*†*Mr. Nelson, the well-known horse dealer, purchased valuable horses last week from Messrs. George B. McWhorter, James Greenwood, Robert Moffett and others.
