Royal Worcester CorsetS

This is the Corset for children of every build. It is especially adapted to the stout figure--reducing the hips and stomach--greatly benefiting the wearer and helping to improve the shape. It is helpful alike to all.

Reputation is a Subject That Readers Carefully Consider.

DAINTY OXFORDS

Brother George's shoes are no longer correct. Women's tastes have swung back to a love for daintiness. One's foot is to be clothed as carefully as one's hand, and the high arched, full instep foot looks its prettiest in Oxfords or Colonials. They are correct, but keep on the side of daintiness in choosing the style.

BUT OXFORDS MUST FIT--THAT'S THE CHARM

Yet two-thirds of the Oxfords sold do not fit. We perfect the fit of all, and therein lies the success of this shoe store at Oxford sellings. Ladies who have looked about, tell us that there isn't a stock of Oxfords in the town to compare with ours. All widths and sizes—and the best of selected leathers.

LAWNS, BATISTE AND FINE DAINTIES

We are making the best showings of our business career in these lines this season in all colors and in the newest patterns of the season, and all from 6c to 35c per yard. Come and look them over for a nice cool summer dress.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Chestertown was extremely fortunate to have three very able young ministers to occupy the Methodist pulpits on Sunday. Rev. E. L. Bunce, of Payson street, Baltimore, preached splendid sermons at Christ M. P. Church, morning and evening, and gave evidence that he will be one of the church's ablest preachers. He graduated from the seminary one year ago this month. Rev. J. M. Arters, Supt. of the Anti-Saloon League, preached a strong sermon in the M. E. Church in the morning. Mr. Arters is regarded as one of the ablest young men in the Wilmington Conference, and is an orator of fame. Rev. Leonard White preached at the same church at night, and pleased his audience greatly. Mr. White is pastor of Fairlee M.E.Church, and his people are very much pleased with him. He is an earnest preacher and a fine pastor.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, pastor.—Testimony meeting at 9.30 A. M. Preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. by Rev. J. R. Gaar, of Baltimore. Sunday School at 2.30 P. M. Juniors at 6 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to all the services.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Easton will be held in Salisbury next Wednesday and Thursday, May 27th and 28th. An interesting programme has been prepared for the sessions.

Chesterville M. E. Church, South.—Sunday School every Sunday at 9.30 A. M. Preaching at 10.30 A. M. Service every Sunday night at 7.30 P. M.

On Friday night, May 29, the pastor will give a lecture on the Passion Play of Ober Ammergau. The lecture will be illustrated with views taken as the play progressed, also by numerous moving pictures. The lecture is under the auspices of the Woman's Home Mission Society.

A remarkable tribute was paid Rev. Dr. T. H. Lewis, president of the Western Maryland College, by the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church in its 20th quadrennial session at Pittsburg, when Dr. Lewis was unanimously chosen president of the General Conference, the highest body of the church in America. His tenure of office is four years. He succeeds Rev. Dr. F. T. Tagg, of Baltimore, editor of the Methodist Protestant. Rev. Dr. Lewis is the fourth president of the General Conference to be chosen from Maryland in the past 20 years.

The report of the President, Dr. Tagg, recommended the election of 10 delegates to attend the next interchurch conference, to be held in Philadelphia, December 2d to 8th, 1908. He asserted it is unworthy not to share in the general extension of all churches, because denominations thrive when they serve God best. He said the church needed more ministers, in order that some of the smaller churches may not perish. A test made of 25 conferences, he said, showed 157 charges that were not supplied. In connection with the schools and colleges of the denomination Dr. Tagg said all were progressing and in a healthy condition.

There are 200 delegates present from all parts of the country and they are being delightfully entertained. Dr. Little is the guest of Mr. Heinz, the milliouaire pickle manufacturer, and Mr. Usilton is splendidly located. Much important work to the church is being transacted by the conference.

The Forty Hours Devotion will be opened at the Sacred Heart Church on Sunday, at the 10.30 o'clock mass, by Rt, Rev. Bishop Monaghan. The devotion will continue on Monday and will close on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. Bishop Monaghan will preach at all the services. The masses on Monday will be at 7 and 8 o'clock, and on Tuesday at 7, 7.30 and 8 o'clock. Evening services on Sunday and Monday evenings at 7.30.

Northern Convocation.

The spring session of the Northern Convocation of the Diocese of Easton met in Shrewsbury parish on the evening of the 12th of May with the order of public worship in the parish church.

There were present and taking part in the service: The Very Rev. Dean Coale and the Rev. Mr. Birnback, rector of St. Clement's Church, Massey; Rev. Mr. Gray, rector of St. Paul's and I. U.; the Rev. Charley Gantt, of Port Deposit, and the Rev. Wilson Sutton, assistant of St. Paul's, Baltimore, Md. A very interesting sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Birnbach, of Massey, on the Christian Virtue of Meekness.

On Wednesday there was a celebration of the Holy Communion. An excellent sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Gray on Christian Culture, its principles and methods. The discussion of the theme was continued in its relations to the significance of Holy Baptism and domestic training in the services on Wednesday afternoon and at the concluding service on Thursday morning by the Rev. Mr. Gantt and the Rev. J. Wilson Sutton.

The people in attendance were dismissed with a delightful sense of satisfaction in the success of the convocation in all its various conditions. First of all the weather was good, the good will of Providence as it usually does in this regard, waited upon Shrewsbury, and the people were willing in the day of power. There was a better attendance than usual of the clergy, the people from first to last filled the church with an interested congregation, and the worship was hearty and responsive, and when it came to the collation spread at noon on Thursday upon the church lawn, we cannot go amiss in saying anything nice about it, so well arranged and provided, so full of social cheer and brightness.

We are glad for the many that came to see us and enjoy it. May they come again in good season. SAMUEL EDSON.

Purchased Farm.—Mr. John H. Clendaniel, one of Kent's most progressive farmers, has purchased of Mrs. Robert VanDyke the Carr farm, situated near Kennedyville, containing 408 acres, and tenanted by Mr. Charles H. Crew. The price is said to be $20,000. This is one of the best tracts of land in that section of Kent county, and Mr. Clendaniel is fortunate to secure it. Mr. Robert Kennedy will likely tenant the farm next year.
