SHARPLES

Dairy Tubular Cream Separator.

Here are five separators—the largest Sharples Dairy Tubular in the middle and two "back breakers" on each side. The machines are all set so the crank axles are level. Which kind for you? The girl is 5 feet 4 inches tall. We handle Tubulars exclusively. Tubulars have waist-low supply cans and other advantages over all other separators. Call and examine Tubular.

WARFIELD FOR BRYAN.

Ex-Governor Says He Will Support the Ticket.

Ex-Governor Edwin Warfield was asked what he thought of the action of the Democratic National Convention at Denver in nominating Bryan and Kern. "I willl support both Bryan and Kern," he said. "I am a Democrat and a party man, and I always vote the ticket."

Questioned concerning what he thought of the platform adopted by the convention, ex-Governor Warfield said: "There are some things in it of which I heartily approve and indorse. There are some other things about it of which I do not approve, and concerning which I will not hesitate to specify, although just at this time I am not ready to do so. I am too busy to go over the platform thoroughly, but I may later. I will, however, support the Democratic ticket as I have always done."

MONNETT OUT FOR BRYAN.

Former Republican Attorney-General of Ohio.

Lincoln, Neb., July 19.—Late to-night Frank S. Monnett, formerly Republican Attorney-General of Ohio, who conducted the prosecutions in that State against the Standard Oil Company and was later employed by the Interstate Commerce Commission to gather material upon which to base the Government's suits, arrived and held a conference with Mr. Bryan. Mr. Monnett announced that it wes his purpose actively to support Mr. Bryan in Ohio, and that he would make numerous speeches in behalf of the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Monnett said he was authorized by Mr. Bryan to state that because of the Government's dereliction in prosecuting the alleged wood combine, whose headquarters, he says, is in Ohio, Mr. Bryan had announced that, if elected, he would at once put all the machinery of the government at work to destroy any combination that might exist.

"It will be his policy," said Mr. Monnett, "to destroy the wool monopoly that prevents competition as promptly as the courts and himself can do it. The American Wool Company has destroyed, so far as the producer is concerned, the entire benefit supposed to inure from the protection on wool."

Mr. Bryan and Mr. Monnett were agreed that the Sherman Anti-trust law as it stands to-day is sufficient for any anti-trust action necessary, but that the government, for some unknown reason, refused to act. Mr. Monnett returned to Lincoln at a late hour and will depart for his home to-morrow.

What's in McClure's?

A striking feature of the August McClure's—one that will be widely discussed—is an essay on "Prohibition and Social Psychology," by Prof. Hugo Munsterberg. The distinguished psychologist says: "Better America Inspired than America Sober." Another strong feature from a pictorial standpoint, is the reproduction of several of the best paintings of Alexander Borisoff, the Russian artist, who went to the frozen north and painted the marvelously beautiful colors of the Arctic region on the spot. Richard C. Cabot, an eminent physician of Boston, analyzes one hundred "Christian Science Cures," declaring the Christian Science treatment does not cure organic diseases. The "Reminiscences of Carl Schurz" continue, with an intensley interesting account of two interviews between the author and Bismark, in 1867; and Ellen Terry, in her memoirs, tells of her last years with Henry Irving. In fiction there are a half-dozen stories, everyone of which possesses exceptional merit: "A Story of Hate," by Gertrude Hall; "Patsy Moran, the Book, and its Covers," by A. S. Hoffman; "His Need of Mis' Simons," another Ezekiel story, by Lucy Pratt; "The King of the Baboons," by Perceval Gibbon; "The Forehanded Colquhouns," by Margaret Wilson; "The Moving Finger Writes," by Marie BellocLowndes.

Special Clearance Sale

OF ALL

SUMMER DRY GOODS

THIS is the season of the year when the wise merchant gets ready to say good-bye to the balance of his summer stock. All the best authorities on store-keeping are agreed that no distinctively seasonable goods should be carried over from one season to another—that they should we "hustled" out, even at a considerable loss if necessary, in order to provide room and CASH.

Abont now we thing is a good date for a Summer Clearance Sale.

The power of price, as we have figured it down, cannot fail to make a clean sweep of such desirable merchandise.

Millinery, Millinery,
