A CARD OF APPRECIATION.

In retiring from business, which my failing sight compels, I wish to return my grateful thanks to the many friends and patrons who have stood by me so faithfully and some of them by my father before me. It is with much feeling and great regret that I have faced the inevitable and given up the business I have been engaged in so long, and in which I have achieved a reputation that any one may well envy.

Again thanking all my friends, I desire to recommend my successor, MR. CHARLES L. DODD, to their liberal patronage, feeling sure of his ability to coduct the business in the most acceptable manner.
Respectfully,

CONFESSES TO MURDER.

Major Robinson, Colored, Arrested on Sunday, Confesses That Capt. Walmsley was Beaten Into Unconsciousness, Then Burned.

Constable Lockerman on Sunday evening arrested Major Robinson, colored, in Middletown, Del., and lodged him in the Chestertown jail. Robinson was implicatd in the crime of robbing Capt. J. E. Walmsley about two years ago, and formerly lived in Morgnec. It was at his house that Moseley and Hynson, also colored, who are held in jail on suspicion, formed the plot to kill Captain Walmsley and set fire to his house to cover up their crime, a full account of which was published in last week's TRANSCRIPT. Robinson voluntarily made a statement this week in which he said Hynson borrowed a base ball bat, went to Captain Walmsley's house, and after beating him into insensibility poured oil over him and set fire to the place. Hynson returned to Robinson's place with $60 that he knew of, but does not know how much more he had. Robinson stated that he endeavored to prevail upon the men to desist from their murderous purpose, but they knew Capt. Walmsley had considerable money about the house and they were determined to get it. The preliminary trial of the negroes was held Thursday, and they were held for the action of the grand jury

Court Case.

The case of J. Romie Byron and Victor Hendrickson vs. Chester Freighting Company, which was to have been tried in the Easton court this week, has been continued.

The case of Mr. Thompson, architect, of Wilmington, Del., vs. The Centreville Opera House Company, which was also to have been tried at Easton this week, has been compromised by the company paying Mr. Thompson $170. The amount of suit was for $295, for services rendered as architect. H. H. Barroll, Esq., of Chestertown, and Harry Covington, of Easton, represented Mr. Thompson.

At the trial on Thursday morning before Justice Loud, Horace Hynson, colored, was held for the action of the grand jnry on the charge of murdering and burning Capt. J. E. Walmsley in December, 1905. Major Robinson was held for violation of the local option law and as a witness against Hynson. Mosely, the other negro held on suspicion in the Walmsley murder, was held as a witness against Hynson. At the trial Major Robinson reiterated the story of the murder of Capt. Walmsley by Hynson, as told to Constable Lockerman.
