CHORAL SOCIETY

Grand Concert in William Smith Hall, Friday Evening, June 5.

It is not very often that the people around the county who are interested in music have an opportunity of spending an evening near at home listening to a fine musical program. If one desires such an entertainment considerable expense is incurred to travel to one of the larger cities to find such pleasure. The management of the Washington College Choral Society realizing this has arranged its program for the annual concert June 5th, in William Smith Hall, so the music loving public will enjoy some of the artists who have been heard at the select concerts in the leading cities of the country.

Besides the Choral Society of forty voices, Mrs. James W. Cain has surrounded herself with soloists whose reputation alone would fill any concert hall, and it certainly is quite an honor to have such artists with us, to follow out the original idea of the Choral Society; namely to advance the art of music in Washington College and Chestertown.

In making up a program for a concert there is the danger of falling into one of two extremes, selecting music which it is difficult for those who are not trained in musical art to enjoy, or else choosing that which is too light and trashy to appeal to cultured taste. There is a happy medium which should be aimed at for in all entertainments of this kind and for this happy medium Mrs. Cain with her well trained choruses and the soloists who are to be here have striven.

There is hardly any necessity for going into details as to the proficiency as a violinist of Prof. J. C. Van Holstyn of the Peabody Conservatory of Baltimore. He is well-known throughout Maryland and has appeared at many concerts elsewhere. There is no doubt that a large audience from the county will take advantage of hearing a man that is so well-known musically.

Miss Vincincia da Martinez, a saprano of New York City, will no doubt delight the audience with her selections. Miss da Martinez has had the advantage of studying under the best masters for the past seven years in the metropolis, and has appeared not only in many private affairs but also in connection with some of the finest concerts given in the great city.

Another pleasing feature of the program should be the appearance of Miss Mary Rogers whose contralto voice and fondness for music is well-known and her many friends will rejoice in the prospect of hearing her at this concert. Miss Rogers is enthusiastic over the idea of a choral society in town and realizing the necessity of such an organization is assisting Mrs. Cain in every way to make it a permanent fixture.

Miss Eva Hurlock, another saprano soloist, needs no introduction to the local followers of music for her friends here are legion and she is sure to repeat the success that has met her on other occasions.

The organization is fortunate in possessing two such talented young ladies as Miss Mary Ahern and Miss Alma Ethel H. Gray of the college. Miss Ahern has a very pleasing soprano voice and has been heard on one or two occasions in the College Auditorium. Miss Gray who will be the accompanist has been assisting the Society and has added a great deal by her efforts toward making the concert a great success.

As it is expected there will be a large attendance the management has placed the tickets with the members of the society and at Stam's Drug Store. These tickets can be exchanged for reserved seats Monday morning June 1st, at Stam's. The prices for tickets are fifty and seventy-five cents.

Base Ball Notes.

Western Maryland College defeated Washington College, at Westminister in the first of the Inter-Collegiate series. Score 7 to 2. Johns pitched a fine game, striking out 13 men, but his support was poor.

The second team of Washington College defeated a team from Worton on Washington Field on Saturday afternoon. Score 9 to 8. It was a close and interesting game.

The Chestertown High School team defeated Kennedyville on the cannery diamond on Saturday afternoon. Score 5 to 3. Both Jarman and Lee pitched well, but Jarman received the better support.

Rock Hall High School defeated the P. O. S. of A. team from town on Saturday. Score 4 to 3.

A "scrub" team from town went to Worton on Saturday and defeated a picked team of that town by the score of 18 to 14. Duyer and Cropper were the battery for the town team.

To-day the greatest game of the season will be played. St. John's of Annapolis, will be the opponents of Washington College on Washington field at 3 P. M. A battle royal will be the result, and we pick Washington College to win. A big crowd is expected and we shall be proud of our boys when they walk off with this victory. Go at 'em boys. Don't listen to the band. Play ball.

Washington College defeated Kennedyville on Washington Field Wednesday. Score 3 to 5.

Dimpfel Will Case.

The case of the wife and children of Frederick P. Dimpfel, Jr., vs. Gen. J. B. Seth, trustee of the estate et. al. came up in Washington on Wednesday. The hearing was taken up in the examination of lawyers who are members of the bar of the District of Columbia as experts upon the state of the law in the District of Columbia in force in 1890, concerning the validity of marriages, which forms an important point in the case, and upon which the Court of Appeals remanded the case for retrial, owing to an error of the Talbot Court, where the case was tried, in not allowing a Washingson lawyer to testify concerning the state of the law at the time of the marriage. The case may reach the United States Supreme Court. Harrison W. Vickers, Sr., and Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., of Chestertown, with Wm. H. Cooper, Jr., of Wilmington represent the respondents—the heirs of Dimpfel.
