Royal Worcester CorsetS

This is the Corset for children of every build. It is especially adapted to the stout figure--reducing the hips and stomach--greatly benefiting the wearer and helping to improve the shape. It is helpful alike to all.

Reputation is a Subject That Readers Carefully Consider.

DAINTY OXFORDS

Brother George's shoes are no longer correct. Women's tastes have swung back to a love for daintiness. One's foot is to be clothed as carefully as one's hand, and the high arched, full instep foot looks its prettiest in Oxfords or Colonials. They are correct, but keep on the side of daintiness in choosing the style.

BUT OXFORDS MUST FIT--THAT'S THE CHARM

Yet two-thirds of the Oxfords sold do not fit. We perfect the fit of all, and therein lies the success of this shoe store at Oxford sellings. Ladies who have looked about, tell us that there isn't a stock of Oxfords in the town to compare with ours. All widths and sizes—and the best of selected leathers.

LAWNS, BATISTE AND FINE DAINTIES

We are making the best showings of our business career in these lines this season in all colors and in the newest patterns of the season, and all from 6c to 35c per yard. Come and look them over for a nice cool summer dress.

SAVED GIRL BY HEROIC WORK.

Daring Rescue and Remarkable Resuscitation.

Four hours of heroic work on the part of a physician, which resulted in the resuscitation of a young woman after she had been taken from the water and pronounced dead by her friends, prevented a tragic ending to an outing party to Tolchester Beach on Sunday afternoon. The young woman who had such a miraculous escape from death is Miss Isabel Harman the pretty 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Rosa Harman, who resides at 845 South Paca street, and the physician to whom she owes her life is Dr. H. L. Sinskey, of 115 North Mount street.

Dr. Sinskey was the man of the hour. After the apparently lifeless body of Miss Harman had been rescued from the chilly water of Chesapeake bay by Joseph Schwartz, a Washington youth, 13 years of age, and taken to the shore by willing hands, the young Baltimore physician began his great battle with what looked like certain death. For exactly four hours he labored, as few men have ever done, without the loss of a second, and just when the doctor, who was fighting so for the girl's life, was about to give up all hope of snatching her from the clutches of death, she showed the first sign of returning consciousness and then and there started on a quick road to recovery.

Dr. Sinksey's marvelous work completely saved the day, and when the steamer Susquehanna, which carried the young woman to Baltimore, reached Light street wharf, Miss Harman was chatting with her friends and thanked her rescuers amid pathetic sobs. From the wharf the patient was hurried to her home on South Paca street, and upon her arrival the physician who had been the cause of her enjoying life again, asked that she be given perfect quiet.

At her home it was stated late Sunday night that Miss Marman was resting comfortably, and would be able to get out in a few days.

Musicale.

The annual musicale was held at Mrs. Chas. H. Brice's home, Betterton, Md., on Friday evening, June 23d, in which most of her pupils participated. The programme was pleasing and attractive and all the selections were skillfully rendered, the pupils giving evidence of their talent and study during the season. Mrs. Arthur L. Harris sang several selections which were enjoyed by all present. Those who took part were as follows: Misses Grace Tull, Marie Brice, Hazel Crew, Elsie Crew, Irene Crownhart, Helen Crew, Bessie Leigh, Alice Brice, Daisy Clark, Viola Hickman and Master Clifton Owens. About sixty-five guests were present. Refreshments were served at 10 P. M., after which all took their departure, having thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

Still Pond Items.

Miss Mabel Norris spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Ella Faulkner, near Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones and family visited Millington on Sunday.

Mrs. William Bushman and Mrs. Emory Gray and daughter, Anna, of Brooklyn, Md., were the guests of Mrs. Charles Walter.

Miss Jennie Bowers, one of this year's graduates from Washington College, is home for the summer.

Mrs. Mary Clarke spent Wednesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Toulson.

Mr. Will Severson, of Philadelphia, visited our town over Sunday.

Mrs. S.E. Severson and son, Lindsey, and Mrs. James Warren visted Rock Hall the past week.

Mrs. Wilson and granddaughter, Mary Turner, are going to Betterton to spend the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Medders and family will move in the Wilson house, and Mr. George Harper and family, from New York, will move down where Mr. Medders lived.

Mr. Newton Kelley, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with his family.

Mr. Joe Clark is improving his home with a new coat of paint. We do not want to hurt anyone's feeling, but it is one of the nicest and most beautiful little homes in our town.

Our Sunday School room will be reopened on Sunday with special service both morning and evening. How glad we are to get back in our room again, and such a beautiful one, second to none in the county or in the conference. The first service will be held at 9.30 A. M. when the Sunday School will be assembled in the Sunday school room. Our good Supt., A. J. Hackett, invites every body to be present. There will be several short addresses by the visiting ministers and others. Also special singing for these services.

At 10.45 Rev. A. H. Covey, a former pastor will preach. Bro. Covey needs no words of mine to recommend him to a Kent county audience. Whenever he preaches it always means a full attendance, so come early so you can get a seat.

At 8 o'clock in the evening Rev. T. F. Beauchamp who was also one of S. P.'s most successful pastors will preach. Bro. Beauchamp will be glad to see all his old friends, and his friends will all be delighted to hear him once more preach the word of life. Come for the early service and stay all day with us. A real cordial welcome awaits you one and all. Let all the Epworthians bring the barrels in that they have to gather in the money, either Sunday morning or evening. Surely barrels of money will be all we will need.

Our first quarterly conference passed very pleasantly indeed last Friday evening. It was our prayer meeting night so Bro. Koons spoke on "Impressions from General Conference."
