VOL. XLVIII—NO. 9. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 1908. $1.00 PER ANNUM.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., August 5, 1908.

To the Board of Directors Second National Bank:

GENTLEMEN:

The undersigned, a committee appointed by you to examine the condition of the Second National Bank, beg to report that they performed this duty as of the close of business Thursday, July 30, 1908. The cashier furnished the following statement:

Assets:		Liabilities:
Redemption Account	$ 1,475.00	Capital Stock	$50,000.00
Bonds	212,851.10	Circulation	29,500.00
Loans	457,759.33	Deposits	661,205.68
Due from other banks	72,303.41	Due other banks	4,077.08
Cash in bank	35,956.52	Surplus	40,000.00
Banking House	11,000.00	Undivided Profits	6,229.87
Expenses	152.26	Certified Checks	484.99
	$791,497.62		$791,497.62

Taking up the liabilities first—The Capital Stock is a fixed amount. The cashier produced receipts from the United States Comptroller, showing the exact amount of circulation. The Deposit ledgers were gone over carefully—every account checked up and the grand total agreeing with the cashier's ledger. Due from other banks—every account was verified by the correspondence. The surplus and undivided profits account were very carefully examined, and found to be correct. The Certified Checks outstanding were proven to be all right.

The Assets—The redemption Account was verified by calling for the receipts from the Treasurer of the United States. Bonds—We handled and counted every bond owned by the bank as an investment, found them to be correct and all unpaid coupons attached. Loans—Your committee listed and counted every piece of paper discounted and found the total to agree with the cashier's balance sheet. Due other Banks—This sum was verified by writing to these banks and getting their reports, and in every case the cashier's balance sheet was proven correct. Cash in Bank—$35,956.52 was counted and found to be correct to the penny. Banking House—$11,000.00 is a fixed sum. Expenses—This account was very carefully examined for the past six months, vouchers called for and proven correct.

We found the condition of the bank most satisfactory. The fact that the U. S. Government has designated this bank as a depository of Government funds, attests the confidence it has in the integrity and good standing of the institution, and this examination of your committee confirms this view of the Government.

Signed,

JAMES A. PEARCE,
HOPE H. BARROLL.

OBITUARY.

MISS JULIA BURCHINAL.

Miss Julia Burchinal, youngest daughter of Mrs. Marcelline Burchinal, of Chestertown, died at a sanitarium, near Baltimore, on Tuesday, of consumption, aged 29 years. The deceased had been in failing health for some years, and had sought restoration in various health resorts but to no avail. Everything that loved ones and medical skill could do was done for her benefit. Prior to her return to Baltimore, she had spent some time at Saranac Lake, New York, but her case was beyond the power of human skill, and she resignedly submitted to the inevitable. The deceased was a young lady of most beautiful christian character. With a disposition as genial as a sunbeam, and a manner as gentle as a zephyr, she won the esteem and respect of all who knew her, and enjoyed the favor of hosts of friends. She was devoted to her church when her health permitted her attendance, and she possessed that christian courage which made her strong to endure the chastening rod of affliction. For some years she was a faithful teacher in Hanesville school, and her scholars loved her because she entered into their joys and helped them to bear their little troubles, and both parents and scholars were grieved when she was compelled to relinquish her duties. Young, possessed of winsome manner, and that fine intelligence and christian character which the world so much needs to-day, it would seem to human understanding that she was one of those whom the great Creator should permit to live and continue to do good in the world, but how true it is that "God's ways are not our ways," and "He doeth all things well." The deceased leaves a mother and two sisters. The remains were brought to Chestertown on the B. S. Ford on Wednesday evening and taken to the home of her uncle, Mr. Arthur Brown, whence funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. L. White. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were selected from the family, and were Messrs. Wm. H., Leon, Robert and Arthur Brown, and Messrs. Hiram and Staunton Brown, of New York city. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful.

WILLARD S. DILL.

Mr. Willard S. Dill, one of the best known men in the county, died at his home, the Armstrong Hotel, on Monday night, of Bright's disease, aged 50 years. The deceased was born in Delaware but in early life removed to Kent and was for a number of years engaged in farming near Chesterville. He disposed of his business and farming interests several years ago and purchased the Armstrong Hotel, which he had since made his residence. The deceased was a man of large heart, a kind neighbor and good friend. He was charitable to a fault, and never turned a deaf ear to those in need. He is survived by a widow and three children, Mrs. Geo. T. Perkins and Mrs. Ephraim Dill, and Mr. Foster Dill. He also leaves three brothers, Messrs. James, Charles and William Dill. Funeral services were held from his late residence on Cross street on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. Interment in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were his three brothers and three cousins, Messrs. Benjamin, James and William Dill. Undertaker Wm. T. Hicks had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. EMILY VOSHELL.

Mrs. Emily Voshell died at the home of Mr. Robert Ford in Quaker Neck on Sunday, aged 88 years. Funeral was held Tuesday, services conducted by Rev. S. R. S. Gray; interment in St. Paul's cemetery. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of arrangements The bearers were: J. E., Wilbur and Walter Morris, John P. Nicholson, J. Romie Byron and George Hendrickson.

MISS ELIZA MCLAIN.

Miss Eliza McLain died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Silas Weller, in Queen Annes, on Saturday, of general dibility, aged 77 years. The remains were prepared for burial by Undertaker Charles L. Dodd, and conveyed by train on Monday morning to Townsend. Thence they were conveyed to Collins Beach for interment.

MRS. MARY ELIZABETH KRUSEN.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Krusen (nee Connor) wife of Mr. C. B. Krusen, of Still Pond, died on Sunday last of general dibility following a short illness, aged 72 years. Funeral was held privately on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock with interment in Still Pond Cemetery. Mr. W. P. Toulson was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

RAYMOND ALLSTON.

Mr. Raymond Allston died at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Sallie Clinton, in Still Pond on Monday last, aged 59 years. Interment took place at Friends' Meeting House near Lynch on Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

MRS. AMANDA COLEMAN.

Mrs. Amanda Coleman, widow of the late Samuel Coleman, died at her late residence in Still Pond on Tuesday, aged 53 years. Funeral services were held yesterday (Friday) afternoon at two o'clock. Interment was in Still Pond Cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

The five months old child of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lurty died at their home on Calvert street on Wednesday and was intered in Chester cemetery on Thursday evening at six o'clock. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. James Baker died at the home of its parents, near Rock Hall, on Monday afternoon of cholera infantum.

MRS. MARGARET E. THORNTON.

Mrs. Margaret E. Thornton, sister of Mr. James P. Parrott, died at her home in Baltimore on Monday.

HORSES POISONED.

Six Valuable Animals Belonging to Mrs. R. T. Turner Die of Forage Poisoning.

Mrs. R. T. Turner, of near Betterton, has lost this week six valuable horses, and several others are reported to be affected with forage poisoning. The horses got out into the wheat fields one night last week, and ate some wheat that had been left around the stack yard after threshing and which had been made wet by the recent rains. The first horse was taken ill and died on Monday. Two others developed the disease and died on Tuesday evening, and several others are thought to be affected and may die. Mrs. Turner's loss is very heavy, as all save one horse and one colt of her stock of horses and colts has been affected and died. We advise all our farmers to be careful not to leave any loose wheat around their stack yards.

To Start Horses.

Mr. Geo. E. Noland, secretary of the Cecil, Kent and Queen Annes county Fair and race meeting, has arranged to have Starter Walter N. Hare, of Wilmington, Del., to do the starting at Tolchester Aug. 25 to 28. Negotiations are also pending between Mr. Noland and Mr. C. E. Burress, of Baltimore, with a view to having Mr. Burress act as presiding judge at the meeting. According to the latest reports from Tolchester, the prospect is bright for a record-breaking entry list. It will be remembered that the racing last year was probably the best seen at the track in many years, and this year the Maryland and Virginia circuit has one of its best list of horses. Supt. Noland is doing everytning in his power to provide ample accommodations for all entries, and he is receiving numerous inquries from many parts of the country for entries to the races. Prospects look particalarly good for fine racing and a splendid exhibit of farm implements, carriages, household goods, etc. The advertisement appears in another column.

Sale of Personalty.

The sales of the personalty of Messrs. James and Ivanhoe Willis, Wm. H. Cooper, Jas. T. Brown, Wm. Darrell, Guy Everett and Mrs. Nannie Vandyke were all attended by big crowds, and at each sale prices for all stock and farming implements were record breakers. The sale of Mr. James Willis was said to have been the greatest ever held in the county, and cash was paid for nearly half the property sold. Mr. Edward Corey, who will tenant the farm next year, was a large purchaser. The total amount of Mr. Willis' sales was nearly $6,200, and the highest price received was paid for a pair of mules—$393 cash, purchased by Mr. D. B. Stewart. A pair of young mares sold for $375. All these sales were advertised in the TRANSCRIPT and that is the reason for cash sales and big prices. That's the truth, brother.

Road Routes Decided.

The final hearing upon the roads to be selected for improvement by the Good Roads Commission was held in Baltimore on Tuesday and there were present from Kent county besides the Board of County Commissioners and clerk, Mr. Dukehart, of Baltimore, formerly of Kent; Messrs. Fred G. Usilton, Frank P. Cochran, Wm. T. Nicholson, James S. Harris, Harry C. Willis, Samuel Mann and Wm. E. Keyser. The Baltimore Sun says that Kent county's plan was indorsed unanimously and the people here sent a man to the Governor to tell him so. Who was the man? At any rate, the commission selected the same road they selected at a meeting in the court house. The road selected for Kent is as follows: Georgetown via Galena to Kennedyville to Chestertown, and from there via Fairlee toward Rock Hall via Sandy Bottom.
