VOL. XLVIII—NO. 10. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, AUGUST 15, 1908. $1.00 PER ANNUM.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., August 5, 1908.

To the Board of Directors Second National Bank:

GENTLEMEN:

The undersigned, a committee appointed by you to examine the condition of the Second National Bank, beg to report that they performed this duty as of the close of business Thursday, July 30, 1908. The cashier furnished the following statement:

Assets:		Liabilities:
Redemption Account	$ 1,475.00	Capital Stock	$50,000.00
Bonds	212,851.10	Circulation	29,500.00
Loans	457,759.33	Deposits	661,205.68
Due from other banks	72.303.41	Due other banks	4,077.08
Cash in bank	35,956.52	Surplus	40,000.00
Banking House	11,000.00	Undivided Profits	6,229.87
Expenses	152.26	Certified Checks	484.99
	$791,497.62		$791,497.62

Taking up the liabilities first—The Capital Stock is a fixed amount. The cashier produced receipts from the United States Comptroller, showing the exact amount of circulation. The Deposit ledgers were gone over carefully—every account checked up and the grand total agreeing with the cashier's ledger. Due from other banks—every account was verified by the correspondence. The surplus and undivided profits account were very carefully examined, and found to be correct. The Certified Checks outstanding were proven to be all right.

The Assets—The redemption Account was verified by calling for the receipts from the Treasurer of the United States. Bonds—We handled and counted every bond owned by the bank as an investment, found them to be correct and all unpaid coupons attached. Loans—Your committee listed and counted every piece of paper discounted and found the total to agree with the cashier's balance sheet. Due other Banks—This sum was verified by writing to these banks and getting their reports, and in every case the cashier's balance sheet was proven correct. Cash in Bank—$35,956.52 was counted and found to be correct to the penny. Banking House—$11,000.00 is a fixed sum. Expenses—This account was very carefully examined for the past six months, vouchers called for and proven correct.

We found the condition of the bank most satisfactory. The fact that the U. S. Government has designated this bank as a depository of Government funds, attests the confidence it has in the integrity and good standing of the institution, and this examination of your committee confirms this view of the Government.

Signed,

JAMES A. PEARCE,
HOPE H. BARROLL.

A CARD OF APPRECIATION.

In retiring from business, which my failing sight compels, I wish to return my grateful thanks to the many friends and patrons who have stood by me so faithfully and some of them by my father before me. It is with much feeling and great regret that I have faced the inevitable and given up the business I have been engaged in so long, and in which I have achieved a reputation that any one may well envy.

Again thanking all my friends, I desire to recommend my successor, MR. CHARLES L. DODD, to their liberal patronage, feeling sure of his ability to coduct the business in the most acceptable manner.

Respectfully,
JOHN N. DODD,

ATE TOAD STOOLS.

One Son and Daughter-in-Law of Mr. Joshua R. Jarrell, of Near Kennedyville Die From Eating Toad Stools for Mushrooms.

Mr. Harry C. Jarrell, aged 38 years, unmarried, and Mrs. J. Oscar Jarrell, son and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Jarrell, near Kennedyville, died Thursday from the effects of eating toad stools for mushrooms. Mr. J. Oscar Jarrell, another son of Mr. Jarrell, and also several others ate the toad stools but while they were rendered seriously ill, the last reports from the hospital were that they would recover. Mr. J. Oscar Jarrell, had rented a cottage at Sea Breeze, a summer resort on Lake Ontario, only a short trolley ride from his city home in Rochester. He invited his brother, Harry to dinner on Sunday evening.

All were fond of mushrooms, and they gathered toad stools for mushroomes and they were cooked and eaten at the evening meal. A short time after all were taken desperately ill, and Harry and the daughter-in-law died on Thursday. The body of the daughter-in-law was shipped to Rochester for interment in the family burial lot, and the remains of the son will reach Kennedyville this evening by train, and funeral services will be held from the home of his parents, near Kennedyville, tomorrow, (Sunday) morning, funeral being conducted by Rev. E. H. Collins of Still Pond. Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell have the greatest sympathy of the entire community. They have had so much trouble recently. Sometime ago they lost a son, and now this double calamity is upon them. They are surely the objects for sympathy and prayer. The young men were active workers in the Christian Endeavor Society before they left home some years ago.

OBITUARY.

MR. GILBERT NEWTON.

Mr. Gilbert Newton died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Newton, near town, on Saturday evening about 6 o'clock, of chorea, aged 19 years. The death of this young man is a very sad one. About a year ago he was bitten in the face by a dog. He went to the Pasteur Institute, Baltimore, and was successfully treated. He returned to his home, but we are told by his physician, Dr. H. G. Simpers, that he lived in mortal fear that the dog bite would develop a case of hydrophobia, and this fear accentuated by an attack of rheumatism, lead to the rare disease, a complete collapse of the nervous system, of which he died. Gilbert was not only a very industrious boy, but he was a most dutiful son to his mother. There never came a Saturday night when he received his week's wages, that he failed to carry a part of his week's pay to his mother to help her in purchasing provisions for the family, and there never was an occasion when any task his mother asked him to perform was too irksome for him to do. His physician and family did everything in their power for his comfort, but his disease was one of those rare ailments beyond the reach of medical skill. Funeral services were held from the residence of his parents on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. L. White. Interment was in Chester Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. Frank Lambert, Jr., Clifford Cooper, Romie McPatrick, Albert Boone, Richard Kennard, Harvey Blyman.

Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MR. JOSEPH STOOPS.

Mr. Joseph Stoops, son of Mr. Webster Stoops, died at his home in Lankford on Saturday of tuberculosis, aged 27 years. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. L. White. Interment in Chester Cemetery. The pall bearers were his four brothers, Messrs. Oliver, Price, Howard and Rolph Stoops, and Beverly Hyland and Grover Hadaway. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

JOHN W. KIKER.

John W., the 9-months-old babe of Mr. and Mrs. Sie Kiker, of Betterton, died on Wednesday night last of marasmus. Funeral and interment took place on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

Fishing Notes.

Messrs. Frank and Samuel Greenwood cought a fine lot of white perch with hook and line near Rolph's wharf on Saturday afternoon.

Some fine perch and rock are being caught up the river with hook and line.

Moonlight fishing off Chester bridge is quite popular and many good catches of small fry are made.

Two colored fishermen, Paine and Carter, in two days fishing of three hours each day, caught $19 worth of fine perch and rock with hook and line in Chesapeake bay off Mr. Wm. H. Cooper's shore. Some of the rock weighed 5½ lbs each.

Fishermen in the North East river one day last week in two hauls of seine caught 4700 lbs. first haul, 1000 lbs. second haul, of rock fish. They were shipped to Philadelphia and netted the fishermen $800.

Chester river and its tributaries are alive with seine haulers doing a thriving business.

Kitty Knight in Collision.—The steamer, Kitty Knight, of the Tolchester Company, collided with a gasoline launch in the Baltimore harbor about 4.30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. One man was drowned and three were injured and the launch was almost totally destroyed. The occupants of the launch were members of the crew of the schooner Mertle B. Crowley, of Boston.

The Merchant Sale.

The sale of personalty of Mr. Benjamin F. Merchant near Galena on Thursday last was largely attended and prices were high. Horses sold as high as $225, the stallion bringing $220, sheep brought from $4.60 to $7, cows from $31 to $53, one calf brought $30, hogs sold well, as did also the farming implements. The sale amounted to over $6,000. Mr. Merchant will remove to Colorado with his family next year. We regret to lose them. They are splendid people, and they will be greatly missed in the social life of upper Kent.
