Easter Essentials.

THE glad Easter season is near at hand. It is above all others the season when the fair sex has the desire to be becomingly attired and present a most pleasing appearance. It, too, is a season of the year when one can be neatly arrayed in the season's very newest articles of wearing apparel---at little expense--this, you know, adds much toward making the appearance pleasing. The Ladies' Store will prove a great benefit to the economical buyers who avail themselves of the extremely attractive prices placed upon the Easter essentials. Our lines in all departments are complete, and the showings for this season are vast and varied, and well within the reach of all.

Easter, EASTER SHOES!

The robins are here and glorious Easter is but a few days off. Our spring showing of practical, dainty and exclusive has never been equaled in Chestertown. It is READY FOR YOUR INSPECTION. You will find scores of

Footwear Styles

Out of the Ordinary and Full of Individuality.

Styles for Ladies and Misses. Styles never found and never dreamed of in the ordinary shoe store. Before selecting your Easter shoes, step in and see what we have to offer. Our prices always please.

DRESS GOODS

Our showing for Spring was never so varied and never so complete as it is this spring. All the newest and best things the market affords are to be found here in any desired shade and at saving prices. Browns are very strong this spring, also Copenhagen blue. They are to be found in abundance. Come look them over before you select your spring outfit.

MILLINERY.

FLOWERS! FLOWERS! FLOWERS!

Our MILLINERY department is aglow this season with all the very newest things that are to be found. We have made every effort to get the very best and most attractive styles for our trade this season, and we think we are now in a position to give our patrons a little better than they can get anywhere else on the Shore for the price.

CAUGHT FIVE OTTERS.

The Family Cat is Now Nursing One With Her Family of Kittens.

Mr. Henn Hurd, a prominent fisherman, of Worton, this county, while fishing his pounds Wednesday night in Fairlee Creek, caught five young otters, something very unusual in this locality. The otters were alive when caught. As it is now against the law to kill the otters, and as they are scarcely larger than a young puppy, Mr. Hurd took his valuable catch home. He gave four of them to friends, and kept the fifth one. Mr. Hurd has a valuable cat which has a family of kittens, and he gave the young otter to the cat, scarcely dreaming that she would care for it. But the little fellow is just as happy as the kittens, and he gets just as much milk as he wants. The old mother cat thinks he is fine, and knows no difference in her love between the otter and the kittens. Last winter otter hides sold for $15 and $20, and the animal is extremely scarce in these parts now.

Galena Items.

Mr. J. Thos. Pennington has improved his property by painting his front fence. Mr. Unit Horsey did the work.

The farmers in this vicinity are busily engaged in planting their corn.

Mr. Dixon has erected a handsome new monument in Galena cemetery in memory of Joseph P. Powell.

Mr. Harry Rickard, of Still Pond, was in town on Sunday.

Miss May Nickerson visited her mother on Saturday and Sunday.

We were glad to see our friend, Robert Shallcross, who was staying with his mother, Miss Lena Shallcross, on Sunday.

Mr. George Dunlap, formerly of Galena, but who now lives in Wilmington, was among us last week.

The entertainment given by the teachers of Shrewsbury Academy merits considerable praise. They were invited to repeat the performance the second night, which they did, to the delight of the audience. They cleared about $60.00.

Miss Etta Briscoe and Mrs. Verma Nickerson, both of Chestertown, visited Still Pond on Sunday.

Miss Mary Steel is home from Federalsburg, Md.

Miss Gertrude Mitchell visited her parents on Sunday.

Mrs. D. J. Steel visited her parents at Golt on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. A. P. Prettyman was at Still Pond on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Prettyman visited Mrs. Prettyman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Merchant, on Sunday.

We hear that Mr. B. F. Merchant has rented his large farm to his brother, Mr. Sam. Merchant, for the next year. It is rumored that Mr. B. F. Merchant will return to the West. If so, we will miss him.

The town election for Monday is causing considerable debate.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McIntyre visited Mrs. Raymond Thornley, of Sassafras, on Sunday.

Mr. C. W. Clements and daughter, of Crumpton, were in town last week.

Mr. Parr attended a banquet of the Odd Fellows in Baltimore last week. He has been a member of this lodge nearly 50 years. He was also very much surprised on Tuesday, which was his 75th birthday, by a reunion of his children and a fine dinner at home.

Still Pond Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jewell spent Tuesday with relatives in Chestertown.

Mrs. A. J. Hackett, Jr., and daughter, Marghurite, spent Wednesday with her parents, in Worton.

Miss Mae Nickerson spent Sunday with her mother in Galena.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Parr and children, Lucille and Holton, spent Tuesday with his father, Mr. Parr, Galena.

Mr. Carl Norris and Mr. Leamont Hackett spent Sunday in Galena.

Mr. Howard Johnston has been quite sick with pneumonia but is able to be out again at this writing.

Mr. Claude Hackett is visiting his grandmother in Chestertown.

Mr. Golden Warren in visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mrs. J. W. Harper is improving her home with a coat of paint.

The girls gave an enjoyable party at the home of Mrs. S. E. Severson, Monday evening. The evening was spent pleasantly in games and music, until time for refreshments to be served, when on going to the cellar we found one of our finest dishes of caramels had been taken. The young men who took them we certainly wish would learn good manners. The girls wished that they would be sick for a week as they gave the treat, and we hear that one of the young men really was sick. Mrs. Severson found her silver handle dish hanging on her store door. Those present were:—Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Severson and son, Mrs. Kate Ford, Misses Daisy Severson, Mary and Katie Capps, Marion Hackett, Mae Nickerson, Mabel and Laura Norris, Lillias Walter. Messrs. Golden Warren, Penn Toulson, Harry Ricards, Chas. Wallace, Clarence Ford, Herman Robinson, Baynard Harper, Ernest Robinson and Carl Norris.
