No. 17.

An Ordinance to establish a wholesale fish and crab market in that part of Centre Market lying on Fish Market Space, beginning at the distance of eighty-seven feet east from the east line of Centre Market Space, and running one hundred and thirty-three feet, more or less, east with Fish Market Space to Jones Falls.

To establish a wholesale market for the sale of fresh and frozen fish and crabs.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That all that part of the Centre Market lying on Fish Market Space, beginning at the distance of eighty-seven feet east from the east line of Centre Market Space, and running one hundred and thirty-three feet, more or less, east with Fish Market Space, and the width thereof to Jones' Falls, be and the same is hereby declared to be a "wholesale market for the sale of fresh and frozen fish and crabs."

Rules and regulations.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That said market shall be subject to all the rules and regulations provided by law, for the government of markets, within the City of Baltimore, excepting that all vehicles containing fresh and frozen fish and crabs, to be offered for sale in said market, shall have free access at all hours, to and from said market and through the streets on both sides thereof, as described and set apart in the first section of this ordinance; provided, that no person shall be permitted to use said market for the sale of fresh and frozen fish or crabs as aforesaid, without first obtaining a license therefor from the clerk of said market.

No crabs or fish to be sold at wholesale at any other market nor on any highway within five blocks of any market, except the Hanover & Fell's Point.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted and ordained, That no fresh or frozen fish or crabs shall be sold at any other market in the City of Baltimore at wholesale, except at the said wholesale fish and crab market established by this ordinance, nor on the highways within a distance of five blocks from any market in said City, except Hanover Market and Fell's Point Market, and not within a distance of one block from said Hanover and Fell's Point Markets. Any person violating the provisions of this section, shall be subject to a fine of twenty dollars for each and every offence, to be collected as other City fines are collected; allowing fish to be sold at boats arriving at McElderry's and Dugan's wharf, commonly called Long Dock.

Penalty.

$100 license to be paid.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted and ordained, That all persons carrying on business in said wholesale fish and crab market shall pay to the clerk of said market the sum of one hundred dollars yearly for the license provided in section two of this ordinance.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted and ordained, That all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed, so far as the same are inconsistent herewith.

Approved March 20th, 1889.

FERDINAND C. LATROBE, Mayor.
