The Northern Convocation of the Diocese of Easton will hold its spring session at Shrewsbury church beginning on Tuesday evening the 12th and continuing Wednesday morning and afternoon with a collation at noon on the church lawn. The session will conclude with a service on Thursday at 10.30 A. M. A general and cordial invitation is extended to all.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sunday School at 2.15. Epworth League meeting at 6.45 P. M. Morning subject—"I believe in the Holy Ghost." All are cordially invited.

The Queen Esther Circle was entertained on Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Irma Eliason.

The Chestertown Epworth League has elected officers as follows: president, Prof. J. L. Smith; first vice-pres., Miss Eunice Lambert; second vice-pres., Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter; third vice-pres., Mrs. W. L. White; secretary, Miss Maude Kemp; treasurer, Miss Mabel Toulson.

Twin Boys.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Whittington, formally of Masseys but now of Clayton, Del., are the proud parents of a pair of fine baby boys who made their appearance on April 28. According to Delaware history these are the first twins ever born in Clayton, and Mr. and Mrs. Whittington have a standing offer of $5000 for the pair, the combined weight of which is 18 pounds, Baby No. 1 weighing 9½ and No. 2 8½ pounds. At $5,000 for the two would mean $277.77⅞ per pound. Now for the problem. We have been asked by the parents to suggest names for these younsters, and while we must admit we have had considerable experience in naming boys, we have never had the difficult problem of naming two at one time, however as the TRANSCRIPT has never been known to shirk responsibility we will endeavor to perform our duty in granting this request, recognizing at the same time the compliment extended to us. The birth of twins in Chestertown is not an unusual occurrence but as these are the first to have ever been born in Clayton they are entitled to greater prominence than is usually granted to such youngsters, so we will suggest the names of Bryan and Taft, and hope they may live to gain such distinction and honor among their countrymen as the gentlemen whose names we suggest. Should the parents decide to accept our suggestion we respectfully ask that baby No. 1, 9½ pounds, be named Bryan and baby No. 2, 8½ pounds bear the name of Taft, and we hope Bryan will always be able to lick Taft.

Commissioners Organize and Appoint Water Board.

At the regular annual meeting of the Board of Town Commissioners on Monday, the commissioners organized by electing Mr. Wm. S. Carroll, president and Mr. Thomas S. Bordley secretary and clerk. Mr. George D. Lofland is the third member of the board.

The most interesting and important business before the board was the appointment of a water commission, which was authorized by an Act of the recent Legislature and ratified by the votes of the citizens of Chestertown at the recent municipal election. The commissioners appointed Messrs. Jefferson D. Bacchus, Thomas D. Bowers and Chas. N. Satterfield members of the Water Board. The above will hold office for one year, at the expiration of which time three persons will be elected by vote of the tax-payers to serve for three years.
