by, authorized and directed to condemn and close Comet street, west of a line beginning at the southwest corner of Comet street and a ten-foot alley, sometimes called Comet alley, which leads from Fayette street to Comet street, and running thence northwardly (about north 12½ degrees west) to a fence corner at a bend or angle in Half Moon alley, (part of said alley being also sometimes called Forrest street).

Right of appeal.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That any person or persons, or body corporate, who may be dissatisfied with the assessments of damages or benefits which shall be made by the said Commissioners, may appeal therefrom to the Baltimore City Court, at the time, in the manner, and after like notice by the City Register, as provided for by Article XLVII of the Baltimore City Code, and the Collector and Register of the City shall perform such duties in relation to streets as are required of them by the provisions of said article.

Approved May 27th, 1891.

ROBERT C. DAVIDSON, Mayor.

No. 106.

An Ordinance to repeal and re-enact with amendments Ordinance No. 118, approved November 5th, 1887, entitled "An Ordinance to authorize the several street railway companies in the City of Baltimore to sand their tracks," and to add certain sections.

Authority to street railway companies to spread clean sand or gravel upon and between their rails.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the several street railway companies in the City of Baltimore be, and they are hereby, authorized from time to time to spread clean sand or gravel upon and between their rails in such curves and steep grades as the Commissioner of Street Cleaning shall designate.

Penalty.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted and ordained, That any person or corporation violating the provisions of this ordinance, shall forfeit and pay a fine of fifty dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered as other fines for the violation of City ordinances are recovered.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted and ordained, That all ordinances and resolutions inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted and ordained, That this ordinance shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved June 3d, 1891.

ROBERT C. DAVIDSON, Mayor.
