We are sorry to say that Miss Fay Wyatt who is going to business school in Baltimore, has been very ill with typhoid fever and has been under treatment at St. Joseph's Hospital during her illness. She is not any better at this writing.

Our Sunday morning service was in the interest of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter, district secretary, presided. Mrs. Rice, of Baltimore, district treasurer, gave a very interesting and helpful talk to the Sunday school. Mrs. Moore, Supt. of Kings Herald, also of Baltimore, made a strong and forceful address in the interest of the society, and the result was the organization of a Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of twelve members. The society made no mistake when they put Mrs. Klinefelter as district secretary. She knows how to bring things to pass. Come again, ladies. The first meeting of this new society will be held the first Tuesday afternoon in June.

The Epworth League was reorganized last Thursday night, and the following officers elected: President, E. H. Collins; 1st vice-president, William Ford; 2d vice-pres., Miss Mary Anderson; 3d vice-pres., Miss Mary Capps; 4th vice-pres., Miss Mabel Norris; secretary, John Boulden; treasurer, Mrs. J. C. Rasin; organist, Mrs. Ida Schofield; assistant, Mrs. May Jewell; chorister, Mr. A. J. Hackett. The League meeting is held each Sunday evening at 7.30. Bro. Hackett, the choir leader, is doing his best to arrange a large chorus choir for the evening service. Don't fail to be present next Sunday evening to hear them sing.

Our pastor's subject Sunday morning, "The Glorious Gospel," and in the evening will close the talks on the "Echoes of the Conference." A cordial welcome awaits you at the service.
