ROCK HALL ITEMS.

At the election on Saturday for councilmen there were sixty votes cast, and the following were elected: Messrs. R. S. Crew, A. Alexander, James A. Casey, George T. Whaland and Henry Urie. They will meet to organize on Monday May 11th. It is generally conceded that R. S. Crew will be the mayor. All concede that the government of the town is in the best hands. The questions of lights is now being discussed whether electric, gas or oil will be the cheaper. Mr. George W. Ottinger, of Philadelphia, has canvassed the town in the interest of an electrical plant. He will form a stock company and expects to get it into active operation early in the fall.

The Rock Hall base ball team will play the Chestertown team today, May 9.

Mr. Charles Davis while unloading coal Saturday his boat swamped and a colored man fell off the boat and was going down the last time when he was saved by Mr. Howard Davis.

Miss Mary Byron, of Church Hill, daughter of the late James Byron, and Mr. Levi Downey, of Rock Hall, son of Jacob B. Downey, were quietly married at the home of the groom's brother, Saturday, May 2, 1908, at 8 P. M. by Rev. J. T. Richardson.

Miss Flora Wheatley, of Chestertown, is spending a few days with Mr. Frank Wheatley, of Rock Hall.

Mr. James McKay, who has been spending several weeks with his wife at Gratitude, returned to Baltimore Monday.

Mr. Richard Jones, who has been sick for quite a long time is now well and riding around.

Mrs. Charles Davis, of Rock Hall, went to Baltimore yesterday to spend a few days with her sons.

Mr. Mack Willson, of Philadelphia, spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Willson, of East Neck.

Mr. Bob Lewis while turning his team around on the wharf Saturday broke the railing and the horse backed overboard.

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Lambert have returned from Panama and are spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lambert, of Chestertown.

Miss Rosa Gesswein, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with friends of Rock Hall.

Mrs. Thompson will be home to-day to fix her hotel at Gratitude for boarders, she will open the hotel June first.

Mr. Howard Gesswein, of Baltimore, has set up a pool-room in the room over the Post-office of this place.

Mr. Edwin Usilton, of Philadelphia, has been spending a few days with his brother, Mr. Samuel Usilton, of this town.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory McClowlough, of Baltimore, are spending a few days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones.

Mrs. C. J. Rich, of Gratitude, went to Baltimore yesterday and will return home to-day.

Miss Sadie Clark spent a few days last week with Mrs. Charles Hynson.

Some of the shad fishermen are taking up their nets as shad fishing is about over.

Master Leonard Rich while shooting birds on Saturday shot himself in the foot.

Kennedyville Items.

Some of the farmers were wanting rain last week, so they have got it this week. Wheat and grass is growing fine but it is too cool for corn.

It is a busy time with the women—it is housecleaning time, and everything about the house is on the move. You cannot find anything you want, and when you do find it it is everywhere but where it should be. We will be very glad when housecleaning is over, so the women can have a rest.

The Kennedyville base ball club defeated the Millington club at Millington on Saturday last. Our boys are open for challenges.

Mrs. Edward Faulkner met with a very painful accident one day last week by falling down stairs, hurting her arm and shoulder.

Mr. Howard Clendaniel, who for some time has frequently journeyed away for a day or two at a time, returned on last Wednesday evening with his bride. A reception was given at their home here in the village, where their relatives and friends had gathered to meet them on the arrival of the evening train. Who will be the next to follow Howard's example? Some of the boys had better hurry up before the gray hairs appear. We don't suppose the girls have forgot it's leap year.

Rev. Mr. Fooks preached two fine sermons on Sunday last to good congregations. He requests your presence to all the church services, as he wants this to be a progressive year in the church. Are there not many others who want the same thing?

Robbers seem to be quite active in Kent. Only a few weeks ago they visited Sassafras, a few nights later they visited Galena, and one night last week they visited the hen house of Mr. W. J. Hurlock and stole from fifty to sixty chickens. This thing will go on once too often and somebody will get caught as they should be. The thieves are getting very bold and we hope they will soon be caught.

We see by the paper that the tax-paying women of Still Pond have a right to vote for their town officers, but there was a very few who voted. We believe they will do better if they get interested in a hot campaign. Women never do things by half.

CITIZEN.

Price of Shad Will Stay High.

"The day of cheap shad has gone forever," remarked that well-known and popular Eastern Shore fisherman, Capt. Oliver Miller, of Tolchester, at the Eutaw House recently.

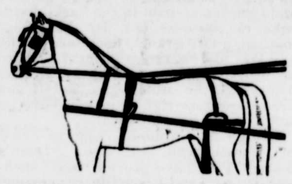

"Not so many years ago shad were selling wholesale at six to eight cents; but they have advanced in price, like every other food product, and we will never more get that royal fish at the old trifling cost, any more than we can get porterhouse steak at 10 cents a pound. The profits in shad-catching are not nearly so large as many people think, although we manage to clear a little money in the business. In the first place the cost of everything that enters into shad-catching has gone up immensly. The capital invested in nets is a big item, and the investment is by no means permanent, as they rot in a very short time. In the second place, the season is very brief, the cream of it not extending over more than two weeks."
