LOCAL MATTERS.

Sale Record.

The following is a list of the sales advertised elsewhere in this issue.

Valuable personalty will be offered for sale by Mr. Benjamin F. Merchant on the farm where he now resides, near Galena, on August 12, 1908. Mr. Merchant began farming about two years ago and consequently all of the implements and machinery are practically new. The advertisement inserted elsewhere in this issue should attract everybody who needs first-class farming stock and implements. Mr. Merchant will remove from the county to Denver, Colorado. Look up this advertisement. It may pay you.

In our advertising columns appears the advertisement of the large and valuable personal property of James Willis, one of the leading farmers of our county. This personalty represents the years of effort to Mr. Willis to raise and select the kind and quality of stock that is the delight of the high class farmer and stockman. No finer lot of stock has been gathered on any farm in this county than will be offered to the public on Aug 3rd, by Mr. Willis, who on account of the health of his family has been compelled to sell both his personal and real property in this county and go West. We hope that the success that has been his as a farmer in Kent will follow him in his new home in the West.

Thursday, August 6th:—On his farm near Melitota, Wm. H. Cooper, will sell a valuable lot of personalty. William W. Beck attorney. John H. Greenwood Auctioneer.

PUBLIC SALES.

By Hope H. Barroll.

Tuesday, July 28—Same place, Trustee's sale of Stauffer house and lot of land in Chestertown.

Tuesday, July 28th—House and lot of land in the town of Rock Hall.

Lewin W. Wickes, Trustee.

Tuesday, July 28.—Court House door. House and lot of land in the Sixth District.

To Force an Accounting.—Steps have been taken by the preferred stockholders of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway, representing largely the conversion of the board of the former Queen Anne's Railroad, to compel the Pennsylvania Railroad, by which it is owned, a legal accounting of earnings on this stock.

Stable Burned.—The stable and outbuildings at the home of Mrs. Katherine Wilson, widow of the late Capt. J. Fletcher Wilson, at Georgetown, were destroyed by fire of an unknown origin on Monday afternoon. No one knows how the fire started, but everything of value was gotten out. The loss is about $400 covered by insurance.

Home Robbed.—While the members of Mr. Hiram G. Dudley's family, who live at 2114 North Charles street, Baltimore, were asleep on Friday morning, the home was entered by robbers and $8 or $9 in money was stolen, together with a gun-metal watch belonging to Mr. Charles Dudley. No one heard the noise in the house, yet the robbers must have been frightened off or more articles would have been missing.

A Deserved Compliment.—James W. Chapman, Jr., Esq., of the Baltimore bar, was elected secretary of the Maryland State Bar Association at its recent meeting at the Blue Mountain House last week. Mr. Chapman is one of the rising young lawyers of the State, and this recognition is a fine compliment to him. Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., of the Chestertown, bar, was re-elected one of the vice-presidents.

*†*In many sections of the county wells are going dry and the pasture fields are so burned that farmers are compelled to buy food for their cattle. Experienced farmers say that the corn crop is already hurt fully one-half.

*†*The Volunteer Fire Company will hold a Festival in the public square next Wednesday evening, weather permitting. All persons desiring to make contributions, either cake or cream, the same will be greatly appreciated and will aid in a worthy cause.

*†*The first home-grown cantaloupes were on sale at D. A. Bacchus' grocery and provision store on Thursday morning. They were grown by Mr. States, the well-known Queen Annes trucker, and are about two weeks ahead of the first to arrive last year.

*†*The editors of the Chestertown newspapers were delightfully entertained by the Roland Bros. at their popular ice cream and soda water parlors on High and Queen streets on Wednesday afternoon. Ices, delicious flavors of soda, and fancy cakes were served in abundance. The parlors are very popular and the ice cream and sodas are fine.

*†*The two valuable tracts of land offered at public sale last Saturday by John D. Urie, Esq., trustee, and advertised in the TRANSCRIPT, were withdrawn on insufficient bids. They were afterwards sold—the Glenn home farm to Mrs. Crouch, the widow, for $1800, and the other piece was sold to John W. Benton for $700.

*†*Mr. J. O. Stutsman, of the Prisoners Aid Association, of Baltimore, was in Chestertown yesterday and inspected the jail. He stated that he found the jail in excellent sanitary condition, and the sheriff's quarters about the best in the State, but he did not think the jail as secure as it might be made.

*†*Sunday was the hottest day of the summer to date. At noon the official thermometer registered 98° in the shade, and the atmosphere was sweltering until evening when a thunder storm cooled the air. Copious showers fell in the upper section of the county, around Tolchester and in Broad Neck, but only a light sprinkle visited Chestertown and vicinity.

*†*The cemetery company has acted with commendable promptness in remedying a practice that has existed at the cemetery, and has had the lots and driveways thoroughly cleaned, so that the place presents a neat and well-kept appearance. We were sure the company would do what they could to improve the appearance of the cemetery and we are sure they will endeavor to keep it so.

*†*A terrific wind and electrical storm visited Rock Hall and vicinity on Tuesday afternoon. Trees were uprooted, and it was reported that several houses were unroofed, but this is not correct. Mr. Walter H. Hadaway, former county treasurer, had nine sheep killed by lightning. The sheep took shelter in the corner of a fence around which there was considerable barb wire. They belonged to a flock of forty.

It is not known who fired the shot.

IN MEMORIAM.

Is sad but loving rememberance departed this life on 28th June, Katie Marion Cohee.

Katie lies in the grave yard softly sleeping.
Where the flowers gently wave:
Lies the one we loved so dearly.
In her only silent grave.

Days have passed and gone since we were forced to part from our darling. But time will come when we will never part.

HER COUSIN BESSIE.

Why should we wish her back when she suffered so long with pain for she is in glory to-day, and with her Jesus has gone to reign on high. It is hard to give her up and lay her beneath the sod. But we know that she has gone to meet her little sister Bessie, that passed away five years ago to yond bright world above. They are gone but not forgotten and never will be. By her Cousin,

ISABELLE BATCHELOR.

O how we miss our darling since she from earth has been called. O but a brighter home than ours in heaven, now she has. It was hard to speak the word that we must forever part and on earth we never meet again, but we can meet our darling in that beautiful home in heaven above.
