Betterton Opens.

The summer season at Betterton, one of the most popular and picturesque resorts on the Chesapeake bay, opens today. Betterton is always an attractive place to spend the summer, but this season it is more so than ever. The Board of Town Commissioners and the Ladies' Town Improvement Association have co-operated with each other in making extensive improvements to the town in attractive walks, lights, flower plats, etc., and the proprietors of the hotels and cottages have spared no efforts to provide for the accommodation of the large number of guests who come to the resort every season. Upon the opening day the resort, standing in majesty upon the hills of Kent, with the beautiful Chesapeake lying serene and placid at its feet, steps forth ready for the season of 1908, as a bride for her adorning, and the necessary accompaniments in the way of amusements, boating, bathing, fishing, dancing and bowling are there to help you while away hours that might hang heavy on your hands at a less attractive resort. And, if you need anything in the merchandising line, Messrs. Turner & Son, Chas. H. Brice or Owens & Co. will attend to your wants, and if you need any assistance from the town commissioners, call on the newly elected board—Messrs. John Brice, George Owens or Arthur P. Emerson. The TRANSCRIPT wishes for Betterton and all its good people a very prosperous and pleasant summer season.

Millington Items.

Mrs. Anna Crane, who has been spending the winter in Baltimore, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. F. A. Emory. She is accompanied by her daughter, Miss Nan Crane.

Mr. F. C. Numbers is at Selbyville, Delaware.

Memorial Day was patriotically observed. The exercises were under the direction of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the M. E. Church.

A festival, under the care of Prof. L. Robinson and his assistants, was held Saturday and Monday evenings for the benefit of the school organ. The necessary amount was raised, and an enjoyable time passed by all the participants.

Mrs. Gertrude Gatchall, of Baltimore, and Miss Annie Cummins, of Smyrna, drove from this town in an automobile last Thursday to visit Miss Helen Rasin.

Mr. and Mrs. Campobile, of Leeds, England, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Mallalieu. They will go from here to Yellowstone Park, Col., and to other interesting places, and return to England about July 1.

Mr. Foraker, of Wilmington, Del., spent Sunday with Dr. Gowman.

Mrs. Willis Legg, who lives near town, who has been quite sick, is now convalescent.

Mrs. Rev. Moore has recovered from quite a serious illness.

Mrs. Sallie Burris is ill at her home near town.

Miss Nettie Wyatt is visiting her mother.

Dr. Jeter, who has been absent from town, has returned.

The Mite Society of the M. E. Church met last Tuesday at Mrs. Wm. Moore's.

Mrs. Tyler returned to her home in Frostburg, Md., last Wednesday.

A valuable horse owned by a colored man in Mr. Harry Dulin's employ, dropped dead last Saturday evening in front of Mr. J. L. Smith's, supposedly from heart disease.

Merchants Land Transcript.

Just to prove to the public that the TRANSCRIPT accomplishes all that its editors and publishers claim for it, and with no motive to "blow our own horn," we publish statements made to us this week by several of our esteemed advertisers.

One of Betterton's prominent merchants writes: "We feel that our advertisement in your paper has been a great trade getter. Our business has increased so much over previous years, we hardly know where to credit our success, but we gladly give the TRANSCRIPT its goodly proportion." This merchant advertises exclusively in the TRANSCRIPT.

One of Rock Hall's biggest merchants says: "Our advertisement in the TRANSCRIPT is bringing splendid results and we contemplate enlarging our space in the near future." This firm is doing an immense business, and advertises exclusively in the TRANSCRIPT.

Those of our readers who examined the splendid statement of the Second National Bank in the TRANSCRIPT last week, will note also that the Second National Bank advertises exclusively in the TRANSCRIPT. Its total resources are within a few thousand dollars of as much as the other two banks together, and the Second National is among the largest and safest banks on the Eastern Shore. There have been so many inquires and favorable comments on the double column advertisement explaining their statement some months ago, from all parts of the State, that the directors have renewed the statement in this issue. Everybody read it and see what a large and lucrative volume of business the bank is doing. The directors of this bank realize the value of the TRANSCRIPT as an advertising medium.

An esteemed subscriber residing in Virginia in renewing his subscription writes: "I cannot get along without the TRANSCRIPT. I need it in my biz."

Now if you ask what is the secret of the TRANSCRIPT'S success as an advertising medium we do not hesitate to say that it is the large and valuable circulation among the people who can be of most service to the merchants and business people generally.
