OVERDRAFTS.

It is against the rules of all well managed banks to allow overdrafts in any form. It so happens, however, that depositors sometimes make mistakes in their balances, and overdrafts do occur. All our overdrafts are temporary and amount to 246.44

BONDS, SECURITIES, ETC.

The policy of investing a good portion of a bank's funds in first-class bonds, is now regarded with favor by all conservative bankers. This is our policy. Our investments of this character are all in high-class bonds and aggregate..... 102,411.10

SURPLUS.

Surplus is a certain portion of the earnings set aside as a safeguard against possible loss or shrinkage in values. The Government concedes a bank to be sufficiently protected when its surplus equals one-fifth of its capital. Our surplus is seven-tenths of our capital, giving us a strength far in excess of the government requirements 35,000.00

Points of Excellence.

When you buy a vehicle buy a GOOD ONE. You can save a few dollars by buying a "Cheap John" vehicle but it isn't economy in the long run, nor good sense in the short run.

We can save you money on a Buggy or Carriage, but you don't always know it until afterwards.

There are POINTS OF EXCELLENCE about our vehicles that NEED ONLY TO BE SEEN to win your patronage.

Come in and look. Then buy where you please, but you will at least have learned where to get the most for your money.

Nearly New Phaeton or Drop-Foot Carriage at a Sacrifice.

We solicit your patronage,

OBITUARY.

MRS. CHARLOTTE COLLINS.

Mrs. Charlotte Collins, a former well-known and much beloved resident of this town, died at her home in Baltimore on Friday last, of the infirmities of old age, in her 78th year. The deceased was the widow of the late John W. Collins, a man whom all delighted to honor for his deep piety and great devotion to his church, and who for a long number of years was postmaster of Chestertown. Both the deceased and her husband were among the early members of Christ Methodist Protestant Church in this town and a large part of the prominence and influence for good which that church enjoys to-day is due to the religious zeal and loyalty of Mr. and Mrs. Collins. The deceased was a daughter of the late Albert Greenwood, and those who knew her best loved her for her noble christian character and her sweet and gentle disposition. Some years ago the family removed to Baltimore, where Mrs. Collins ever remained faithful to her church, and it was largely through her influence and that of her family that Christ Church, Baltimore, was begun and has flourished. She was ever about her Master's business, and her death is but a stepping stone to the crown which is the reward of her earthly stewardship. She is survived by three daughters and one son, Miss Lottie Collins, Mrs. Flora Woodward, Mrs. Minnie Stewart and Mr. Benjamin Collins, all of Baltimore. She was also related to the Estes, Greenwood, Fowler and Wheatley families, of Chestertown. Funeral services were held from her late home in Baltimore on Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock conducted by Revs. J. T. Lassell and R. S. Rowe, former pastors. The remains were brought to Tolchester by steamer on Monday morning and conveyed to Wesley Chapel Cemetery, where they were interred in the family lot beside the resting place of her honored husband. Undertaker Casey Bros. had charge of the funeral arrangements. The services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Leonard B. Smith, pastor of Christ Church, Baltimore, and Rev. C. M. Compher, of Wesley Chapel. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Eugene Woodward and Lansdale Stewart, of Baltimore, Neal Willson, Samuel Burgess, Lewin S. Fowler and Walter U. Lusby.

JOHN W. SEEMER.

John W. Seemer, one of Easton's leading business men, aged 70 years, committed suicide in the office of his livery stables on Saturday night by shooting himself in the right temple. Mr. Seemer for a number of years had been in failing health and at times he became despondent. His wife had been in feeble health for a number of years and had just came home from the hospital. Miss Novilla Kirby, a recent graduate of Washington college is an adopted daughter. It was our pleasure to know the deceased, whose kindness toward and consideration for his friends was unbounded.

MRS. SARAH. A WEST.

Mrs. Sarah A. West, sister of Mr. John H. and Eben Crew, died at her home in Betterton on Monday evening last of general debility, aged 83 years. Funeral was held in the M. E. Church at Betterton on Thursday morning at ten o'clock. Rev. E. H. Collins officiating. Interment was in the M. E. Church cemetery at Still Pond. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Carroll, on the Cosden farm near Hynson's Chapel, died last Saturday morning. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. A. Morris, pastor of St. James M. P. Church. Interment was made in Union cemetery. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

A Good Showing.

The Board of County Commissioners at their meeting on Tuesday declared an annual tax rate of $1.12, the same as for last year. This is a good showing for the Commissioners when it is considered that the Board on Tuesday granted $5,000 additional to the schools with which to make needed improvements and to pay the increase in teachers salaries, as provided by act of the legislature, making the total appropriation for school purposes $30,000 as against $25,000 for last year, and giving to Millington, Galena, Betterton, Still Pond, Rock Hall and Chestertown the incorporated towns in the county, their appropriations as provided by act of the recent legislature. The tax rate was declared upon the basis of $8,806,635.52 which is the assessed valuation of property, real, personal and corporate in the county. The State tax rate for 1908 is 16 cents, the same as last year.

Assistant Book-Keeper.

Owing to the greatly increased volume of business the directors of the Second National Bank at their meeting on Wednesday decided to employ an additional assistant book-keeper. Mr. W. Robert Huey, who will graduate at Washington College at the approaching commencement, has been appointed to the position. This is one of the wisest selections the bank could have made. Mr. Huey is a young man of fine christian character, possesses business ability of the right sort, and has such an affable manner as wins friends. We congratulate both the bank and Mr. Huey. The position becomes effective July 1.

PARENTAL ADVICE.

As a rule wisdom and experience come to us as the years go by, and on this account children should be governed by parental advice—

Fathers and Mothers know that the need of shoes is an imperative demand, and they are equally certain that it pays to purchase good footwear, provided they can do so at a reasonable price.

We have in our store matchless shoes for boys and girls, and when such quality, workmanship and style can be had in your own town, we really think its an economic duty to come and purchase them for your children.

A CARD OF APPRECIATION.

In retiring from business, which my failing sight compels, I wish to return my grateful thanks to the many friends and patrons who have stood by me so faithfully and some of them by my father before me. It is with much feeling and great regret that I have faced the inevitable and given up the business I have been engaged in so long, and in which I have achieved a reputation that any one may well envy.

Again thanking all my friends, I desire to recommend my successor, MR. CHARLES L. DODD, to their liberal patronage, feeling sure of his ability to coduct the business in the most acceptable manner.

Respectfully,
JOHN N. DODD,
