Royal Worcester CorsetS

This is the Corset for children of every build. It is especially adapted to the stout figure--reducing the hips and stomach--greatly benefiting the wearer and helping to improve the shape. It is helpful alike to all.

Reputation is a Subject That Readers Carefully Consider.

DAINTY OXFORDS

Brother George's shoes are no longer correct. Women's tastes have swung back to a love for daintiness. One's foot is to be clothed as carefully as one's hand, and the high arched, full instep foot looks its prettiest in Oxfords or Colonials. They are correct, but keep on the side of daintiness in choosing the style.

BUT OXFORDS MUST FIT--THAT'S THE CHARM

Yet two-thirds of the Oxfords sold do not fit. We perfect the fit of all, and therein lies the success of this shoe store at Oxford sellings. Ladies who have looked about, tell us that there isn't a stock of Oxfords in the town to compare with ours. All widths and sizes—and the best of selected leathers.

LAWNS, BATISTE AND FINE DAINTIES

We are making the best showings of our business career in these lines this season in all colors and in the newest patterns of the season, and all from 6c to 35c per yard. Come and look them over for a nice cool summer dress.

AN ECHO OF THE PAST.

Found Among the Papers of a Former Student at Washington College and Now Preserved as an Interesting Relic by His Son.

Hope H. Barroll, Esq., while looking through some old papers belonging to his late father, J. Leeds Barroll, Esq., who was a student at Washington College in the forties found the following interesting "Order of Exercises," which is in the nature of a celebration of the Birthday of George Washington at Washington college in 1846. It is particularly appropriate that on the day when Americans celebrate the signing of the Declamation of Independence which the "Father of his Country" achieved for us, that we are permitted to publish through the courtesy of Mr. Barroll, the celebration of the anniversary of the birthday of Washington by those who were students in Washington college in 1846—just 62 years ago. A perusal of the order of exercises will prove interesting in view of the fact that the descendants of those who were students then are still deeply interested in the success of the college, have been students within its walls and some are now members of its Board of Visitors and Governors. Of all those students whose names appear in the order of exercises, but one is yet living. William J. Wroth, uncle of the Messrs. Thomas G., Clinton W. and Emory Wroth, of Chestertown. All of them lived to occupy places of prominence and eminence in their chosen fields of labor, and we are proud to say that the descendants and relatives of each student of 1846, are today occupying positions of responsibility and prominence. Scan the list. It will prove interesting to you to know who were the students of 1846, just 62 years ago, and it will prove interesting for you to note that the good work Washington College did in those days is being continued today on a much larger and broader scale. We are glad to publish these bits of ancient history of Washington College, and if any one in the county or state has any papers which he thinks would be of interest to the students and alumni, as well as the patrons of the college, we shall be glad to give them space. The following is the order of exercises of the anniversary of the birthday of Washington at Washington College in 1846, of which we have the original copy:
