line drawn southerly at right angles to North avenue, from the centre of City Boundary Stone No. 2, and running thence easterly on the south side of North avenue sixty feet; thence southerly at right angles to North avenue one hundred and four feet one and one-half inches, more or less, to the northeast side of Carey street, as heretofore condemned and opened; thence northwesterly along the northeast side of said Carey street ninety-two feet six inches, more or less, to meet a line drawn southerly from the beginning at right angles to North avenue; and thence reversing said line so drawn and binding thereon northerly about thirty-four feet to the beginning, for a public highway, the deed to be approved by the Examiner of Titles of the City, and the said property when so ceded to the Mayor and City Council shall be subject to all the ordinances of the corporation governing streets; provided, however, that the corporation shall not be liable for any cost or charge, benefits or damages for said deed, or any matter relating thereto.

Approved, February 17th, 1890.

ROBERT C. DAVIDSON, Mayor.

No. 7.

An Ordinance to appropriate a sum of money for furnishing the Manual Training School.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Board of Commissioners of Public Schools of Baltimore City be and they are hereby authorized and directed to expend the sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to provide furniture and a steam boiler for use of the Manual Training School.

Appropriation for furniture and a steam boiler.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That the said sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars shall be provided for in the levy of 1890.

Approved February 19th, 1890.

ROBERT C. DAVIDSON, Mayor.

No. 8.

An Ordinance to appropriate a sum of money to supply the deficiencies existing December 31st, 1889, in the several departments of the City government.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the following sums of money be and the same are hereby appropriated to supply deficiencies existing December 31st, 1889, as per communication of City Comptroller, under date of January 27th, 1890, viz: Riverside Park, seventy-seven dollars; Johnston Square, seventy-six dollars and ninety-four cents; transportation to House of Correction, one hundred and seventy-eight dollars and fifty cents; Dog Pound, seven hundred and fourteen dollars; Court House and Record Office, four hundred and eighteen dollars and forty-five cents; Gen-

Appropriations to supply deficiencies.