THE LADIES' STORE, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

JEFFERSON.

The handsome 8-day clock was awarded to Mrs. J. P. Sutton, of Worton, holder of the lucky coupon, No. 104575. This clock was given absolutely FREE, coupons being given with each 50c cash purchase, and Mrs. Sutton, holding the lucky number, was entitled t othe clock, yet we give gold bond certificates with each cash purchase. These certificates mean a great saving to you, being redeemable for many useful articles. Ask for catalogue given full list of articles given in exchange for certificates. Be sure to get your certificates with each cash purchase, which is equal to ten per cent. discount.

PRICE $3

Royal Worcester CorsetS

This is the Corset for children of every build. It is especially adapted to the stout figure--reducing the hips and stomach--greatly benefiting the wearer and helping to improve the shape. It is helpful alike to all.

Reputation is a Subject That Readers Carefully Consider.

DAINTY OXFORDS

Brother George's shoes are no longer correct. Women's tastes have swung back to a love for daintiness. One's foot is to be clothed as carefully as one's hand, and the high arched, full instep foot looks its prettiest in Oxfords or Colonials. They are correct, but keep on the side of daintiness in choosing the style.

BUT OXFORDS MUST FIT--THAT'S THE CHARM

Yet two-thirds of the Oxfords sold do not fit. We perfect the fit of all, and therein lies the success of this shoe store at Oxford sellings. Ladies who have looked about, tell us that there isn't a stock of Oxfords in the town to compare with ours. All widths and sizes—and the best of selected leathers.

LAWNS, BATISTE AND FINE DAINTIES

We are making the best showings of our business career in these lines this season in all colors and in the newest patterns of the season, and all from 6c to 35c per yard. Come and look them over for a nice cool summer dress.

HARRY F. JEFFERSON,
THE LADIES' STORE,
Opposite Stam's Hall, Chestertown Md

Still Pond Items.

Mr. Wm. H. Krusen spent a few days last week at Centreville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rote, and mother, of Chestertown, spent Sunday with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James Warren.

Mr. Laurie Hackett visited his sister, Mrs. Lester Coleman, in Baltimore, the past week.

Mr. Clarence Thompson, of Rock Hall, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson, on Wednesday.

Miss Fay Wyott, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever in St. Joseph's Hospital is home and seems much improved.

Mr. Jim Robinson is making a short visit with his many friends in Philadelphia.

Messrs. Wilmer and Edward Ford spent Wednesday in Baltimore.

Miss Jennie Bowers is home on a short visit before commencement begins.

Miss Lucille Parr spent Tuesday in Baltimore.

Mrs. Klinefelter, Mrs. White, Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Clements, of Chestertown, met at the home of Mrs. Lavina Harper on Tuesday afternoon to organize a Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. The following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Harper; vice-president, Mrs. M. J. Howard; recording secretary, Mrs. W. G. Rasin; corresponding secretary, Miss Mabel Norris; treasurer, Mrs. Parrott. The meeting adjourned proposing to meet the 2nd Tuesday in every month.

Our Children's Day service will be held Sunday, June 7. The special programme will be given by the school in the evening. This programme promises to be one of special interest. At the morning service our pastor will speak to the children and baptize any that may desire to be baptized, also the offerings for the day will be given toward the benevolent causes of the church. Should you not be able to attend the services please send your offering for these causes. You are cordially invited to attend these services.

Miss Laura Hauge led the Epworth League service last Sunday evening in the absence of Mrs. W. G. Rasin. She gave an excellent address which was greatly appreciated by all present.

The Still Pond baseball team will have as their opponents on Saturday afternoon, the P. O. S. of A., of Chestertown. This is a strong team and we would advise our boys to "ginger up."

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

The first excursion of the season visited Betterton on Saturday last.

The Sunday School class of Mrs. G. W. Owens sold ice cream, ices, and cake in the Betterton Casino on Saturday evening for the benefit of missionaries.

Mrs. Henry Davis and children from Alexandria, Va., are visiting Mrs. James Crew.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young, of Baltimore, spent several days with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Owens are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Shinn, at Atlantic City.

The Ferncliff Cottage is being enlarged and up-to-date improvement added. The Cottage will open about the first of next month.

Miss Lillie Harrison, of Georgetown, is visiting Mrs. Ewell Wilmer.

Mrs. Fenimore, of New Jersey, is on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. John Henry Crew.

Mrs. Reese Young has returned from a pleasant visit with relatives in St. Michaels.

Mrs. Samuel Brice is spending sometime with friends in Wilmington.

Mrs. Howard Owens visited her parents in Queen Annes the past week.

The Junior League was reorganized on Wednesday evening, Miss Helen Crew being elected as Superintendent. The Juniors have a large, active enrollment and have been doing good work in the church, and with Miss Crew at the head of them, we are sure that the work and improvement will be kept greater.

Children's Day will be observed in Betterton Church on the third Sunday in June. A good program is expected.

Rock Hall Items.

All persons interested in the school work of Rock Hall High school are at liberty to call at the school and view the Manual Training Exhibit during the last few weeks of the school term. The principal, manual training teacher and faculty would be glad to see all the parents of the pupils attending.

The Junior Class of Rock Hall High School entertained the Seniors at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. John Swertzer, whose daughter, Miss Viola, is a member of the class. Many of the faculty were also present and helped to enliven the occasion. Excellent music was furnished and with games and other passtimes the evening slipped delightfully away. Delicious refreshments were served and at a late hour the guests departed with many thanks to their hosts for a most enjoyable social event.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father, George Hines Gardner, beloved husband of Sarah E. Gardner, who departed this life May 28th, 1908.

Rest, dear husband, thy work is o'er,
Thy loving hands will toil no more.
A faithful husband, true and kind
A better husband you could not find.
The last farewell was spoken,
Our family circle broken
When our father passed away.
But the love still burns within our hearts
As it did in days gone by,
When our dear father was with us,
But we have no father now;
Oh, father dear we loved you so,
How sad it was to part.
One dear thought of your dear face
Will cause the tears to start.
Sleep on dear father sweet thy rest;
We needed you but God knew best.
God's will be done. He doeth well,
But how much we miss you here
No tongue can tell.
How we love to think of father,
How we loved the cherished path,
How we love to sound the praises
Due our father to the last,
Asleep in the silent grave yard
'Neath the sod and the dew;
Never one moment forgotten dearest father,
Our hearts' idol, we still think of you.

BY HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

*†*A valuable mare belonging to Mr. Edgar J. Watson on the Skirven farm, gave birth one day last week to twin Belgian colts. They were beauties, but unfortunately one of the colts died on Saturday. The other one is doing fine, and gives promise of making a fine horse.
