SATURDAY, JULY 18, 1908.

IT IS no longer the full dinner pail and prosperity. It is now the full pocketbook of the few and the short rations for the many due to Republican administration and Republican tariff.

GOMPERS has declared for the Democratic ticket. That means 2,000,000 votes for Bryan to begin the campaign with. He will get enough to elect him in November.

THE National Prohibition Convention this week nominated :—Eugene W. Chafin, of Chicago, for President, and Aaron S. Watkins, of Ohio, for Vice-president. The platform is the shortest on record containing but 321 words.

THE Baltimore American said in an editorial on Wednesday—"The labor element never got as square a deal as it secured from the present admistration." Does not the Baltimore American remember the distressing times among the laboring classes which began last fall, and which are still felt all over the country? Men in comfortable positions thrown out of employment because of the stringency in the money markets, caused by Republican extravagance, were seen on the streets of Baltimore, with shovels in their hands, shoveling snow for a living, and thousands are idle today because a Republican administration has preferred to appropriate nearly $1,000,000,000 for warships in time of peace, and other unnecessary displays. The American Strawboard Mill in Chestertown has been closed down for months and its employes have been out of a job. This is but one illustration of the "square deal" labor has gotten in this administration or any other Republican administration, and yet the Baltimore American knows it is deceiving the people when it editorially made such statements. The Baltimore American is standing close to the motto of the Republican party—"Fool the People, but take care of me."

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Now that the National Convention has met and named a strong ticket—Bryan and Kern—upon a strong platform, it is the duty of every American citizen to weigh carefully the issues involved in this presidential campaign and determine for themselves whether the principles for which Bryan and Kern stand are better for the welfare of the country than those for which Taft and Sherman stand. For the past eight years this country has been under the management of the Republican party, and at the end of that period, the country faces a deficit of $69,000,000, and is now in the throes of one of the greatest panics in history. Do what they will Republican and quasi-Democratic newspapers cannot impress the idea of prosperity upon the American people, when they see staring them in the face the great stringency of the money markets, and the scarcity and want among the classes of labor due to a continued cessation of the mills of industry. The Republican party stands for "benefits to the few." The infamous Dingley tariff bill, the father of trusts, and the prime cause of the oppression of the masses, is the chief weapon of the advocates of predatory wealth, and while those who have thrived and grown fat under the protection of the Republican party are crying prosperity and deceiving or financially entreating the press to herald their own prosperity, the masses are feeling to an alarming degree the lash of the oppressor. This is the sum and substance of Republican prosperity—the oppression of the masses for the benefit of the few. Has the Democratic party ever had such a record as this? Has not the party always stood for equal rights to all and special privileges to none, and does this not mean that the Democratic party stands for a revision of the tariff in order that the value of commodities may be in keeping with their demand? It is not for men for whom the voter should cast his ballot, though we admit that the man who aspires to office should be as good as the principles for which he stands. As between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Taft, we prefer the former, because we believe that Bryan is not only a man of presidential calibre, but he is just about man enough to see that all the reforms for which he stands are put into practice. All this talk about Bryan's radicalism and unfitness for the presidency comes from those people who, having enriched themselves at the expense of the many under the protection of the Republican Congress, are afraid that Mr. Bryan will be the people's president instead of the tool of the monied interests, and that he will deprive them of the means of amassing fortunes at the expense of the many. This we believe Mr. Bryan will do, and this we believe to be the salvation of the country. Let us help to save the country from the plutocrat. Let us help to place a man in the White House whom the money kings fear, and who will legislate for the good of the masses. This is why we believe you should vote for Bryan and Kern.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

☞ The columns of the TRANSCRIPT are open to the proper discussion of all topics of public interest or importance. Whether the editors agree with the sentiment expressed or not, the people should and may be heard through the TRANSCRIPT's columns—the paper will be the People's Forum from which they may be heard on all subjects—purely personal matter excepted. The Editors are not responsible in any manner for articles that appear in this column.

DEAR SIRS:—Is it not time for the patrons of the telephone line here to take up matters with the management and insist that those who subscribe shall have free service throughout Kent county? It is ridiculous to pay the charges we do in Chestertown and have access to Chestertown alone. It is preposterous to ask county subscribers to take the phones and not have unlimited service within the county limits. Let us get together. Write letters of disapproval to the company, and if this does no good, circulate a petition to dispense with phone service altogether.

SUBSCRIBER.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

The Betterton base ball team have reorganized for the summer with Mr. Littleton Moore as captain. The team is a strong one and has scheduled games with some of Maryland's strongest nines. Games will be played every Thursday and Saturday at 4.15 on the new diamond in Bayside Park.

Mrs. Joseph Mooney and daughter, of Baltimore, are visiting Mrs. Clarence Crew.

Mrs. Edward Collins and children, of Still Pond, are spending the week with Mrs. John Brice.

Miss Elsie Crew spent a few days of last week with Mrs. Harry Price, of near Kennedyville.

Miss Jane DaShields, of Baltimore, is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Frank Young.

Mr. Scott Crownhart has returned home after spending over a year in Florida.

Miss Daisy Clarke is visiting friends and relatives in Philadelphia, and Miss Ruth Clarke is on a visit to Baltimore friends.

Misses Hallie Brice and Viola Hickman are spending some time in Baltimore.

The Epworth League held its monthly business meeting and social at the home of Mrs. Horace Brice on Tuesday evening. Owing to the busy season only a few were there, but those present spent an unusually enjoyable time.

A colored deck hand dropped dead on board the power barge Chelsea lying at Harris' wharf on Monday. An inquest was held and the jury pronounced a verdict of death by acute indigestion.

Mrs. Emma Hayes and son, of Wilmington, are spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. A. P. Emerson.

Shrewsbury Sunday school held its annual picnic in Idlewhile Park on Thursday. All participating spent a pleasant time.

The following lines were copied from a postal mailed from Betterton:

The heat in B————n was more than we could endure,
So we started off a rest and change to secure.
We landed at Betterton on Chesapeake Bay
And have planned from Tuesday to Friday to stay.
The change we have had you can't help but see,
When the hotels we have had are no less than three.
The rest of body and mind is now complete.
Since we have found the "Rigbie," an ideal retreat.
The location is fine— —and the table too,
And the novelty of the place would just suit you.

FATAL ACCIDENT NEAR CRUMPTON.

Young Man Killed by Horse After Having Been Thrown From his Dog Cart.

Mr. Joseph Logan, aged 23 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Logan, of Crumpton, was almost instantly killed in a driving accident in Crumpton Lane on Monday evening. The young man was returning to his home in a dog-cart, driving a spirited young horse, and shortly after turning into the lane, the bottom fell out of the dog-cart throwing the young man under the horse's feet. The animal began to run and kick, striking Mr. Logan several heavy blows over the heart from the effects of which he died shortly afterward. The unfortunate young man was taken to his home, and his parents are prostrated with grief over the terrible calamity which befell their son. They have the sympathy of their many friends in their great sorrow. Young Logan was an industrious and popular young man.
