CAN'T BE SEPARATED.

Some Chestertown People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers.

You can't separate them.

And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.

Mrs. John S. Barnes, 106 North Stokes street, Havre de Grace, Md., says: "We certainly can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as a sure cure for kidney complaint. My husband recommended them just after he had been relieved of kidney complaint and backache from which he had suffered for years. He suffered from a lingering backache, and a continued lameness and soreness over the kidneys and the slightest over-exertion caused acute twinges to dart through him, leaving him exhausted with dull pains through his back. I got Doan's Kidney Pills for him and they seemed to fit his case exactly relieving the pains and he has not had a backache since. We keep Doan's Kidney Pills in the house, and he never fails to take a few doses, and they keep his kidneys in good condition. Since making the above statement four years ago, my husband has enjoyed the best of health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 Cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

DEATH CLAIMS BISHOP CURTIS.

Passed Away at St. Agnes' Sanitarium—Was at One Time Bishop of Wilmington, and Later Vicar General of the Diocese of Baltimore—Once an Episcopal Minister.

Bishop Alfred A. Curtis died at 8:45 o'clock Saturday morning of cancer of the stomach at St. Agnes' Sanitarium, on Wilkins avenue extended, Baltimore. The venerable prelate had been in ill health for sometime past, and during the past few months the advance of the trouble weakened him to a considerable degree.

A Busy Lifework.

Right Rev. A. A. Curtis, vicar general of the Diocese of Baltimore, was one of the beloved members of the Catholic clergy. He was a native of Maryland and well known in this diocese as well as the Diocese of Wilmington. A man apparently asture and cold, yet possessed of a great heart and brilliant mind. His love for children was one of his greatest attractions, and when walking the streets he was prone to stop and pat the little ones on the head and talk to them in a gentle and fatherly manner. He was a great lover of nature, and often he would slip away, even in his later years, to some quiet nooks about the city and country for a walk, or with his fishing rod, and spend the day alone with nature.

Bishop Curtis' love for Maryland was best expressed by himself when, in announcing his retirement from the Diocese of Wilmington, where he had had charge of the work for 10 years, he said:

"If I have any especial affection for any part of this diocese it is for the pines, the creeks, the marshes, even the mosquitoes of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, but as I am not going to the Eastern Shore I cannot be accused of seeking my own personal comfort and gratification."

In talking of Bishop Curtis, Cardinal Gibbons said:—"The Bishop was a man of goodness and a blessing to this household and to the diocese. Like Abraham, we entertained an angel when we entertained Bishop Curtis. He was one of the most devout and most prayerful men I have ever known. He spent hours each day in prayer in the Cathedral, and set good example to the faithful by his piety and good works. He was very learned and a profound scholar. His memory was most marvelous, and he could repeat with ease those things which he had read. He was fond of light literature. He was also fond of reading about the fathers, and could read Greek and Latin with an ease that was marvelous. We shall miss the Bishop more than I can tell."

Rev. Father O. B. Corrigan, of St. Gregory's Church, was named as coadjutor and will have charge of the diocese.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday from the Cathedral, with interment on Wednesday in Wilmington.

Bishop Curtis was well known on the Eastern Shore, and in this County, where, regardless of church relations, he was beloved by a host of friends.

POTASH

Lodged Grain Means Lost Profits

The wheat grows up, heads out, and then falls down—so much grain not harvested—so much labor lost and capital wasted—just so much more profit you might have had. The trouble was—unbalanced fertilizer, with too little Potash.

Potash makes strong stalks and prevents lodging.

Use a complete fertilizer, with at least 6 per cent. of Potash, but if your dealer does not keep it, then add 15 pounds of Muriate of Potash to each 100 pounds of fertilizer.

Send for our pamphlets containing facts about soil, crops, manures and fertilizers. Mailed FREE.
