SECOND NATIONAL BANK of Chestertown, Md.

at the close of business July 15, 1908, as called for by the Comptroller of the Currency. People who entrust their money to a bank should know something of its financial strength. Notice our RESERVE--$101,869.15, and compare it with other local banks. By carrying such a large reserve we may not earn as much money for our stock-holders, but it is much better banking. We solicit your business backed up with this STRONG STATEMENT. We pay interest on all Savings Deposits.

Very respt.,

W. B. COPPER, Cashier.

BEWARE!

of a great many of these gold brick clearance sale advertisements. Ours is not the only genuine conducted in the county, but it is one which years of fairness and honesty has gained the confidence and makes it one of great known values to this intelligent community.

We are getting rid of summer goods—not at a profit, not at a loss. We are simply letting 'em go at a fair and honest reduced price, which makes them of great value to the purchasing public. It is needless for us to mention prices, as you are all well acquainted with our method of fairness and honesty.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

A CARD OF APPRECIATION.

In retiring from business, which my failing sight compels, I wish to return my grateful thanks to the many friends and patrons who have stood by me so faithfully and some of them by my father before me. It is with much feeling and great regret that I have faced the inevitable and given up the business I have been engaged in so long, and in which I have achieved a reputation that any one may well envy.

Again thanking all my friends, I desire to recommend my successor, MR. CHARLES L. DODD, to their liberal patronage, feeling sure of his ability to coduct the business in the most acceptable manner.

Respectfully,

JOHN N. DODD,

ABOUT YOUR FRIENDS.

Mrs. Wm. J. Elliott quietly celebrated her 69th birthday on Sunday. She received over 150 souvenir postcards. May she have many more birthdays is the wish of the TRANSCRIPT.

Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort returned from Atlantic City on Tuesday.

Miss Grace Stewart, of Baltimore, and John A. Mann, of Philadelphia, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson, near town.

Miss Lillian Gale is visiting Mrs. Joseph R. Usilton and other relatives and friends in Worton.

Prof. and Mrs. E. J. Clarke are visiting relatives and friends in Norfolk, Va., and Pocomoke City.

Miss Nellie Mackie, a recent graduate of Washington College, has been appointed principal of the Fair Hill (Cecil county) school, succeeding Miss Mary C. Anderson, who takes charge of the commercial course at Elkton.

Mr. Walter U. Lusby, of the well-known clothing firm of Moody & Lusby, has been on the sick list during the week.

Mrs. Edith Waddington, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Misses Julia and Daisy Nicholson on Fancy farm during the week.

Former Senator Clarence W. Perkins, of Baltimore, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Perkins, on Front street.

Mr. Boyer Lusby has been enjoying a week's vacation. He attended St. James Sunday school picnic on Thursday, and had a royal good time.

Mrs. Clara Bacchus Ernshaw and children, of Washington, D. C., are guests or Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus on High street.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene N. Bell, of Philadelphia, are registered at Pippin's Park Hotel for three weeks.

Dimpfel Case Compromised.

At a conference of the lawyers representing their clients with Associate Judge Adkins in Easton last Friday, the celebrated Dimpfel will case was compromised. A decree was passed sustaining the legality of the marriage, as contended for by the plaintiff, and Mrs. Woodall, who was formerly Mrs. Dimpfel, is to receive the income from the estate, amounting to $75,000, until her daughter, Maria, the legitimacy of whose birth was a contested point in the case, becomes of age, when she is to receive the entire estate. Miss Maria is now 16 years of age. This case has been in one court or another for the past two years, and grew out of the marriage of Mr. Dimpfel, who at the time of his marriage, was divorced by the courts of New York, with forfeiture of the right to remarry. It was from the union that Miss Maria was born, and her attorneys held that she was the legal heir to the Dimpfel fortune. The settlement of the case is regarded as a victory for the plaintiff, who has been ably represented by Wm. H. Cooper, Esq., of Wilmington, Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., and son, Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., of Chestertown. The costs, however, amounting to between $400 and $500, will be paid by the plaintiff according to the decree of the court.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Appointing district superintendents to succeed Rev. W. G. Koons of the Easton district and Rev. Adam Stengle of the Salisbury district, whose terms expire by limitation, will be features of the next annual session of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, which will be held in Milford eight months hence. Rev. Frank F. Carpenter and Rev. S. N. Pilchard of Wilmington are suggested for the Easton district superintendency as is also Rev. George P. Jones of Middletown. Appointing Rev. Robt. Watt, of Smyrna, superintendent of the Easton district and assigning District Superintendent Koons to the pastorate of Asbury Church, Smyrna, are regarded as possibilities. For the Salisbury district superintendency Rev. T. E. Martindale, of Salisbury and Rev. C. W. Prettyman of Snow Hill, are suggested. The terms of Rev. A. S. Mowbray and Rev. S. M. Morgar, superintendents of the Wilmington and Dover districts, respectively, will expire in March, 1910. Rev. R. K. Stephenson and Rev. C. T. Wyatt are mentioned for the Wilmington district superintendency on the expiration of Dr. Mowbray's term.

St. James M. P. Sunday school enjoyed a delightful day picnicing at Worton Manor Beach on Thursday. A big crowd attended and partook of a genuine Worton dinner. The Worton boys defeated the Chestertown boys in a game of base ball.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Preaching at 10.30 A. M. Sunday school at 2.15 P. M. Missionary Day. Twilight services 6.45 P. M. Topic—"How Jesus conquers prejudice." All are cordially invited.

Christ M. P. Church—Rev. Dr. F. T. Little pastor. Testimony meeting at 9 30 A. M. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at 10.30 A. M. Sunday school at 2.30 P. M. Twilight services at 6.30 P. M. To all these services you are cordially invited.

New Bank at Rock Hall.

We are most reliably informed that there are well developed plans to establish a savings bank at Rock Hall to be financed by Rock Hall and other capital. It has been rumored for some time that a bank would be established in this progressive town and since the town's incorporation the matter has assumed definite shape. The names of the originators of the movement are among Kent's best business men, and we are confident they will make a success of the thing.

OBITUARY.

MRS. MARY ELIZABETH ARCHER.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Archer, widow of Henry W. Archer, died suddenly at her country home, Shamrock, on the outskirts of Belair, on Monday morning aged 80 years. Mrs. Archer had been in feeble health for some years, but her condition was not regarded alarming until the day of her death. The deceased was the daughter of the late John and Elizabeth Constable Walker, of this town, and a sister of the late Wm. S. Walker, a former beloved and prominent resident. The parents of the deceased were prominent in the Methodist Protestant Church in Chestertown in their day, and a handsome memorial window in Christ M. P. Church stands as a monument of their zeal and loyalty to their church. It was their generosity that made possible the building of the fine M. P. parsonage in the town of Belair, and throughout their long life, Mrs. Archer's parents were devoted to the church. The deceased was a most lovable character. During her early life in Chestertown she was regarded as one of the most beautiful women in the county, and there are a host of friends here who regret most seriously her death. She was a member of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church of Belair. She was related to the Beck and Constable families of Chestertown. Funeral services were held on Wednesday, with interment in Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore.

MISS MARY A. STEWART.

Miss Mary A. Stewart, daughter of Mr. David Stewart, of Baltimore, well-known here, died at a sanitarium in Govans, Baltimore county, on Tuesday of last week of paralysis, aged 34 years. The remains were taken to Middletown, Del., where services were held in the Presbyterian Church on Thursday morning following her death. Interment was made in Forest cemetery, Middletown, Del. The deceased was a cousin of Mr. D. B. Stewart, of the Stewart Fruit Company.

Charles, the 8 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Powell, of Locust Grove, died on Wednesday night of cholera infantum. Funeral services were held at Delaney's, Del., on Friday, at 1 P. M. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

Property Sales.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Lee have purchased through J. Waters Russell, real estate agent, the Lamb property in Fairlee for $2000.
