WHAT THE FARMERS SAY.

Church Hill, Md., Nov. 1, '07.
Davis & Satterfield, Chestertown, Md.:

Gentlemen:—The new Superior Fertilizer Finger Feed Drill I purchased of you last fall is a genuine success. I never used a drill with more satisfaction than this one, and grew more wheat per acre than I ever did since I have been farming, which is about 40 years. I have no hesitancy in recommending this drill to my brother farmers.

Yours respectfully,
J. P. CROSSLEY.

A CARD OF APPRECIATION.

In retiring from business, which my failing sight compels, I wish to return my grateful thanks to the many friends and patrons who have stood by me so faithfully and some of them by my father before me. It is with much feeling and great regret that I have faced the inevitable and given up the business I have been engaged in so long, and in which I have achieved a reputation that any one may well envy.

Again thanking all my friends, I desire to recommend my successor, MR. CHARLES L. DODD, to their liberal patronage, feeling sure of his ability to coduct the business in the most acceptable manner.

Respectfully,
JOHN N. DODD,

ABOUT YOUR FRIENDS.

ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Sellers and children, of Philadelphia, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Archibald, near Kennedyville.

A recent letter from Mr. Wethered Barroll, who is spending his vacation in the West, states that he is now enjoying "Ranch Life," thousands of feet above sea level, and that with his gun and rod and reel he is as happy as can be.

Dr. Robinson, of Nevada, is visiting his father-in-law, Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., at Laureturn Place.

Rev. and Mrs. W. L. White have been enjoying the pleasures of Asbury Park and Ocean Grove during the past week. There were no services at the M. E. Church on Sunday because of Mr. White's absence.

Camp Tolchester will open next Monday on Mr. Walter U. Lusby's Tolchester farm. The campers will be Messrs. Elwood Baker, Harry Hodgkins and Charles McWhorter. They will take in the big fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Kershaw, of New York, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Strong, near Lankford.

Mr. John Gruber, of Philadelphia, has been visiting among his many friends here during the week. John is looking very well, and has changed but little since he left Chestertown a number of years ago.

Mr. Fred G. Usilton and sister, Miss Clara, Miss Addie Hurlock, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Guest are among Chestertown visitors to Atlantic City for two weeks.

Mrs. Brown and daughter, of Baltimore, have been guests of her sister, Mrs. M. E. Newsome, on High street this week.

Miss Palmer Carroll entertained a few friends very pleasantly on Friday evening last in honor of her guest, Miss Hyrons, of Wilmington, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Satterfield have been among the Kent visitors to Atlantic City this week.

Mr. Hynson Rogers and sister, Miss Mary Rogers, are on an extended trip to Nova Scotia and other points of interest in the north.

Miss Sarah Penning, of Havre de Grace, has been visiting Miss Violet Beck, near Lankford.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter were prevented from leaving for Ocean Grove last Friday by business reasons. They left yesterday.

Mr. J. Frank Davis, of Wilmington, Del., is spending a two weeks' vacation with relatives here.

Guion Roberts, Esq., and Mr. Joseph Archbell, of New York, are guests of relatives in Chestertown.

Mrs. John D. Welch and niece, Miss Mary Whaland, are enjoying the breezes of Atlantic City.

Mr. James G. Beck witnessed the great race between Jack Leyburn and Sweet Marie on Belmont track, Philadelphia, on Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. English and children, of Queenstown, have been guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Anthony, over the river.

Mr. G. D. Stollenwerck, of Uniontown, Alabama, the owner of a large cotton plantation, sent Mr. Wilbur hubbard this week a stalk of cotton as it grows, to hang up in his office. This is quite a curiosity to us Marylanders who never saw cotton grow.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cannon, of Philadelphia, have been guests of relatives and friends here during the week. Walter formerly lived in Chestertown, but is now engaged in a prosperous business in Philadelphia.

A delightful crabbing party was held at Ford's landing, near Millington, on Thursday evening. Those present were Misses Laura and Mary Ahern, Claire Ahern, of Millington, Clare Benson, Georgia Donaldson, of Baltimore, Samuel Greenwood, J. W. Russell and Warren C. Hurlock, of Chestertown, and Loring Joslin and Ben Biggs, of Sudlersville.

TO RESUME SCHEDULE.

The people of the county and business man generally will be glad to learn that a prominent business man in Chestertown has received a letter from the Pennsylvania railroad officials stating that on and after Sept. 1 the schedule of the Kent train will be changed so that the afternoon train will leave here at 2.30 and reach here at six o'clock instead of at seven at present. It is very kind of the officials of the company to comply with a reasonable request made by the people through the TRANSCRIPT. It was the TRANSCRIPT which first called attention to the hardship to the business interests by the recent change made in the schedule which made the afternoon train leave here at 1.30 giving the business men but little time to answer their mail which arrived on the 11 o'clock train, and the paper circulated a petition to the company for the restoration of the old schedule, to which the officials have very generously acceeded. The TRANSCRIPT was the only paper in the county to begin and agitate a change for the interests of our business men, and the only reference which another paper made to our efforts to benefit our merchants and business men generally was to publish some sarcastic stuff that did them far more harm than it did the TRANSCRIPT. The Centreville papers took up the matter in behalf of their progressive town and also the lower shore papers, and the work which the TRANSCRIPT begun and pushed will culminate in benefit to the merchants and business of the entire shore. There is a way to do everything, and the TRANSCRIPT is always ready to take care of the interests not only of our merchants and business men, but of the people at large. It is distinctively and solely the peoples' paper, and so long as the people appreciate our efforts, we shall do the rest, whether the other fellow gets jealous at his own short comings or not.
