Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or other derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examinations and local treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription;" it will not perform miracles; it will not disolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this remedy of known composition.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

TWO SIDES TO THE STORY.

Preacher Shipman, Accused of Wrong Doing, Says He Was Victim of Circumstances.

Much interest has been aroused throughout the bounds of the Wilmington M. E. Conference by the story of a desperate assault committed upon Rev. Stephen P. Shipman, pastor of Hurlock (Md.) M. E. Church, by Thomas Carew, who claims, in justification that the preacher violated the honor of his home.

Carew's version of the affair is that his suspicions were aroused by evidences of intimacy between his wife and Mr. Shipman which induced him to be o nthe watch. Last Tuesday night, he says, he returned from a boating trip to Baltimore a day earlier than he was expected, and while in hiding during the night at the home of his wife's father, where his wife was stopping, he saw her go into the minister's bedroom. He followed and assaulted the minister, administering a severe beating, using a wooden club. The minister was seriously injured, one of his ears being almost severed by a blow from the club.

Mr. Shipman's version of the affair is that he spent the night at the house of Captain Nathan Todd, Mrs. Carew's father, at Dame's Quarter, Md., where the incident occured, at Captain Todd's invitation, and that Mrs. Carew entered his room without any invitation from him or any intimation that she contemplated such a step. Before he could protest against the intrusion, he claims, Carew followed and made the assault upon him.

"As God is my judge, I am guiltless of the horrible charge brought against me," said Mr. Shipman. "I am the innocent victim of a combination of circumstances over which I had no control and far which Mrs. Carew, my assailant's wife, was wholly responsible."

Mr. Shipman has retained counsel with a view of prosecuting his assailant, by which means he hopes to obtain a complete vindication before the world.

The official board of the church of which Mr. Shipman is pastor already has adopted a resolution expressing their confidence in him and suspending judgment pending a complete investigation.

Mr. Shipman is about 55 years old, is married and has two grown children.

The affair will be officially investigated by Rev. S. M. Morgan, superintendent of the Dover district of Wilmington Conference, in which the Hurlock charge is located.
