Second National Bank

OF CHESTERTOWN. MD.

Capital	$50,000
Surplus and Profits	48,000
Liability of Stockholders	50,000
Security to Depositors	$148,000

In estimating the safety of a Bank, it is always well to remember that the CAPITAL, SURPLUS and PROFITS, in other words, the BANK'S OWN MONEY, is that which gives SECURITY to the DEPOSITORS. In view of the financial disturbances through which the country has just passed, SECURITY is the feature which should merit the FIRST consideration. The Capital Surplus and Profits of this Bank form a fund that insures SECURITY to those who entrust their money to us. This Bank is under rigid government supervision, and its directors consist of men of experience, sound judgment and undoubted integrity—a board of unusual strength. They are directors who DIRECT meeting once a week to discuss the affairs of the Bank and the building up of its business.

Let us have YOUR business. We give equal attention to small and large accounts. Interest paid on Savings Deposits.

Very Respy.

Chestertown All Right.

The visitors attending court in the railroad case from Havre de Grace and Elkton, were much pleased with Chestown and its good people, and some were heard to remark that they would like to reside here. All the visitors enjoyed themselves, and it would be a pleasure to have them come again, not upon such a mission perhaps as they were forced to come for this time.

Purchased Undertaking Business.

Mr. Charles L. Dodd, clerk to the Board of County Commissioners, has this week purchased of his uncle, Mr. John N. Dodd, the undertaking business, including the goodwill, hearses, horses, dead wagon and stock. The price paid is private. Mr. Dodd will continue the business at the old stand which has been in the family for many years. Mr. Dodd is a young man, thoroughly conversant with the undertaking business, and is well-known to a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He will give his personal attention to the business, and solicits the patronage of his many friends.

Settlement of Hynson Case.

The Hynson case, which has attracted so much attention and interest throughout the county for some months past, because of the prominence and popularity of the family, has happily been settled out of court by a compromise, thus avoiding much unpleasantness and publicity of the private family affairs. There is no public record of what the compromise contained, but we understand it is satisfactory to all parties concerned.

Wedding Bells.

CASEY—MOORE.

The home of ex-sheriff and Mrs. Jas. A. Casey, in Rock Hall, was the scene of a quiet though pretty wedding on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, when their accomplished daughter, Miss Nellie F. Casey, became the bride of Mr. David J. Moore, the obliging and efficient clerk in the large shoe store of Mr. Clinton C. Jones, of Chestertown. The ceremony was performed in the beautifully decorated parlor in the presence of only the immediate families and a few friends, by Rev. Mr. Richardson, pastor of Rock Hall M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. Warner Burr, former pastor. Immediately following the ceremony a sumptuous luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Moore were driven to Rock Hall wharf, where they took the steamer for a short wedding trip to Washington and other points of interest. They will be "at home" after May 5th at the Watts House, on Princess street. The happy couple were the recipients of many useful and valuable presents.

The bride was attired in a becoming traveling suit of blue Panama cloth, with hat and gloves to match. She carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The groom wore the conventional black. The wedding march was skilfully rendered by Miss Anna May Ayres.

PEDRICK—CRAWFORD.

Miss Beulah V. Crawford, daughter of Mrs. Louise P. Crawford, of Warwick, and Mr. George Albert Pedrick, of New Castle, Del., were quietly married Thursday morning at St. Anne's P. E. Church, at Middletown, Del., by Rev. Percy L. Donaghay. Miss May Roe, of Massey's, Md., Mr. Walter Hoffman, of New Castle, and Mr. Archie Crawford, the bride's brother, were the only witnesses. The bride wore a brown tailored suit, with hat and gloves to match Mr. and Mrs. Pedrick left immediately after the ceremony for a short trip, after which they will reside in New Castle, where the groom is engaged in business.

GORDEN—EATON.

A quiet wedding took place in Warwick on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The contracting parties were Miss Helen Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace M. Eaton, and Bayard C. Gorden. A reception followed the ceremony, after which they were driven to Middletown, where they took a north bound train for their wedding trip. They will reside at Marshalton, where the groom is engaged in farming.

Made Narrow Escape.

James W. Chapman, Jr., Esq., a prominent member of the Baltimore bar, and son of Mr. James W. Chapman of this town, made a narrow escape from losing the sight of one of his eyes last Tuesday morning. Mr. Chapman arose on Tuesday morning, and thought he would remove the drugget from his bedrooms preparatory to his servants cleaning the room. He began to remove the tacks when one flew up and struck Mr. Chapman square in the ball of the eye, the point of the tack entering some distance into the eye. Mr. Chapman quickly removed the tack, and hastily summoned Dr. Woods, a specialist, who has been treating him since. Mr. Chapman has suffered much pain since, but the doctor does not fear now that he will suffer any serious results from the accident. Mr. Chapman was unable to attend to his large practice for several days.

Close of Oyster Season.

Last Saturday was the last day of the season for tonging of oysters in the waters of Maryland. Vessels with cargoes will have 10 days in which to dispose of their freight, and after that the market will be closed until next fall. Since the dredging of oysters ceased, March 15, very few cargoes have gone to the city, and many of the steam houses practically discontinued work. The market is weak and prices yesterday were 40 to 60 cents per bushel. The demand for raw stock has practically dwindled away to nothing. The consensus of opinion is that there will be plenty of oysters for next season's catch, as there still remain on the beds innumerable oysters for seeding.

Grange Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Chestertown Grange was held at its room in Fraternal Hall, on Tuesday afternoon. A good attendance was present, and after the regular business meeting the following interesting programme was rendered.

Music by the Phonograph, Mr. J. H. Sides.
Address—"The principles of the Grange" Mr. H. P. Skipper.
Music Mr. Sides.
Address—"The home in its relation to the Grange" Mr. Jas. T. Anthony.
Music Mr. Sides.
Address—"The office of Flora its relation to the Grange." Mrs. Charles Willis.

Immediately preceding the literary programme splendid refreshments of orange ade and cake were served by Mrs. Frank M. Miller, Lady Asst. Steward. The Grange is rapidly growing in membership, and several candidates will be obligated at the next meeting on the second Tuesday in May.
