What the Kidneys do.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

George H. Gardner, living on Front St., Chestertown, Md., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have proven very beneficial to me, and I heartily recommend to other sufferers of kidney complaints. For several years I endured a great deal of misery from a distressing aching across my back, and had pains in my loins, so severe that it really felt as if a knife were being thurst into my back. Noticing that the secretions were disordered, and deciding to try a kidney remedy, I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at M. A. Toulson's drug store. I began using them as directed, they gave me relief from the first, and at last affected a complete cure. I do not hesitate to recommend them as a good medicine for the kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 Cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

inson College and widely known man in educational work; Rev. Dr. T. J. Cooke, the book editor of the church, who received a large vote at Los Angeles four years ago; Rev. Edwin H. Hughes, president of De Pauw University; Rev. Dr. William Hanford Crawford, president of Allegheny College; Rev. Dr. F. D. Bovard, editor of the San Francisco Christian Advocate, and Rev. Dr. David H. Downey, head of the department of Sunday school literature; Rev. Dr. Robert McIntyre, a pastor of Los Angeles; Rev. Dr. Charles L. Goodell, of Calvary Church, New York city, and Rev. Dr. Wilbur F. Sheridan, of Mount Vernon Place Church.

Delegates from distant lands will add a picturesque touch to the picture by their native garb. Of these there are a hundred or more. Besides Bishop Scott there will be leading negro preachers, educators and laymen of prominence, some of whom are office-holders under the Federal Government.

NOTED MEN COMING.

Governors Buchtel, of Colorado; Hanly, of Indiana, and Hoch, of Kansas, are regularly elected delegates and will spend a whole month here unless some grave and unforseen business should call them to the capitals of their States. Senator Dolliver, of Iowa; Congressman John E. Andrus, of New York; Congressman W. C. Hawley, of Oregon, are delegates.

Vice-President Fairbanks if a leading member of the church in Indiana, which like Ohio, is a strong Methodist State and will attend some of the sessions, although not a delegate. He was defeated, it is said, because of the story that he served cocktails at his table to a dinner at which President Roosevelt was present. President Roosevelt, although not a Methodist, is president of the managers of the American University in Washington, which is a Methodist institution, under the direction of Rev. Dr. Franklin Hamilton, a brother of Bishop Hamilton.

Among the judges who are delegates are Judge McWorter, of the Supreme Court of West Virginia; Judge P. F. Shepard, of Bay City, Mich., and Judge F. V Reynolds, of Coldwater, Mich. Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, is a member of the denomination and will be here to preside over the lecture by Rev. Dr. Quayle. Lieutenant-Governor Parker, of Delaware, is a delegate. Mr. John Huyler, the New York candy manufacturer, and other men of prominence in business will be present.

If the conference did not continue for a whole month many millionaries who support the church liberally by their contributions would be pleased to give it the benefit of their hard-headed administrative powers. Professional men of eminence would be delegates if they could possibly spare the time. But as it is, there are in the gathering men who would not desert their business for a month for any other purpose and who attend only because their church is so vital to them that it comes before their business.

A GREAT CHURCH IN CONFERENCE.

The Methodist church in the United States was first established in Maryland, and Baltimore is, therefore, an appropriate place for the General Conference of this great church, which began its deliberations in Baltimore Wednesday. The first Methodist preacher who came to America was Robert Strawbridge, a native of Ireland, who arrived at Sam's Creek, in what is now Carroll county, about or shortly before the year 1760. This was 22 years after the birth of Methodism as it is known to history. Mr. Strawbridge built a log church on Sam's Creek about 1764, and that is said to have heen the first Methodist church building in America. Before this he had built up the first society of Methodists in the New World. That was the beginning, and now we have a conference with representatives from all lands, from all nations and languages and coming from millions of people.

The history of the Methodist church is inspiring. It is essentially a representative of Christian democracy. The founder of Methodism was one of the greatest among the sons of men and has left his impress upon the hearts and minds of people as few other men have since the world began. On the 2d day of March, 1791, John Wesley died, at the age of 88 years, after exclaiming with his last breath, "The best of all is, God is with us." At that time the total number of Methodists was 76,968. The present number, given in Whitaker's Almanac, is 18,000,000. Others have estimated the number as far greater, and as far back as the centennial of Wesley's death, in 1891, the estimate at Washington was 30,000,000. Probably no other man who ever lived had so great a number of avowed disciples within a little more than a century after his death.
