TIME TO ACT.

Don't Wait For the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness. Profit by Chestertown People's Experiences.

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are common early symptons of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect the ills. The attacks may pass off for a time but return with greater intensity. If there are symptoms of dropsy—puffy sweelings below the eyes, bloating of limbs and ankles, or any part of the body, don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up the treatment until the kidneys are well, when your old time health and vigor will return. Cures in Chestertown prove the effectiveness of this great kidney remedy.

Walter W. Needles, living on High street, Chestertown, Md., says: "My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills was satisfactory in every respect and I can freely endorse them as my kidneys have been greatly strengthened by their use. I was troubled with backache for a long time, and my kidneys were too frequent in action, thus giving me a great amount of annoyance. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills I procured a box at M. A. Toulson's drug store, took them as directed, and they gave relief from the first. The trouble finally vanished and it gives me pleasure to state that I have not had a return of it since. I am opposed to publicity, but feel it my duty to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others suffering from the same trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 Cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

RULING ON COMMITMENTS

Copies Must Be Furnished From Places of Detention.

The first ruling of the court on section 10 of article 42 of the Habeas Corpus Act was made last Friday in the Superior Court, of Baltimore, by Judge Elliott, who handed down a brief verbal opinion construing the law. The ruling was, in substance, that superintendents of places of detention are obliged, under the act, to furnish copies of commitments when applied for either in person or by mail.

The case of Elizabeth Hepbron, of Howard county, who sometime ago was committed to the Maryland House of Correction on the charge of being habitually disorderly. Her attorney, James P. Curly, also of Howard county, applied by mail to Superintendent William E Lankford, of the institution, asking for a copy of the commitment, to be used in preparation for an effort to secure the release of the woman. Superintendent Lankford refused, it was stated, to furnish the copy, stating that he had been advised by Attorney General Isaac Lobe Straus that he need not comply with such requests.

Attorney Mason sued out a writ of mandamus to compel Superintendent Lankford to furnish the copy of the commitment, as requested, to which Attorney General Straus demurred. Judge Elliott overruled the demurrer and signed an order for the writ of mandamus to be issued. Judge Elliott stated that inmates of institution may not be prevented from ascertaining the legality of their commitments.

Tolchester Beach Opened.

Tolcheaster Beach, the popular excursion resort on the Chesapeake, is again in full swing, and the fact that between 3,000 and 4,000 people went there on the epening day shows that it still holds a strong place in the hearts of the public. This is the thirty-first season it has been in operation, and the opening day looked a little discouraging in the morning because of threatening rain, but in the afternoon the sun came out and so did the people. The Louise was chartered by Christ and Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Churches, and the Emma Giles was run on the Louise schedule. The Giles was unable to take all who applied for tickets in the afternoon, much to the disappointment of the people and the regret of the company. Quite a downpour of rain occurred at Tolchester in the morning, and the excursionists had to content themselves in the pavilions for an hour and a half. After the rain everything on the grounds was run at full blast. Over 200 persons tried the bathing.

Superintendent Noland was taxed to his utmost to provide for the people in the dining room, but he handled the crowds with his usual ability. Every building about the resort has been repainted and the beach never looked better than it did on Monday. The company claims that it has never before had so many engagements of schools and societies as are booked for this year. The Louise began her trips on Sunday and will run daily.

Undertakers Meet.

A number of undertakers of Caroline, Kent, Talbot, Queen Annes and other nearby counties met in Centreville Wednesday and Tursday of last week for the purpose of effecting an organization for mutual improvements. One of the main points discussed and acted upon at the meeting was in reference to a law passed at the last session of the Legislature. This law requires a number of the counties in the State to take out a license in order to extend their operations in that business outside their own county. Prof. H. C. Eckles, a demonstrator of anatomy, was present and gave much valuable information in reference to caring for the dead. Mr. H. C. Fallowfield, President of the Maryland State Funeral Directors Association, was also present. An organization was effected to be known as the Funeral Directors Association of Eastern shore, of Maryland. The following officers were elected: President, Robt. W. Eddins, Centreville; Vice-President, R. H. Patchett, Easton; Secretary, W. H. Krusen, Still Pond; Treasurer, Joseph G. Dawson, Centreville. The Executive Committee will be appointed by the President and will consist of one member from each county, represented by the Association. The Association becomes a part of the State Association, with representatives to National Funeral Directors Association of United States of America.

Met Death in Racing Auto.

Emanuel Cedrino, one of the world's most famous drivers of racing automobiles, was killed instantly on the Pimlico racetrack, Baltimore, about 5.30 Friday afternoon. While turning into the backstretch on the track at a speed much greater than a mile a minute the right front wheel of the car is believed to have collapsed, and the big car, weighing probably nearly three tons, swirled half around, left the ground, turned a complete somersault and killed Cedrino instantly.
