The old vestry of Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, were re-elected at a meeting held on Monday last at the church. Dr. W. Frank Hines was elected delegate to the Easton Diocese Convention to be held at Centreville the first week in June. Capt. C. E. Crane was elected alternate.

The following officers of St. James M. P. Sunday School were elected Sunday : Superintendent, Robert G. Nicholson; assistant, John Gale; secretary, John Hessey ; organist, Miss Addie Gale; assistant, Miss Edna Edwards; librarian, Wilbur Kendall.

Mrs. Thos. D. Bowers led the Christian Workers Service in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening. Her subject was "Our Heavenly Home." Miss Mayme Thompson and Miss Nettie Russell read splendid papers upon the subject and Mr. Warren C. Hurlock played a beautiful violin solo, accompanied on the piano by Mr. Holt, of Connecticut.

The General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church in the United States will convene in Pittsburg, Pa., on May 15. This is the most important gathering in this growing and flourishing denomination throughout the country and the coming session will likely be the most important in the history of the church. Rev. Dr. F. T. Little and Mr. Wm. B. Usilton are among the delegates from Maryland.

Christ M. P. Church. Rev. Dr. F. T. Little pastor. Testimony meeting at 9.30 A. M. Preaching at 7.30 P. M. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at 10.30 A. M. Sunday school at 2.30 P. M. Juniors at six o'clock. Christian Workers service at 6.45 P. M. Come worship with us.

The supper and sale of fancy articles given by the Dorcas Society on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon and evenings was largely attended and a good sum was realized for a most worthy cause.

Rev. E. S. Fooks, the new pastor of Kennedyville M. P. Church, is meeting with much success in his new field of labor, and he has already won the hearts of his congregation. We predict for Mr. Fooks a successful ministry at Kennedyville. He is among some of the best people in the world, and we are sure they will do everything in their power to make their preacher happy and contented.

On Sunday, May 3rd, the morning service at Still Pond, Rev. E. H. Collins, pastor, will be in charge of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Mrs. W. E. Moore, of Baltimore, will make the address, and it is hoped that a large congregation will be present.

Base Ball Notes.

The Chestertown "Stars" played Church Hill on Saturday and defeated them by the score of 9 to 6. The batteries for the "Stars" were Lambert and Duyer, and Wallace and Clark were the battery for Church Hill. The Chestertown "Stars" are the stuff. They will go to Rock Hall today to play the strong team of that town

The P. O. S. of A. team defeated a "scrub" team on Saturday afternoon by the score of 9 to 4.

One of the best games seen on Washington Field for many a day, was that on Saturday afternoon between Washington College and Goldey Business College, of Wilmington. For six innings the score stood 1 to 1, and it was a pitchers battle from start to finish, Johns getting the better of the argument. Johns is proving himself a fine slab artist, and his good judgment and cool head go a great way toward assisting him to deliver the goods for his team. Turner was back in the game and his presence gave additional inspiration to the team. The game closed a victory for Washington by the score of 6 to 4. The team is away from home this week. They have played Rock Hill, Gettysburg, Mt. St. Mary's, Carlisle Indians and Villa Nova. The next game on the home grounds will be with St. John's, May 23rd.

The Chestertown High School went to Rock Hall on Saturday and defeated them by a score of 11 to 3.

A Splendid Compliment.—Editor Abbott, in the Annapolis Evening Capital, pays a well deserved compliment to Mr. Lewin Wethered Barroll, the brilliant Washington College student, who represented that institution at the Annual Oratorical Contest of Maryland colleges, as will be seen in another column. Mr. Barroll has done much toward upholding the honor of his college, and we feel sure that his speech on this occasion was well worthy of the praise it received from Bro. Abbott, and we are told from many who heard it. Such a compliment coming from such a competent source is a greater victory than if Mr. Barroll had returned home with the first prize medal.

BISMARCK'S ANGER.

The Incident That Made Certain the Franco-German War.

The Princess Bismarck, so the story goes, changed the political history of France unwittingly, and but for her the Franco-Prussian war might never have been waged.

Bismarck was unfriendly to France, but the Empress Eugenie hoped with her beauty to influence him so that the little trouble with France and Germany might be smoothed over. She therefore invited the German prince and his wife to visit the court of France, and the Prince and Princess Bismarck arrived in great state at the Tuileries.

That evening there was a grand reception, and Eugenie received the guests in a gown which made her so ravishingly lovely that even Prince Bismarck, German, stolid and in love with his wife, stood and gazed upon her with admiration. And Eugenie was not slow to observe the effect of her beauty upon him. She called him to her side, and Bismarck came, with his wife upon his arm.

Now, the Princess Bismarck was tall and gaunt, and her feet were generous. As she walked she showed a great deal of sole.

While Bismarck stood talking with Eugenie an audible titter was heard along the line of ladies. Bismarck, who was quick as a flash, followed the glance of their eyes and saw them rest upon the feet of his wife.

That settled the matter. The political history of France was altered from that moment.

A year later, when Paris was besieged, Bismarck himself fired a cannon over the ramparts, and those who were near him heard him shout:

"Take that for the feet of the Princess Bismarck!"

The slight was avenged.

The Mayflower.

Never did a ship sail with such momentous results as the little west country clipper schooner the Mayflower, but few people have bothered to ask what was her fate after she had landed the heroic band of Englishmen on Plymouth rock. As a matter of fact, she drifted into the cotton trade and sank after many years of service for the East India company at Masulipatam, on the coast of India.—London Standard.

A Third Need.

"You need," said the expert to the sufferer, "two pairs of glasses, one for reading and one for long distance."

"Can't you make it three pairs?" asked the man who had made a study of his own case. "I'd like some short sighted ones to use on bill collectors."—Nashville American.

Agreed With Him.

Father (calling from head of stairs at 11:30 p. m.)—Jennie, don't you think it's about time to go to bed? Jennie—Yes, papa dear What on earth keeps you up so late?—Pathfinder.

Not Unusual.

"Sometimes," said Uncle Eben, "I ketches myse'f lambastin' a mule foh doin' purty much de same as I would do if I was in de mule's place!"—Washington Star.

Nature creates merit; fortune brings it into play.—Rochefoucauld.
