SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1908.

CONGRESS has closed. Nothing was done but spend money and play politics.

THE ATTACK upon Dreyfus at the bier of Emil Zola, in France, on Thursday is a blot upon the fair name of the Republic, and the would-be assassin should be dealt with as the circumstances warrant.

IF Mr. Andrew W. Woodall, who was elected a delegate to the national convention votes as the people of Kent in convention assembled instructed, Bryan will have at least five of the 16 delegates to the national convention.

THE Baltimore Sun is making a tremendous effort to dictate the nomination for the presidency at the Denver Convention. The Sun knows as well as it knows anything, that the rank and file of the people in Maryland want William Jennings Bryan for President of the United States, but she is using her pen and wasting her energies in whooping things up against the peerless leader.

HOW MUCH better would it have been had the Democratic State Convention to have instructed its delegates for Bryan than to have broken up in an uproar as it is reported it did. We are very much of the opinion of Col. Wood, of Frederick, who said this week that Maryland has been out in the cold at every National Convention simply because her delegates went uninstructed, and it is time she were getting into the band wagon and occupying some place of importance in the convention. Col. Wood stated that individually he cares very little whether the delegates are instructed or not, he knows the people of this grand old State are for Bryan first, last and all the time. And so say we.

AT THE RATE of $108,000 to 20 miles of road improvement in Kent county, it will require $2,305,800 to improve the entire 427 miles of road in the county. How long will it take to do the work? Ah! but you say it is only intended to improve the 20 miles under State appropriation. Then, it is all the more important that the appropriation should be spent so as to benefit all the people. Now we see the importance of the Caroline road law to the people of the county. The TRANSCRIPT tried hard to get it during the last Legislature, but they would not, and the people will see the great mistake that has been made when it is too late.

THE ADMINISTRATION of Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, now closing, has been one of the most extravagant in the history of the country. The Congress just closed has appropriated $1,008,000,000 to aid Republican extravagance. There is already a deficit of $70,000,000 in the U. S. treasury and at the end of the next fiscal year in June, 1909, the total deficit will reach $160,000,000 and yet the Baltimore Sun and every other newspaper in the country which is forced to pay tribute to a paper trust, fostered and encouraged by a Republican administration, is talking about a man for president in whom the country has confidence. Has the Baltimore Sun forgotten Mr. Bryan's attitude on the tariff?

State Convention.

The Democratic State Convention met at the Auditorium Theatre, Baltimore, on Wednesday and elected 16 delegates to the National Convention at Denver and Presidential electors. They are:

DELEGATES AT LARGE.

Gov. Austin L. Crothers.
Gen. Murray Vandiver.
Attorney-General Isaac Lobe Straus.
Congressman J. F. C. Talbott.

DISTRICT DELEGATES.

First District—Andrew W. Woodall, of Kent county; W. Grason Winterbottom, of Dorchester county.

Second—Chas. H. Dickey, of Baltimore county; T. Herbert Shriver, of Carroll county.

Third—John J. Mahon, of Baltimore city; John Hubert, of Baltimore city.

Fourth—S. S. Field, of Baltimore city; Daniel J. Loden, of Baltimore city.

Fifth—Jackson H. Ralston, of Prince George's county; J. Frank Smith, of St. Mary's county.

Sixth—Blair Lee, of Montgomery county; Gilmor S. Hammill, of Garrett county.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

At Large—James W. Denny, James Enos Ray.
First District—Edwin H. Brown, of Queen Anne's county.
Second—John F. Williams, of Baltimore city.
Third—Dr. Hanson H. Biendler, of Baltimore city.
Fourth—John Charles Linthicum.
Fifth—William H. Hellen, of Calvert county.
Sixth—Dr. Charles H. Conly, of Frederick Co.

The platform declares for a revision of the tariff and for State's rights. Kent is honored in the selection of Mr. Andrew W. Woodall, of Georgetown, as a district delegate.

*†*Messrs. Needles Bros. have painted the woodwork of Sacred Heart Catholic Church and priest house in attractive colors, and they are now giving the home of Mr. Horace Reed a pretty new dress of paint. Their work is first-class in every respect.

A Splendid Success.

The strawberry and ice cream festival held on the park last Friday evening by the members of the Volunteer Fire Company was a roaring success in every particular. It is seldom that an affair of this kind is successful without the assistance of the ladies, but from the smallest item of the beautiful decorations to the splendid service rendered, the young men showed that when it comes to serving ice cream and cake and decorating a naturally beautiful spot, they are the equal of the ladies in every respect. The public square near the old TRANSCRIPT building looked charming in its beautiful decorations of Japanese lanterns, reflectors and prettily arranged tables, and with the hose carriages and the old fire engine that has seen service in many a conflagration on the frontier, the scene was not only picturesque but beautiful. The Chestertown band, composed of Messrs. Arthur Bacon, Earle and Geo. Latham, Griffith Clift, Harry Lindsay, cornets; Arthur Simpler, baritone; Fred Robison, base horn; Joseph Lewis, Graham Nelson, Roland Matthews, tenors; Foster Cannan, trombone, Charles Rickman, base drum, and Highly Crew, small drum, enlivened the occasion with splendid music, and made us feel proud of them, while the young men were alert to the needs of all patrons and served in excellent style. Indeed, everything was managed in excellent style and the decorating committee, waiters and all deserve the highest commendation for the success of the festival. There were no tips, and everybody had a good time. Twenty-eight and a half gallons of ices were served, together with a large quantity of strawberries, and more than $25 worth of delicious cake. The gross proceeds were about $95, and the company cleared about $50, which will be used for the proper equipment of the company with the necessary utensils for fighting fire and giving Chestertown a first-class fire company in every respect.
