VANSANT & NEWSOME,
OUTFITTERS TO MEN,
Next Door to Toulson's Drug Store. Chestertown, Md.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

The summer season commenced at the bayside resort with the 4th. Hundreds of persons from the cities crowded the hotels, cottages and boarding houses were taxed to their utmost capacity. Boating, bathing, launching, rowing, bowling, dancing and other attractions amused the vast crowds during the day, and every one voted Betterton the place to have a good time.

Owing to the low tide of Wednesday, a gasoline launch belonging to city parties got aground in front of the Chesapeake Hotel but with the aid of several gasoline launches, after a few hours of labor was afloat again.

The Ladies Aid Society has beautified the church immensely by having it repainted. Mr. Frank Bowman did the work.

A crowd of young folks from Chestertown visited Betterton on Wednesday evening.

The Eastern Pennsylvania Y. M. C. A. of seventy-five members are camping on Grove Point. The young men have charge of the Betterton Epworth League services on Sunday evenings and a splendid meeting was held at the Betterton Casino. Also for the next three following Sundays at seven o'clock.

Mrs. Walter Brice and children, of Philadelphia, are the guests of Mrs. George Moore.

Mrs. Joseph Mooney and children, of Baltimore, have returned home after spending a week with Mrs. Harry Crew.

Misses Maloney, of Baltimore, are visiting friends in Betterton.

Mrs. Rouse and children, Chestertown, are on a visit to Mrs. Jewell, on Ericsson avenue.

Master Archie Leigh met with quite a painful accident on Tuesday by falling from a cherry tree, breaking his leg below the knee.

Miss Lillie Crownhart has returned home from a trip to Virginia, and will spend the summer at her home, the Ericsson Hotel.

Farmers around are busy threshing wheat. Some are shipping while others are holding over.

The dry weather is very hurtful to garden truck. If a rain doesn't fall in a few days produce will be ruined.

*†*A joint meeting of the Town Commissioners and the Water Board was held in the office of Mr. J. D. Bacchus on Monday evening. Just prior to the adjournment of the meeting Mr. Bacchus served splendid and cooling refreshments, which all present enjoyed "most fully."

Still Pond Items.

Miss Ellen Rumbold, of Centreville, Md., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Walter.

Mrs. Caleb Jarvis, of Galena, came to spend Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Atwood Ricards and was taken sick with an indigestion spell and could not return home.

Mr. Norman Johnson, of Philadelphia, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson.

Mr. Charlie Ford spent Sunday in Galena.

All of our Young folks and old as well spent the 4th at Betterton some going down for all day and others in the afternoon taking supper at one of the hotels and spending the evening. All had a glorious good time. The only thing the girls and boys missed was the skating rink, which was so much enjoyed the last Fourth.

Miss Katie Capps has accepted a position at Betterton at the Hotel Chesapeake.

The Lord's Supper was observed in our church last Sunday morning and it was a very precious service and much enjoyed by all present. We had a number of visitors from Chestertown, Smyrna, New Castle and other towns who took part in the service. To these we say, come again. You will always find a welcome. Our pastor is doing his best to make the services interesting and helpful. They are real "Hot Weather Services," so please encourage him by your presence. His subject for Sunday morning will be "We are Witnesses." And the evening service he will also have full charge and preach a special sermon to the young men. Four young ladies will act as ushers and see that all the young men get seated. The young ladies of the choir will do the singing. So young men be sure to come. It is your service and everything will be done that can be to make the service of interest. The evening service only lasts one hour and we trust you will all be present at the opening which is eight o'clock sharp, and take part in the singing which is a special feature of these evenings. We shall expect you with us next Sunday evening anyway, if not morning and evening both.

A FRIEND.

*†*The Fourth of July was quietly observed in Chestertown. Many of the stores closed in the afternoon and evening, and there was the usual display of fireworks with no accidents. The county resorts were crowded with excursionists, and places of amusement did a rushing business.

Millington Items.

Mrs. Ford Phillips, of Wilmington, Del., spent part of last week with her mother, Mrs. F. Vansant.

Dr. Edw. Power and family of Philadelphia, Pa., are here for the summer.

Mrs. Edgar Britton, of Baltimore, Md., is visiting Mrs. B. W. Hazel.

Mr. Mahan, of Wyoming is at "Hotel Bailey."

Misses Millie and Rose Comegys are at Rehoboth.

F. C. Numbers, Jr., spent Wednesday at Love Point and Thursday at Tolchester.

Mr. F. C. Numbers is at Wyoming, Del., engaged in railroad work.

Mrs. Taylor is visiting her son, Mr. R. Taylor.

Mrs. Edw. Hurlock spent the "Fourth" in Smyrna with her sister.

Miss Bernice Marshall is spending sometime with her aunt, Mrs. J. E. Higman.

Miss Eva Comegys contemplates a visit to "Niagara Falls." She expects to leave here about July 17th.

Mrs. R. E. Feddeman has returned from a visit to her brother in Dumont, N. J.

Mr. Walter Manning, of Philadelphia, Pa., is visiting his sister, Mrs. John Woodall.

Misses Mildred and Miriam Gillespie are with friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Reynolds spent the "Fourth" at her home in Cecil county, Md.

Miss Alice Emory is with Mrs. Dr. Comegys.

Much to the children's delight there is a merry-go-round in town.
