Royal Worcester CorsetS

This is the Corset for children of every build. It is especially adapted to the stout figure--reducing the hips and stomach--greatly benefiting the wearer and helping to improve the shape. It is helpful alike to all.

Reputation is a Subject That Readers Carefully Consider.

DAINTY OXFORDS

Brother George's shoes are no longer correct. Women's tastes have swung back to a love for daintiness. One's foot is to be clothed as carefully as one's hand, and the high arched, full instep foot looks its prettiest in Oxfords or Colonials. They are correct, but keep on the side of daintiness in choosing the style.

BUT OXFORDS MUST FIT--THAT'S THE CHARM

Yet two-thirds of the Oxfords sold do not fit. We perfect the fit of all, and therein lies the success of this shoe store at Oxford sellings. Ladies who have looked about, tell us that there isn't a stock of Oxfords in the town to compare with ours. All widths and sizes—and the best of selected leathers.

LAWNS, BATISTE AND FINE DAINTIES

We are making the best showings of our business career in these lines this season in all colors and in the newest patterns of the season, and all from 6c to 35c per yard. Come and look them over for a nice cool summer dress.

Choral Society.

The advance sale of tickets the past week has been very gratifying to the management of the Washington College Choral Society. The announcement last week that the organization would be assisted by such artists as Prof. Hulsteyn and Miss Martinez showed conclusively by the demand for tickets that there are a large number of music loving people in the county who will support such an entertainment as the Choral Society has arranged for. There is no doubt that Smith Hall will be taxed to its capacity, and it should be not only the musical but the social event of the season. The soloists who are to appear sent in their selections this week, so Mrs. Cain has been able to make up her program and give the public an idea of the class of music that is to be rendered before the night of the concert. The reserved seats will go on sale Monday morning at nine o'clock at Stam's Drug Store.

DEAR SIRS:—The contemplated improvemement by the Ladies Town Improvement Society of the marsh and valley which surround the Chestertown Water Works and which lie East of all the lower part of the town, is one of the most praiseworthy undertakings that body could possibly take in hand.

The writer, until this improvement was suggested, never knew that two of the reservoirs which hold the drinking water of our town are situated in such a low place surrounded by such marshy land, and liable to be contaminated by foul drainage which flows from all the residences and yards back of College avenue and of Calvert street into this low-lying land. If all the low portion of this marshy place could be raised several feet and the drainage water carried off through a wooden or brick arch-way, the what is now a source of great danger of contamination to our water supply would be removed. Not only this but the removals of pools of stagnant marshy water, the miasmas which arise therefrom would be done away with. Then too, a most fruitful breeding place for mosquitoes would be abolished, and this pest would be greatly lessened in a large portion of our town. Let us hope that the ladies, with the earnest co-operation of our Commissioners and citizens, will proceed with their plans and be encouragad in their laudable enterprise. IMPROVEMENT.

MEMORIAL.

The Northern Blue—The Southern Gray.

BY DAMON HARVEY.

The following poem was received by Washington Camp No. 34, P. O. S. of A. from an invalid member of the order living in Clearfield Pa. It was read at the Camp on Tuesday evening by Mr. J. Frank Wheatley, recording secretary, and resulted in a most generous and hearty donation from the members of the local Camp.

Wherever comrades may repose, free from the bugle's call,
As heroes, they in mem'ry live, torn, scar'd by steel and ball;
There let us meet and mingle tears in unison to-day
And scatter floral wreaths, alike, upon the blue and gray.

The few remaining "Vets," with pride and trembling, tottering tread,
All join to decorate the graves of our heroic dead.
The breach of peace that once prevailed, from age, has died away,
The tears of love are shed the same upon the blue and gray.

With din of battle on their ear, the scenes of war in mind,
Our brave defenders, aged, gray, are dropping out of line,
E're long the "taps," will call the last true Soldier Boy away;
Who may have worn the Northern blue—perhaps the Southern gray.

No slab of granite mark the spot where many warriors rest;
No loving hands with garlands fair to lay upon their breast;
But yet the stars that guard each mound of consecrated clay,
Smile down with equal rays of love on both the blue and gray.

They laid their guns and swords aside with many a manly shout;
From earthly service, one by one, were gently mustered out,
And as the flowers of May adorn their silent graves to-day,
Our Nation clasp the hands of peace o'er both the blue and gray.

Fell Dead From His Cultivator.—Mr. Cortland Hudson, aged 31 years, living with his parents on the old Comegys farm, between Massey and Millington, now owned by Mr. Stonewall J. Johnson, while cultivating corn on Tuesday fell from the cultivator and died in a short while. Dr. Jeter, of Millington, was hastily summoned and pronounced death due to heart failure. The young man was an industrious and courteous young man, and his sudden death is a great shock to his esteemed family.
