FARMERS' WIVES TELL WHAT THEY KNOW ABOUT PE-RU-NA.

Peruna Is Used In the Farmer's Home for all Sorts of Catarrhal Ailments.

Now Perfectly Healthy.

Mrs. Magdalena Winkler, Route 5, Westminster, Md., writes:

"I thank you very much for your advice. I can safely say that Peruna and Manalin have saved my life.

"When I wrote to you the first time, asking your advice, my condition was so poor that I did not expect to live through the winter, but now I am perfectly healthy.

"I cannot praise your medicine enough, and I recommend it to others."

Catarrh of Stomach.

Mrs. Mary Allen, Route 6, Franklin, Tenn., writes:

"I am glad to be able to tell you that I am well of catarrh of the stomach, for which I am sincerely thankful to you for your advice. If it had not been for Peruna I would never have been well.

"I had three physicians. One of them told my husband that he could not cure me.

"I had been sick about nine months when a friend asked me to try Peruna to gratify her; so I commenced taking it.

"I can eat and walk and work. Everybody says I look as well as I ever did.

"Oh, you don't know how thankful I do feel to you.

"I have got several other people to take Peruna. I praise it to everybody."

For Children's Colds.

Mrs. Henry Martin, La Motte, Ia., R. R. No. 1, writes:

"After suffering for some time with sore eyes I was advised by a friend to try Peruna, which I did at once.

"The first bottle relieved me, and after using four bottles I was entirely cured.

"I do recommend Peruna to all who are afflicted with catarrh. I have found it to be a great remedy also for coughs and colds of children; a dose at bedtime will relieve them from coughing all night. I always keep it on hand, and recommend it."

Catarrh for Seven Years.

Mrs. T. Frech, R. R. No. 1, Hickory Point, Tenn., writes: "I am happy to tell you that I am cured of catarrh. I have followed your good and kind advice faithfully. I bless the day when I wrote you of my condition, and I will always praise Peruna. I think it is one of the grandest medicines on earth.

"Having been afflicted with catarrh and stomach trouble for seven years, and after having tried four different doctors they only relieved me for a little while. I gave up all hope of being cured. I only weighed one hundred and thirty pounds, and was so weak I could hardly get around the room.

"I was induced to try Peruna, and to my great surprise I am now entirely well. My weight is now one hundred and eighty-eight pounds, my health never was better in my life, I shall always praise Dr. Hartman and his remedies."

Indigestion and Nervousness.

Mrs. Lenora Bodenhamer, R. F. D. 1, Box 99, Kernersville, North Carolina, writes the following letter to The Peruna Drug Manufacturing Company:

"I suffered with stomach trouble and indigestion for some time, and nothing that I ate agreed with me.

"I was very nervous and experienced a continual feeling of uneasiness and fear.

"I took medicine from the doctor, but it did me no good. I found in one of your Peruna books a description of my symptoms. I then wrote to Dr. Hartman for advice. He said I had catarrh of the stomach.

"I took Peruna and Manalin and followed his directions and can now say that I feel as well as I ever did.

"I hope that all who are afflicted with the same symptoms will take Peruna, as it has certainly cured me."

The Farmer's Wife.

Who is in a better position to know than the farmer's wife herself what is required in the farmer's home? She must meet its troubles, solve its problems, ward off disease, nurse the sick, she must do all these things herself, and she learns by valuable experience what is best and what is not best.

In numberless farm homes Peruna is relied upon as the family medicine. Peruna books are consulted in health and disease. Peruna is used as a preventive as well as a corrective in disease.

The wives of the farmers of the United States constitute a solid phalanx in favor of Peruna. Against this testimony the slanders of a few critics will not prevail. One sensible mistress of a farm home who has used Peruna knows more about Peruna than all the magazine critics in the world.

Peruna in Her Home.

Mrs. Anna Linder, R. F. D. No. 5, Dassel, Meeker Co., Minn., writes: "For two years I suffered with that terrible disease, chronic catarrh.

"Fortunately I saw your advertisement in my paper and I spoke to my sister about your medicine. She wrote to you and I got your advice free of charge, I took Peruna and am well and a mother of two children.

"I owe it all to Peruna. I would not be without that great tonic for ten times its cost, for I am well and strong now, and cannot speak in too high terms of its value as a medicine."

In a letter dated June 12, 1906, Mrs. Linder writes: "I cannot express my thanks enough to you for all the good your medicine has done for me and my family. This spring I took cold and it settled in my kidneys. At first I thought it was kidney trouble.

"I took Peruna a directed on the bottle and in a few days I was all right, so I owe my health to Dr. Hartman and his remedy."

Miserable With Catarrh.

Mrs. Hettie Green, R. R. 6, Iuka, Ill., writes: "Last November I had catarrh, and felt so miserable, I thought that I would go into consumption.

"I tried so many doctors and medicines, but nothing did me any good, only Peruna.

"After I began th use of Peruna I began to improve in every way.

"My head does not hurt so much, my stomach is all right, my bowels are regular, my appetite good, my complexion clear, my eyes are bright, and I am gaining in flesh and strength.

"I think Peruna has no equal as a catarrh remedy."

LOCAL MATTERS.

Injured Hand.—Mr. William T Nicholson injured the second and third fingers of his right hand on Thursday afternoon by having them caught in a circular saw, while sawing wood on Fancy farm. The tips of the two fingers were severed. Dr. Simmons dressed the wounds, which are only slight.

Postponement.—Owing to the inability of State President, Rev. A. B. Wood, to attend the 28th inst., Camp No. 34 P. O. S. of A. have changed the date of their annual banquet from April 28th to May 12th. There will be several good speakers in addition to the gifted president.

Farm Sold.—The "Ayres" or "Stevens" farm containing 36¼ acres, situated in the Fifth Election District, and advertised in the TRANSCRIPT by Hope H. Barroll, attorney for the owner, was purchased at public sale on Saturday by Miss Ella Younger, of Baltimore, for $1315.

Horticultural Society Report.—Any farmer may secure a copy of the annual report of the Peninsula Horticultural Society free by simply addressing a postal card to Mr. Wesley Webb, secretary, Dover, Del. The next meeting of the society will be held in Wilmington, Jan. 12 15, 1909.

A Fine Colt.—Mr. George Jones' fine brood mare, Henrietta, at his stable in Kennedyville, on Wednesday gave birth to a fine filly old Belton. The colt has all the earmarks of a fast horse, and if its breeding is anything it will make a very speedy horse. The colt is a full sister to Mr. D. B. McMenamin's Rachel B., a promising colt which showed very great speed at Tolchester last fall.

Governor a Bank Director.—While in Elkton last week, it is reliably reported that Governor Crothers completed negotiations for the purchase of a share of the capital stock of the National Bank of Elkton. It is understood that Governor Crothers will be named as one of the directors of the institution next month. The bank has a capital of $50,000 and a surplus and undivided profits amounting to $140,000.

Saw Baloon.—A baloon passed over Morgan Creek bridge one day this week and was seen by the family of Mr. Charles D. McCleary. It was so far off that no one could tell precisely whether anyone was in it, but an object looking like a man was distinguishable.

Piano Sale.—We call the attention of patrons and friends to the splendid display of pianos, organs and pianolas, in the rooms under the Voshell House by Mr. Warren C. Hurlock, representative of the well-known and popular Baltimore firm, Sanders & Stayman. This firm are manufacturers and representatives of the best makes of instruments on the market, as their big adv. in another column will prove. The sale is now on, and here is an opportunity for the people of Kent to secure a fine instrument at moderate cost. Mr. Hurlock has already sold several fine pianos and has prospective purchasers for others. Go in and examine the instruments.

OBITUARY

LUCAS ALRICH.

Mr. Lucas Alrich, a former well-known and highly esteemed resident of Worton, this county, died at the home of his son, Frank C. Alrich, Relay, Baltimore, on Saturday last, aged 87 years. The subject of our sketch was born in Wilmington, Del., April 26, 1821. He was a lineal descendant of Jacobus Alrich, the first Governor of the colony of Delaware, who was sent over by the burgomasters of Holland in 1657. Peter Alrich, a descendant and successor of Jacobus Alrich, was Governor of the Colony of Delaware in 1673, and was given a grant of land near Wilmington, Del., which was known to the family as "The Old Homestead," by the Indians in exchange for two otter skins per year. This homestead remained in the possession of the Alrich family from 1673 to 1882, having descended by succession to the eldest son. It was on the old homestead that the Alrich family lived and where they shaped a destiny that has linked the family name with the history of the Diamond State.

In 1846 the subject of our sketch moved to Shrewsbury, this county, where he purchased a farm, and where in 1856, he married a daughter of former Sheriff Frank Cann, who, as a loving helpmeet, strove to make a long and eventful life joyous and happy. Sometime after his marriage Mr. Alrich returned to the old homestead, near Wilmington, where he remained for some years. In 1882, he moved to Worton, and it is was there that we knew him as a loyal citizen, a devout husband, and a consistent Christian. He identified himself with St. James' Church under the pastorate of Rev. F. T. Little, and from the time of his connection with the church until his death, we are sure that he strove to glorify God in all his works, and was one of the most loyal and devout workers for the upbuilding of Christ's Kingdom. The name of Alrich is indissolubly connected with the older society of Worton, that society which was known and cherished for its dignity and high ideals of life, and which during the lifetime of its constituency was the synonym for the most lavish hospitality. In 1897, when the ravages of age began to make themselves felt, Mr. Alrich and his family removed to Baltimore, where since the death of his wife about five years ago he has made his home with his son Frank. He did not lose his interest in his church and until he was called higher, he was a member of Mt. Royal Avenue M. P. Church. The testimony of all who knew the deceased, and all with whom he came in contact in life was that Lucas Alrich was a grand good man, and he has left to his posterity not only the legacy of a prominent family name, but he has left them the heritage of a Christian life spent in the service of his Master since his connection with the church. He is survived by five sons—Messrs. Frank C., B. P., L. P., L. L. and C. P. Alrich, and two daughters, Miss Mollie and Mrs. Tenie V. Gale. The remains were brought to Chestertown on Monday night by steamer Corsica, and rested in Christ M. P. Church until Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock whence they were taken to Chester Cemetery for interment. Rev. Dr. F. T. Little conducted the services. The pallbearers were his five sons and one grandson, Mr. Blair Alrich. Undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

CAPT. J. E. WALTERS, SR.

Capt. J. E. Walters, Sr., died at his home, near Centreville, on Tuesday afternoon, after an illness of about three weeks. He was born October 9, 1832, at Walters' Landing on the upper Chester river. He was engaged in farming when he died, but had formerly been a brakeman on the Q. A. & K. railroad, and at one time he freighted merchandise from Millington, Suddlersville and other towns. He leaves two daughters Mrs. William Thawley, of near Centreville, Mrs. Mollie Parks, of Baltimore; two sons, J. Edward Walters, Jr., of Centreville and Charles Walters, of Philadelphia, two brothers, Capt. Sam'l. C. Waters, of Flatland and Mr. Benjamin Walters, of Galena, and one sister, Mrs. John Duling, of Millington.

MRS. MARIA E. BENSON.

Mrs. Maria E. Benson, widow of Rev. B. F. Benson, a former well-known minister in the Maryland Annual Conference, died in Westminster on Monday. The deceased was connected with many of the prominent families of Kent, Queen Annes and Talbot Counties. She was the daughter of the late John B. Thomas, and was a cousin of Judge P. B. Hopper, of this circuit. She leaves one daughter and two sons—Mrs. John Merrick, of Sudlersville, Rev. Frank T. Benson, of Denton, and Prof. Howard Benson, of Baltimore. The remains were brought to Sudlersville and interred in the cemetery there at 11 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, Rector of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, conducted the services at the grave.

JOSEPH A. CATLIN.

The remains of Dr. Joseph A. Catlin, who died suddenly on Dec. 4, 1907, were brought to Chestertown by train yesterday and laid to rest in Chester cemetery. Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin conducted the services at the grave. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements. The deceased was formerly a practicing physician in Chestertown and had many warm friends here.

JAMES H. BOONE.

Mr. James H. Boone, a well-known resident of Queen Annes, died at his home near Catlin's corner on Wednesday, of heart failure, aged 74 years. Funeral services were held yesterday with interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson.

WILLIAM E. BIGGERS.

Mr. William E. Biggers died at his home near Goose Hill Sunday last of cancer, aged 63 years. Funeral was held Wednesday morning from his late residence conducted by Rev. Leonard White; interment at old Union cemetery, Worton. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of arrangements.
