Royal Worcester CorsetS

This is the Corset for children of every build. It is especially adapted to the stout figure--reducing the hips and stomach--greatly benefiting the wearer and helping to improve the shape. It is helpful alike to all.

Reputation is a Subject That Readers Carefully Consider.

DAINTY OXFORDS

Brother George's shoes are no longer correct. Women's tastes have swung back to a love for daintiness. One's foot is to be clothed as carefully as one's hand, and the high arched, full instep foot looks its prettiest in Oxfords or Colonials. They are correct, but keep on the side of daintiness in choosing the style.

BUT OXFORDS MUST FIT--THAT'S THE CHARM

Yet two-thirds of the Oxfords sold do not fit. We perfect the fit of all, and therein lies the success of this shoe store at Oxford sellings. Ladies who have looked about, tell us that there isn't a stock of Oxfords in the town to compare with ours. All widths and sizes--and the best of selected leathers.

LAWNS, BATISTE AND FINE DAINTIES

We are making the best showings of our business career in these lines this season in all colors and in the newest patterns of the season, and all from 6c to 35c per yard. Come and look them over for a nice cool summer dress.

Still Pond Items.

Mrs. M. J. Rasin is visiting her sister in Sassafras and Middletown.

Mr. Arthur Allston, of Wilmington, visited our town on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hackett spent part of last week with their daughter, Mrs. Lester Coleman, in Baltimore.

The Misses Harris have returned to their home in Baltimore after a long visit to friends near town.

The Still Pond and Kennedyville 3rd nine played ball at Still Pond on Monday afternoon—score 17 to 7 in favor of Still Pond.

The races were much enjoyed between Turner's Creek cross road and Harmony. Quite a crowd congregated to watch the racing.

Last Sunday was a red letter day at our church. The day of itself was ideal. The morning service was well attended and everybody enjoyed the services. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hackett had their little daughter baptised at the morning service. For the night service the people came before sundown. Our large church could not near accomodate the great company of people. The programme rendered by the Sunday School in the evening was a great success in every part. Our pastor's heart was made doubly glad by the splendid offering of over one hundred dollars, and he desires to thank everybody who assisted.

Our first quarterly conference will be held at the church on Friday evening by the District Superintendent, Rev. W. G. Koons. Be sure and be present.

Our pastor's subject next Sunday morning, "Christ Doctrine as a Preacher;" and in the evening he will speak on "How we can be saved."

Special singing by the large chorus choir is a great feature of these evening services. A welcome awaits you all.

Our Base Ball team has played three games since we last wrote you, and our boys have played in hard luck.

Last Saturday they played the strong P. O. S. of A. of Chestertown, and was beaten by the score of 26 to 11. Though the score was large and one sided, yet the game was interesting throughout. On last Monday morning they played the Worton team, and our boys thought they had this game for sure. But then came that one bad inning and they lost again—score 10 to 1.

These two defeats so close together roused the old base ball spirit of the married men and they lined up against the single men on Tuesday afternoon with Mr. Harry Hendrickson as umpire. Everything went well with the married men leading until that fateful 7th inning and then the single fellows got on the merry-go-round and did not get off until 8 runs had been scored. Yet the married men are true blue and kept right at it all the time, but could not overcome this lead and lost 17 to 16.

There is much happiness in the camp of the married men as the boys had to use 4 pitchers to win. The married men say as soon as they get over the soreness of this game they are going to try again and in the meantime would play any team of married men that come their way from any of the towns.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

The Epworth League held its monthly business meeting and social at the Betterton Hotel on Tuesday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent in an interesting programme arranged by the fifth vice-president, Miss Bessie Leigh. At a very late hour the League adjourned to meet in July at the home of Mrs. Horace Brice.

The Ladies Aid Society met on Friday afternoon last at the home of Mrs. John Brice. Important questions relative to church improvements were discussed, and action decided upon.

The Ladies Improvement Association are making arrangements for a brilliant Fourth of July. Large crowds are expected at Betterton on that day, and we are sure that the day will be a great success. A band will be in attendance and races of various character participated in, so come to Betterton to spend your 4th.

The rain that fell on Friday was a great benefit to the farmer, also to the traveller, as the roads in town and vicinity were very dusty.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Owens are spending a few days at Atlantic City.

Miss Gertrude Emerson is the guest of Miss Evelyn Ford, at Lambson's.

Mrs. Price, on Ericsson avenue is entertaining friends.

The Sunday School is rehearsing for Children's Day, which will be the third Sunday in June.

Kennedyville Items.

On Saturday last a part of our regular baseball nine, with whoever they could pick up to finish out the nine after they arrived at Millington, played a picked nine from Millington, Galena and Betterton, so the Kennedyville boys came home with the sad tale of 8 to 0 in favor of Millington, and with the promise of a return game on Monday. So on Monday afternoon the Millington, Galena and Betterton clubs arrived and the Kennedyville boys were ready for them. A little after 4 o'clock the game was called and the fun began. The visitors were not in it. The Kennedyville boys knocked three of their pitchers out of the box, and the fourth one was easy for the boys to finish up with and give them the tune of 16 to 1 in favor of Kennedyville. On Thursday the Kenneydyville boys played at Worton. The game was 17 to 1 in Kennedyville's favor.

The Children's Day services on Sunday were well attended at night. The church was about half large enough to hold the crowd. The programme was well rendered and favorably commented upon by those in attendance. On Sunday next, the 14th, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will follow the morning sermon. A full attendance of the members is desired by the pastor.

Our farmers are reporting their wheat damaged one-fourth to a third. Some fields are hurt much more than others. We hope the loss in bushels may be made up in price.

The Grange Festival held in Weer's Hall on Saturday night was well attended.
