Democratic Primaries.

The Democratic voters of Kent county are hereby notified to assemble in primary meeting in the several districts and precincts at the usual places of holding primary elections on SATURDAY, MAY 23rd, 1908, at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of selecting six delegates from each district to meet in convention to be held at the Court House in Chestertown, on TUESDAY THE 26th DAY OF MAY, 1908, at 11 o'clock A. M. to select six delegates from Kent county to the Democratic State Convention to be held in Baltimore on JUNE 3rd, 1908, the duty of which convention is to elect four delegates from the State at large and two delegates from each Congressional District to the National Democratic Convention to be held in Denver, Colorado, on JULY 8th, 1908, to nominate a candidate for president and a candidate for vice-president of the United States, and also to select two electors from the State at large and one elector from each Congressional District, favorable to the election of the candidates for president and vice-president nominated by the National Democratic Convention at Denver.

The County Convention, hereby provided for, is also required to select six delegates from Kent county to the Congressional Convention to be held at Ocean City on JULY 23, 1908, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent the First Congressional District of Maryland in the 61st Congress of the United States. If there be any contest for the election of delegates and a desire is expressed for a vote, each district shall select judges and clerks and the polls shall be kept open between the hours of 2 P. M. and 6 P. M., and when the polls are opened the judges shall receive the votes of all Democrats offering to vote, whose names shall appear upon the registration books and who shall vote in the district where they are registered, and shall also receive all the votes of all young Democrats, who on account of their age are not now registered, but who will be entitled to registration and to vote at the ensuing November election. And upon the closing of the polls at the hour herein directed, the judges shall proceed to count the votes cast, and shall certify to the persons receiving the highest number of votes as delegates. Whereupon it shall be the duty of said delegates to proceed to Chestertown on said TUESDAY IN MAY and cast the vote of the district in convention and elect 6 delegates.

Should no desire be expressed for a ballot, then the district meetings may select delegates by a viva voce vote, or by committee nominations. The mode of procedure herein prescribed must be strictly followed, any other method will not be legal.

JUDGE HICKS' petition prevailed.

CALIFORNIA IS BRYAN'S, Alabama is Bryan's, and the presidential nomination is Bryan's at Denver in July.

SOME observant person remarked the other day that nearly all the men who live on Washington avenue are baldheaded. "Yes," said another, "that is the centre of learning." Ha! Ha! Say, Joe, come up.

THE Methodist Protestant Church enjoys a most enviable position in the religious world to-day. After a little more than seventy years of remarkable progress, a church without a bishop in a land without a king, it enjoys the remarkable distinction of being asked to unite its strength with several other denominations, upon its own terms. This prosperous denomination is a power in the world, and its members should feel greatly complimented that they are so much sought after. The Methodist Protestant Church is the church of the people, governed by the people, and labors for the people, and if the government of the other denominations is similar to that of the Methodist Potestant Church, there may be some possibility of union. We do not believe the church will ever change its form of Government.

THE EFFORTS of the officers of the law to break up the colored speakeasies in the town are certainly worthy of the highest praise, and we trust they will not stop until all the violators of the law are brought to justice. But there is another means by which the negro gets his whiskey that certainly should be stopped. We refer to the almost nightly occurrence of dozens of jugs of whiskey and beer of the commonest sort brought here by boat and express. Of course, the law cannot stop a man who pays his fare from filling orders in the cities for whiskey and beer, nor can the steamboat company prevent carrying a man who pays a first-class passage. But we should think that a man's moral sense would appeal to him so strongly that rather than engage in a business that means so much harm to the morals and welfare of the community in which he lives, rather than be the means largely of causing so much disorder and violations of the law in his own town, he would seek other employment. Every man has a legal right to engage in any business, but no man has a moral right to engage in any business that means so much harm to his fellow man. We are told that nearly a wagon load of jugs of whiskey and beer was brought here Saturday night by boat and dispersed to the negroes to fill their orders, and we are also told that any boat night finds any number of jugs here. This is no fault of the steamboat company, but it is the moral responsibility of the man who solicits the orders, and we appeal to him in the name of the peace and good order of our town to stop the business, and we would suggest that the steamboat company take some steps in the matter. The situation is becoming alarming here and something should be done. Break the thing up, some way before there is trouble.

HAGUE, HACKETT & TURNER,
Store on Corner, Still Pond, Md.

MR. JACOB T. SHALLCROSS, of the First district, is evidently one of the most popular men in Kent county. He was appointed a guard at the House of Correction last week, and Dr. W. F. Hines has appointed him to a place in the office of the Bureau of Immigration. The question now is, which will he take?

TO-DAY is the day for the primaries. There will be no contest of any sort for the election of delegates to the State Convention, and in the interest of harmony in the party in Kent we would suggest that the delegates be selected from both factions of the party. This is the wisest course for the managers to pursue and we hope it will be done.
