OBITUARY.

MISS LYDIA R. HICKMAN.

Miss Lydia R. Hickman died at the home of her father, Alexandra Hickman, at Betterton, on Friday night last of consumption, aged 47 years. Funeral services were held from her late home on Tuesday at two o'clock, Rev. E. H. Collins officiating. Interment was in Still Pond Cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of funeral arrangements.

MR. JOHN J. WALLACE.

Mr. John J. Wallace, son of the late C. L. Wallace, formerly of this county, died at his home in Ridgely, Caroline county, on Tuesday morning, of consumption, aged 33 years. He is survived by a widow, who was Miss Ethel Ringgold of Caroline county, and two children. The remains were taken to Black's station on Thursday and interment took place at 12 o'clock in Shrewsbury cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of arrangements. The deceased was a brother of Mr. Edward Wallace, of near Black's. The deceased's mother, who resides in Baltimore, sustained a fall the other day fracturing her collar bone, and she was unable to attdnd the funeral.

MR. JOSHUA A COPPER.

Mr. Joshua A. Copper, son of Mrs. S. A. Copper and the late James A. Copper, died of heart failure after several months illness at his home in Baltimore on Friday last, aged 40 years. The deceased formerly lived with his parents in Still Pond, where he united with the church. He afterwards removed to Chestertown with his mother, and later removed to Baltimore, where for the past six years, until his health failed he was engaged as a mechanic in a large glass factory. It was there that he married a Miss Christhilf, a prominent young lady who was identified with Chatsworth M. E. Church. The deceased had been a great sufferer for the past few years, and was willing to answer the summons. It is a great consolation to his wife and aged mother to know that he had prepared himself for the end, and when the summons came he was ready and willing to meet his Maker. It is a sad coincidince in connection with the death of this young man that his funeral took place on his fiortieth birthday. He is survived by a widow and three small children He also leaves a mother, two sisters, Mrs. H. B. Rote, of Chestertown, and Mrs. Lee G. Holleman, of Anderson, S. C. and three brothers— Robt. W. Copper, Pocomoke City; E. E. Harding, Philadelphia, and T. S. Harding, Laurel Md.

The remains were brought to Chestertown on Saturday evening by boat, and rested at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. B. Rote, on High street, whence the funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. L. White, pastor of the M. E. Church. Interment was private in the family lot in Still Pond Cemetery. The pall-bearers were selected from the family as follows: Messrs. R. W. Copper, W. B. Copper, Jesse R. Copper, Whittier C. Copper, E. E. Harding and Harry B. Rote. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

BURTON R. EVANS.

Mr. Burton R. Evans, son of Col. and Mrs. John H. Evans, died at the home of his parents at Rolph's Wharf on Friday evening last at nine o'clock after a lingering illness of consumption, aged 38 years. For sometime he assisted his father as agent at the wharf, but since his health failed he had been going to different localities in search of relief. He had but recently returned from Ashville, N. C., where he had been seeking restoration to health since January last. But the dread disease conquered and another young life has been added to its host of victims. He is survived by a wife and one child. Besides his parents he also leaves three brothers and two sisters, among them being Mrs. Sidney P. Townshed, of this town. Funeral service were held on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. S. S. Hepburn, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in Church Hill. Interment was made in the family lot in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Wilbur W. Hurlock, W. E. B. Faithful, J. Arthur Reed, J. Carroll Catlin, Josiah Massey and Paul Massey. Undertaker J. K. Brown, of Church Hill, had charge of the funeral arrangements.

COL. WILLIAM HENRY LEGG.

Col. Wm. Henry Legg, one of the most prominent figures in Maryland political life, died suddenly at his home in Baltimore on Tuesday morniag, of Bright's disease, aged 76 years. He was regarded as the dean of Marylanders who have served in the Maryland Legislature. He was one of the original members of the famous Legislature of 1860, Prof. Alexander Chaplain, now the retired Supt. of Talbot Schools, living in Easton, being the only surviving member. Besides his widow, Col. Legg is survived by a son, J. H. C. Legg, Esq., one of Centreville's most prominent lawyers, and three daughters. The remains were buried in Centreville on Thursday. The deceased was born on Kent Island, and was a warm friend of former Governors Groome and Hamilton.

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

One of our gentlemen teachers was walking up the road one day this week with a basket on his arm calling "fresh pies." Wonder why he did this? Well he went visiting and made pies for dinner. We have not heard from those who ate them lately, we wonder how they are getting along?

The horse belonging to Mr. Charles Miller, of Gratitude, was shot all over last week, but they got nearly all the shot out and it did not hurt the horse.

As Mr. Raymond Carr was returning home Saturday night his horse became frightened and threw him out, but he was not injured. His buggy was damaged a little.

There are several improvements being made at Tolchester this year, among them is the "tickler."

The county has bought the oyster shells from Wm. Downey and the road leading to the wharf is being repaired.

Mrs. Ella Reese, of East Neck Island, went to Baltimore last Monday to visit her friends, and while she was there she was taken with an attack of appendicitis. She was not operated on but she is improving very much.

Mr. Thomas Ayres of this town is making a great improvement in his place by having his house painted.

The boys of Rock Hall High school are not noted for playing ball, but are gallant in teasing girls, especially the catcher, pitcher and short stop.

The first excursion will be at Tolchester on Saturday, May 16, and the second May 23rd, and third May 30 and on June 1 will open for the season.

The Chestertown High school base ball team in a well-played game, defeated the Rock Hall High school team last Saturday, May 9, 1908, by a score of 3 to 2.

Mr. Charles B. Willson of the Boat Gratitude spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Nanie Willson.

Mr. Max Alexander has become quite professional with the topsy twirl.

Mr. Abe Casey is enlarging his shop, he is tearing down the partition and moving his ice box further back.

Mr. Joseph Sewell and family have moved on the Hopkins Burgess property near Tolchester.

Mr. Abe Casey is improving his house by painting it.

Mr. David Ayres is improving his house as well as Rock Hall avenue by the use of paint.

Mrs. Emma Ayres is spending a few days with her uncle, Mr. John Coleman, in Baltimore.

Mrs. John Hubbard, who has had rooms with Mrs. John Jeffers, has removed to Mrs. James Baker's.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

About fifty Epworthians were present at the monthly business and social meeting of the League at the home of Mr. W. H. Crew on Tuesday evening. A musical and literary programme was well rendered and enjoyed by those present. After a very enjoyable evening the meeting adjourned to meet at the Betterton Hotel the second Tuesday in June.

The funeral of Miss Lydia Hickman took place from her late home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. E. H. Collins in charge of the service.

The grading of the Bayside Park is making rapid improvement, and when completed will add greatly to the beauty of our popular resort.

We are glad to report the convalescence of Capt. Harvey Brice, who has been quite sick for the past week.

Miss Evalyn Ford, of Lambson's, is visiting friends in our town.

Miss Lou Jewell has returned home after a pleasant visit to relatives in the county.

In the absence of our pastor the Wednesday evening prayer meeting was led by Mr. Archie Crew.

The shad fishing is about closed for this season. The season has been one with marked disadvantages namely, the number of boats that have fished from Betterton, also the strong winds have been a great draw back.

Queen Annes Vaccine Physicians.

The Queen Annes county commissioners have appointed the following vaccine physicians for a term of two years: First district, Dr. Foster Sudler; Second district, Dr. W. G. Coppage; Third district, Dr. E. F. Smith; Fourth district, Dr. John R. Benton; Fifth district, Dr. Roland B. Ford; Sixth district, Dr. Walter H. Fenby; Seventh district, Dr. E. A. Landers.
