By William W. Beck.

Thursday, August 6th:—On his farm near Melitota, Wm. H. Cooper, will sell a valuable lot of personalty. William W. Beck attorney. John H. Greenwood Auctioneer.

By John D. Urie.

In our advertising columns appears the advertisement of the large and valuable personal property of James Willis, one of the leading farmers of our county. This personalty represents the years of effort to Mr. Willis to raise and select the kind and quality of stock that is the delight of the high class farmer and stockman. No finer lot of stock has been gathered on any farm in this county than will be offered to the public on Aug. 3rd, by Mr. Willis, who on account of the health of his family has been compelled to sell both his personal and real property in this county and go West. We hope that the success that has been his as a farmer in Kent will follow him in his new home in the West.

Wednesday, August 5th—On the "Chambers" farm in Queen Annes county, Mr. Ivanhoe Willis will sell a large and very valuable lot of personalty. Charles H. Hurlock and Jack Jester; Auctioneers. John D. Urie, Attorney.

By Sidney P. Townshend.

Valuable personalty will be offered for sale by Mr. Benjamin F. Merchant on the farm where he now resides, near Galena, on August 12, 1908. Mr. Merchant began farming about two years ago and consequently all of the implements and machinery are practically new. The advertisement inserted elsewhere in this issue should attract everybody who needs first-class farming stock and implements. Mr. Merchant will remove from the county to Denver, Colorado. Look up this advertisement. It may pay you.

Engaged in Hotel Business.—Mr. Charles G. Watts, a former well-known farmer of this county, and recently of Wilmington, has leased Rockbridge Inn, an attractive summer resort located in the heart of the Alleghanies, on the main line of the C. & O. railroad, 1800 feet above sea level, on the banks of the Cow Pasture river, in Virginia. We wish Mr. Watts much success in his new venture.

Fire Near Centreville.—The homestead on Chesterfield farm, adjoining Centreville, was destroyed by fire Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock. The farm is owned by Mrs. S. E. Newnam and is tenanted by E. A. Cann. The Chesterfield House was one of the oldest structures in Queen Annes county. The building was insured for $1,000, which about covers the loss. Mr. Cann's loss was fully covered by insurance.

Refused to Pay for Meal.—Because he ordered and ate a meal for which he refused to pay and then created a disturbance, W. H. Hopter, of Kent county, was fined $10 and sent to Jail for 30 days by Justice Grannan, at the Central Police Station, Baltimore, Monday. Hopter entered a Light street eating place and secured a good meal, but would not pay for it. When the proprietor remonstrated with him he grew boisterous, and Traffic Patrolman James Butchinson had to take him in charge.

NEWSY BRIEFS.

*†*Mr. Robert Logan, of near Crumpton, has rented the Stewart farm near town for 1909.

*†*Mr. E. Thomas Massey has been appointed a member of the County Auditing Commitee by Judge Pearce to succeed Mr. Harry C. Willis resigned. The other members are Messrs. Jas. H. Baker and Philip G. Wilmer.

*†*The contract for furnishing coal for the public schools of Kent county has been awarded to A. S. Turner for Worton, Kennedyville, Lambson's and Golt's, and to J. D. Bacchus for Chestertown and Millington, Mr. Charles E. Davis, of Rock Hall, gets the contract for Rock Hall and neighboring schools.

*†*By advertisement in another column, it will be seen that Mrs. Hope H. Barroll lost her satchel, made of dark Aligator skin, with her name on the top of it. It was raining Thursday night when the Louise arrived at Tolchester. Her satchel was placed on the ground when Mrs. Barroll entered her carriage, and was probably left where it was placed when her carriage drove off.

*†*The residents of Washington avenue are complaining greatly because the street sprinkler is not sent on the avenue more frequently. The road is one of the town's most used thoroughfores, and the sprinkler should be sent there every day. Fully as many people come to Chestertown over that road as over any other road leading into town, and it would not require half as much water to wet the road as it does to wet a certain part of Cannon street. We ask the Town Commissioners to send the sprinkler on Washington avenue for the relief of the householders.

A Misapprehension.

There is some confusion in the minds of the people of the town and vicinity as to the price of the round trip tickets to Rehoboth, on Wednesday next, July 29th, to be run by Church Hill Camp, P. O. S. of A. This is no doubt due to the wording of the advertisement. The price of a round trip to Rehoboth is $1.25. So many people have asked us whether the price is $1.25 to Queenstown as the advertisement might lead some to believe. We hope the order will have a good crowd from here, as they are engaged in a most worthy cause.

EXPECT FAIR PEACH CROP.

Capt. C. A. Leary, Government Reporter, and Mr. D. B. Stewart, a Prominent Commission Merchant of Baltimore, Give Views.

In a recent statement made to a representative of the Baltimore American in reference to the size of the peach crop, Capt. C. A. Leary, Government reporter and Mr. D. B. Stewart, of the Stewart Fruit Company, after careful inspections say:

CAPT. LEARY.

"On the young orchards there is a fair set of fruit generally, and conditions with them were favorable till within the past two weeks, since which time they have suffered generally from drouth and locally and sporadically from wind and electrical storms. The older orchards, at least over 40 or 50 per cent. of them, have a fair set of fruit on them, but have of course, suffered also from the drouth of the past few weeks.

ATTACKS OF INSECTS.

"As a fair sample of the decrease in the sizes of orchards, at one time I had 20,000 trees, but at present my trees number less than 3,009, with fruit probably not quite as good as was the case, in former years. The prime reason for this decrease in the size of orchards is due to attacks on the trees by new insects, whose ravages the state authorities in that line have been unable to overcome notwithstanding a great deal of experimenting."

David B. Stewart, of the Stewart Fruit Company, said:

"It is generally conceded that the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Delaware will have a fairly full peach crop. Last week in Kent county, Md., a few of the growers I talked with stated they will not have the peach crop they expected. A number of our shippers from the lower shore who have been in the office state they have plenty of peaches but what the yield will be I am unable to say definitely."

"In referring to the estimated yield of 1,779,030 baskets of peaches from the Delaware Peninsula, Mr. Stewart said:

"Opinion seems to consider that a large crop, but I remember having heard that as far back as 1875 the Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad moved 8,000,000 baskets from that section in one season. There are not as many trees on the upper shore—that is, in Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne and Talbot counties, of Maryland. I remember, some years ago, when the Chester River Steamboat Company used to bring 30,000 packages of peaches to Baltimore daily in the glut season, and this was true of the other steamboat lines, and, in fact almost every boat that could be brought into service was in demand during the rush period. However, there need be no alarm that Baltimore peach-eaters will not have a fair supply to meet their demand."

MEMORIALS TO FATHER DENROCHE.

To be Erected in St. Paul's and I. U. Parish Churches Shortly.

Memorials to the Rev. "Father" Denroche are soon to be erected in both churches. In Christ Church a small marble altar will be put in place shortly; and in St. Paul's Church a marble tablet will be placed upon the chancel wall and a tombstone at the grave. It is felt by the committee that many who would like to subscribe to the stone at the grave have not been approached on the matter, and if anyone reading this notice would like to subscribe to this good work they are asked to send in their donations to the Rector, Miss Violet Beck (address of both, Chestertown) and Mrs. Dr. Selby, or Mrs. J. Smith, Rock Hall. The inscription on the tablet in St. Paul's Church will be:

IN LOVING MEMORY OF CHRISTOPHER THOMAS DENROCHE.
"FATHER DENROCHE."
PRIEST.

For 14 years the rector of St. Paul's and I. U. Parish.
Born June 5, 1834.
Deacon and Priest 1862.
Rector of this Parish 1892-1906.
Dean of the Northern Convocation Diocese of Easton.
Entered into Paradise, December 22, 1906
His body laid to rest in this God's acre on St. Stephen's Day, December 26th, 1906.
"He fed them with faithful and true heart."
May he rest in peace.

With Our Advertisers.

Arlington L. Sparks has a special clearance sale of all summer goods today and next week. See adv.

Charles H. Brice, Betterton's department store, has a change of adv. this morning. See what he is paying for eggs, and note his many bargains.

Drop us a postal or let us know and we will call for, repair and deliver your clock and see that it is adjusted to the proper position at Rote's Jewelry store.

See Medders & Co.'s big adv. for big clearance sale prices. Big cut in all departments. Now is your time to buy at this big store if you are looking for knock down bargains.

J. D. Lucas, the hustling clothier, has a general clearance sale on to-day and next week. Everybody knows what this means, and you should take advantage of it.

As will be seen by advertisement on first page, Mr. A. S. Crawford is the authorized agent for the purchase of wheat for Mr. A. S. Turner.

Kennedyville Items.

The rain on Tuesday night stopped the drouth that had prevailed for over five weeks. It will help the corn and tomato crop wonderfully. Corn has already suffered, but if the season is favorable from this time on, the yield will be fair.

The farmers never had better weather to cut their wheat and thresh it, and also to gather their crop of hay and the most of them had a large crop of good hay.

Our farmers also have not suffered like the farmers in other localities from the drouth according to the reports in the papers, so we have much to be thankful for.

Miss Flora Johnson returned home for a few days after spending several weeks with friends near St. George's, Del.

Mr. William Dunlap and mother, of Kenton, Del., are visiting Mrs. Henry Boggs.

Quite a number of our farmers and business and professional men have had a telephone put in their homes and places of business, so now they save many steps and much time in many matters. We expect before long some farmer will be telephoning over to his neighbor for a big dinner and what time it will be ready—a great convenience, especially when you want to borrow anything. Another thing is, we can telephone for the doctor and he must be sure and come; and he can telephone for his pay and we will be sure and not hear him. It's a bad rule that wont work both ways, but some times it wont do it in spite of you.

We had good sermons in both churches on Sunday morning last. Rev. Mr. Fooks preached fine sermons both morning and night. We should all try to hear these messages as we very much need them, don't we?

Mr. Henry, our railroad station agent, led the C. E. meeting on last Sunday night and gave a fine talk on the subject for the evening. Mr. D. T. Nickerson is the leader for next Sunday night. Be sure and come out as these evening services are not long, but are interesting and helpful.

The Jr. C. E. Society and Sunday-school are talking up a picnic, so a full attendance is desired on Sunday next to see what progress is being made.

CITIZEN.

Rev. S. R. Murray Preaches Notable Sermon on Marriage.

The duties and responsibility of wifehood and the problem of married life furnished the theme of an impressive sermon Sunday in McKendree Methodist Episcopal Church, West Arlington, by Rev. S. R. Murray.

Taking as his text, "And he loved her and she became his wife," he said:

"Love before marriage means an untrameled life in the home and equality with man in the public opportunities of life. It means the influence of woman's character for the elevation of all that enters into her development. It means the power of beauty to enthrall him and curb his lower propensities, for beauty in the pure life of woman has changed the course of kingdoms and refined the inner tendencies of millions of individuals.

"It is a divine gift like genius and should be consecrated not to one's personal vanity, but to the spiritualizing of the things that surround it.

"The momentousness of wifehood is in the fact itself. Life is radically changed. The woman is no longer for herself, but for her husband, her family and the society about her. She is not her husband's possession; he cannot do with her as he will. But she is in subjection to him in many ways. He is the head of the social system, in the home and in the world of energy without it. She cannot go beyond his wishes without bringing disgrace upon herself and her connections. She must submit to inconveniences and even wooings in the social environment, and thus the inner life as well as the physical life is changed.

"The gentle arts of life, the softness of womanly ways, the cultivation of interest in the details of a husband's life constitute a powerful remedy of forgetfulness of duty on his part and a constant incentive to affection with him.

"And by just so much as this is true it is also true that constant fretting, annoying references, daily repeated to one's cares and burdens alter, suppress and ruin the motions of love."

IN MEMORIAM.

MRS. HENRIETTA VOSHELL.

In sad but loving memory of our dear Mother, Mrs. Henrietta Voshell, who departed this life two years ago, July 14, 1906.

Why should our tears of sorrow flow
When God recalls his own
And bids them leave a world of woe
For an immortal crown?

Is not even death a gain to her
Whose life to God was given?
Gladly to earth her eyes she closed
To open them in heaven.

Her toils are past, her work is done
And she is fully blest
She fought the fight, the victory won
And entered into rest.

Then let our sorrows cease to flow
God has recalled his own
But let our hearts in every woe
Still say:—Thy will be done.

DAUGHTER MOLLIE.

MRS. LILLIE GERTRUDE COHEE.

Mrs. Lillie Gertrude Cohee, wife of Mr. Robert U. Cohee, died at her home on Cannon Street, Chestertown, on Wednesday, July 14, 1908, after a short illness, aged 22 years, 7 months and 15 days.

She is survived by a husband and two little sons, Edward and Charlie; also a father, Mr. John E. Smith, and two brothers, Charles E. and J. J. Emitt Smith, and two sisters, Mrs. Sadie Seifert, of Baltimore, and Miss Marion Smith, near Fairlee, Md., and two uncles, Capt. John S. Batchelor, of Northumberland county, Va., and Capt. Charles H. Batchelor, of Chestertown, Md. She was a devoted wife and loving mother to her dear children. She always had a kind word for every one she met. She joined the M. E. Church at Chestertown when 12 years old and was a member of the Monday night class. All who knew her loved her, and from her childhood to her death she was bright and loving. Just before she passed away, she said she saw going to meet the loved ones that had gone before, and called on Jesus to relieve her of her sufferings. The pains she suffered were almost unbearable.

Then there was joy in heaven, harps were strung,
And melody swelled like the waves of the sea,
As sweetly in chorus the angels sang welcome,
Dearest Lillie, there is room for thee.

Welcome, dearest Lillie, we have been waiting long
For you to join our heavenly throng.

Farewell, dearest Lillie, I will meet you in that beautiful home above where there is no more parting.

YOUR LOVING AUNT, KATE E. BATCHELOR.

HEALTH VERY POOR—RESTORED BY PE-RU-NA.

Catarrh Twenty-five Years—Had a Bad Cough.

Miss Sophia Kittlesen, Evanston, Ill., writes:

"I have been troubled with catarrh for nearly twenty-five years and have tried many cures for it, but obtained very little help.

"Then my brother advised me to try Peruna, and I did.

"My health was very poor at the time I began taking Peruna. My throat was very sore and I had a bad cough.

"Peruna has cured me. The chronic catarrh is gone and my health is very much improved.

"I recommend Peruna to all my friends who are troubled as I was."

PERUNA TABLETS:—Some people prefer tablets, rather than medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet equals one average dose of Peruna.

THANKS TO THE TRANSCRIPT.

DEAR SIRS:—As one interested in Chester Cemetery I write to thank you for the service you have done this entire community. The condition of this one "God's Acres" has been most shocking.

The action of the TRANSCRIPT in calling public attention to the matter has done one thing: namely, it has accomplished the result of several years of weary effort. No matter who is responsible or who is not responsible, the fact remains that the cemetery was in a most neglected condition before you called public attention to it. Today it is in better condition than it has been at the present season during the last five years. The lot-holders owe you a debt of gratitude and I hope you will always call attention to it hereafter should it ever again be allowed to be overgrown with filth and weeds.
