SATURDAY, JULY 11, 1908.

THE National Prohibition Convention meets in Columbus, Ohio, next Tuesday. Mr. James T. Anthony is a delegate from this district and will attend. He will be the guest of his son who lives in Columbus.

IT IS a pity that none of the lawyers of the Chestertown bar take sufficient interest in the State Bar Association as to attend its sessions. Judge Pearce is the only member from Kent who attended.

THE SOONER the Democratic party gets rid of such men as Guffey, of Pennsylvania, the better it will be. Such men as Guffey are doing more to discredit the Democratic party and to besmirch its time-honored principles in the eyes of the voting masses than all other influences combined, which statement his career in Pennsylvania politics justly substantiates.

IF all the stores in town would close at seven o'clock during these hot summer evenings nobody would be the loser, and everybody could enjoy a respite from duty. Why do not all the stores close? Nobody's trade is so unjust as to demand that they keep open their place of business. In fact, it is just the reverse, and some have even gone so far as to make threats against those who persist in keeping open when the other man is closed. Just let every store keeper in Chestertown try it for one month, and see what a benefit it is.

WE ARE indebted to Hon. James T. Lloyd, chairman Democratic Congressional Committee, for a copy of the campaign hand-book. The book contains much valuable information to the voter, and may be purchased for the sum of 25 cents. Mr. Lloyd says that at this time conditions seem very favorable for the election of a Democratic House in November, and we may add that if Harry Covington, of Talbot county, is nominated in the First District, Maryland will have one more Democratic representative in the lower House after November next.

OWING to the fact that nothing definite had been done at the Denver Convention up to the hour of going to press except the nomination of William Jennings Bryan for the presidency, we are unable to give any of the particulars. We shall devote considerable space to the convention proceedings next week, as we desire to let the voters of the county know what has been done. The TRANSCRIPT is in thorough accord with the nomination of Mr. Bryan for the presidency. We believe he is the strongest man that could have been nominated at this time, and we shall do all in our power to carry Kent county for him and the Democratic ticket by an overwhelming majority. Bryan will poll more votes this year than ever and if the Democratic politicians will forsake their republican affiliations and return to the fold, there will be no doubt of the election of Bryan. The trouble with the Democratic party is not that it has not enough votes to elect Bryan, but it has in it some influential politicians whose Democracy is tainted too strongly with Republican affiliation. Let's all get together.
