NEWSY BRIEFS.

*†Seine haulers last Saturday caught 1100 fine rock in one haul off Mr. Wm. S. Collins' shore in Corsica river.

*†Mr. Raymond Prettyman, of Galena, was in town last week in his handsome red automobile runabout.

*†Sparks' Circus on Tuesday attracted a big crowd at both performances and was one of the cleanest and best shows ever seen in the town.

*†Some of our Chestertown boatmen attended the annual regatta of the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club at St. Michaels yesterday.

*†Local dealers were paying 93½ cents for wheat yesterday. Corn has reached the remarkable price of 91 cents in city markets.

*†Mr. Barrett C. Smith will overseer Mr. D. B. Stewart's farm, near town for 1909. Mr. Smith is an excellent farmer and will make Mr. Stewart a most acceptable overseer. Mr. Stewart has recently purchased some excellent stock with which to carry on the farm.

*†Baldwin's cannery at the old depot opened this week. The Bohemian colony arrived on Tuesday. Tomatoes have begun to move quite lively this week and are in good condition.

*†During the thunder storm last Thursday afternoon lightning struck the meat house on one side of Mr. Wm. Whiteley's dwelling on the Brooks' farm near Kennedyville, and a locust tree on the other side, but no damage was done to the dwelling.

Wedding Bells.

SMITH—SHOCKLEY.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Amanda Shockley, Md., Wednesday morning, Aug. 5th, at eleven o'clock, when her daughter, Rebecca, became the bride of Rev. S. J. Smith, now pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, Harrington, Del. The bride was very becomingly attired in white net over satin and carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. They entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mr. Gordon Smith, son of the groom and the wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. G. A. Morris, of St. James Church, Kent county, Md., and a former pastor of the bride.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Amanda Shockley and was for several years a teacher in the public schools of Wicomico county, and the groom is a prominent minister of the Maryland Methodist Protestant Conference and is very well and favorably known throughout the peninsula.

Dr. and Mrs. Smith left on the noon express for Philadelphia, Albany, N. Y., and other points. They will remain about three weeks when they will return to Harrington, Delaware, and occupy the parsonage there.

ARNHEIM—LIEBERMAN.

Miss Beulah Liberman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Lieberman, of Melitota, was married on Saturday evening last by Rev. Dr. Loewenthal, to Mr. Morris Arnheim, of New York. Mr. and Mrs. Arnheim will be at home after to-morrow (Sunday) at 226 W. 143nd street, New York.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

The members of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of Christ M. P. Church enjoyed a delightful strawride to Betterton on Wednesday afternoon.

His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons, who is now visiting in Rome, has been quite ill during his stay in the Italian city. He was able to visit the Pope in the Vatican recently, and has since fully recovered. Cardinal Gibbons is one of the greatest men in the Catholic Church to-day, and his influence for good is felt not only in Maryland, but throughout the country.

There will be no preaching service at Wesley Chapel next Sunday on account of the absence of the pastor, Mr. Compher who is visiting his mother in Virginia for two weeks.

P. O. S. of A.

The thirteenth annual convention of the State Camp of Maryland, Patriotic Order Sons of America was held in Hancock on Tuesday and Wednesday. It was a splendid convention and was largely attended by full delegations from every camp in the State. National President William E. Valliant, of Laurel, Del., installed the following officers: Past State President, Rev. Andrew B. Wood; State President, Dr. Harry G. Conner; State Vice-President, W. F. Williams, Jr.; State Master of Forms, J. McC. Rochester; State Secretary, Prof. W. J. Heaps; State Assistant Secretary, W. J. Carter; State Treasurer, Dr. A. B. Candler; State Chaplain, W. M. Jett; State Conductor, W. J. B. Lofland; State Inspector, J. Wesley Yingling; State Guard, Charles H. Williams; State Trustees, H. L. Feeser, J. W. Boyer and Winfield Abbott. The next State Camp will be held in Chestertown. The State Camp received a royal welcome to the town. Every place was beautifully decorated, there was a street parade with bands of music and out-door speaking Tuesday evening, and the hospitality of the people was lavished upon the patriots. Let Chestertown do likewise next year.

With Our Advertisers.

Read Davis & Satterfield's change this morning. Cow Ease and Cow Peas. No Flies and good fodder.

Big mid-summer clearance sale at A. Alexander's department store in Rock Hall. Big bargains. See advertisement on page 1.

A fine 50c brass washboard at Medders & Co. next Wednesday for only 9 cents. One to a customer.

Mr. Charles H. Brice's change of advertisement arrived too late this week for publication. But he is there in Betterton with the goods and we can testify to the fact that he is as busy as a bee. Watch for his change next week.

A representative of the TRANSCRIPT called last Saturday evening to pay his respects to Messrs. Owens & Co, and to Mr. Charles H. Brice. Both stores were crowded with buyers and all the clerks were as busy as they could be. That's all right gentlemen. The TRANSCRIPT is helping you all it can.

Going to Tolchester Fair? Go with Lockwood on the 27th out of Sassafras river.

The Transcript Did it.

Mr. Carroll Loller lost a valuable calf recently. He searched high and low for it and finally advertised only once in the TRANSCRIPT. He found the calf at Mr. Wm. Willis' in Worton. Once was enough.

Mr. J. H. Sides, the big jeweler and optician reports that his big advertisement in the TRANSCIPT of his special August sale is bringing excellent results, and he is very much grat fied. Oh! The TRANSCRIPT did it, and it is the advertiser's paper every time. It means money to you to advertise in this paper

Millington Items.

Mr. Price Vansant spent Monday with his parents.

Mr. Norman Wallen is spending his vacation with friends in Washington, D. C.

The cannery under control of Mr. Evans, is in working order.

Monday, "Circus Day" passed off quietly, crowds attending. The usual parade was omitted much to the chagrin of many. All who attended the circus were much pleased.

The Ladies of the P. E. Congregation gave a reception to Mrs. Birnbach and daughter, who reached here from Minneapolis Tuesday, Aug. 11.

A large number of friends attended the funeral of Mrs. Wm. Gillespie, who was buried from Sudlersville, Tuesday, Aug. 11.

Solomon Pippin is with his father at Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cacy, of Dumont, N. J., are visiting Mrs. R. Feddeman.

Mrs. Bradford Dudley is at Rehoboth Beach.

Wm. H. Thomas, of Philadelphia, died at Atlantic City, N. J. Aug. 8. He was born in Millington, June 13th, 1843. He leaves a widow, one son, and two brothers, all of Philadelphia. His funeral took place from his late residence 1445 North 17th street, Tuesday, Aug 11th. Interment in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pa.

Sales of Personalty.

The sales of the personalty of Mr. John Hogan, on Monday, near Melitota, and Mr. B. F. Merchant, near Galena, on Tuesday were largely attended and prices for horses, cows, other stock and farming implements were usually high. Auctioneer Andrew Vansant cried the big Merchant sale and he handled the great crowd of bidders to perfection. He got splendid prices for everything and proved himself a very efficient auctioneer, as did also Mr. John Robinson at the Hogan sale.

DR. DAVID A. SPARKS,

DENTIST.

ALL RUN DOWN.

Miss Della Stroebe, who had Completely Lost Her Health, Found Relief from Pe-ru-na at Once.

Read What She Says:

MISS DELLA STROEBE, 710 Richmond St., Appleton, Wis., writes: "For several years I was in a run-down condition, and I could find no relief from doctors and medicines. I could not enjoy my meals, and could not sleep at night. I had heavy, dark circles about the eyes.

"My friends were much alarmed. I was advised to give Peruna a trial, and to my joy I began to improve with the first bottle. After taking six bottles I felt completely cured. I cannot say too much for Peruna as a medicine for women in a run-down condition."

Pe-ru-na Did Wonders.

Mrs. Judge J. F. Boyer, 1421 Sherman Ave., Evanston, Ill., says that she became run down, could neither eat nor sleep well, and lost flesh and spirit. Peruna did wonders for her, and she thanks Peruna for new life and strength.

Man-a-lin the Ideal Laxative.
