SHARPLES
Dairy Tubular Cream Separator.

Here are five separators—the largest Sharples Dairy Tubular in the middle and two "back breakers" on each side. The machines are all set so the crank axles are level. Which kind for you? The girl is 5 feet 4 inches tall. We handle Tubulars exclusively. Tubulars have waist-low supply cans and other advantages over all other separators. Call and examine Tubular.

Resolutions Against Sun.

At a well-attended meeting of the Bryan-Kern-Covington Club held in Cambridge last Friday night, the following strong resolutions against the course of the Baltimore Sun in the present political campaign, introduced by Mr. J. Watson Thompson, were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Democratic party of the nation and the States are one in aim, one in practice and one in principles, undivided, indissoluble and incapable of separation into parts, and

WHEREAS, The principles of that party, have, since its foundation, been wont to be published to the world in its platforms, as time and occasion require, and

WHEREAS, The Sun paper, by repudiating, on two occasions, the platforms of the National Democratic party and its duly nominated candidates, and advocating the election of Republicans to administer the executive department of the national government, has severed all affiliation with the Democratic party and arrayed itself openly with the Republican party and all that that party stands for, both in Nation and State; therefore, be it

Resolved, 1st. That the Bryan, Kern and Covington club of Cambridge, Md., does hereby record its disapproval of the Sun's course and does hereby pledge its members, collectively and individually, to use their influence to discourage the reading of the Sun by Democrats in the town of Cambridge and the county of Dorchester, requesting them to substitute therefor the Philadelphia Record and the other daily papers of Philadelphia and New York which are supporting the principles and nominees of the Democratic party.

2d. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to every Democratic club now or hereafter organized in the State of Maryland, and to the chairman of every Democratic State Central Committee, with the request that they co-operate with us in our efforts to discourage the reading and patronage of the Sun paper.

3d. That a copy of these resolutions by published by every Democratic paper in Dorchester county, and that a copy of the same be sent to the Sun, the Baltimore American, the Baltimore News and Philadelphia Record for publication, and also that a copy be sent to the chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Mr. Thompson moved, and the motion was carried, that several hundred copies of the resolution be printed for distribution.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of CLARENCE PRICE, who departed this life just three years ago to-day, August 17, 1905.

Three long years have passed away;
Three sad years since that fatal day.
The one I dearly loved and prized
Lies cold in death before my eyes.

I miss his coming foots-eps,
I miss him everywhere;
Home is not what it used to be
Since papa is not here.

No words will ever seem so sweet,
As the words he used to say;
No day will ever seem so sad
As the day he passed away.

I sit alone to-night at the table and gaze
On your empty chair,
And memory takes me back to-day
When dear papa sat there.

Often in the still and silent night,
When none but God is near,
Me thinks I hear the voice of papa
Calling: "Ruth, come here."

But ne'er again while life shall last,
As on my lonely road I tread,
Will I be called upon to lift
That tired and weary head.

Friends may think I'll soon forget you,
And my wounded heart be healed;
But they little know the sorrow
That's within my heart concealed.

In Millington cemetery the stars are beaming
Upon my papa's grave,
Where sleepeth, without dreaming,
Our darling papa we could not save.

He sleeps within the cold, cold grave,
The dark blue skies above him;
He was too pure and fair for earth,
None knew him but to love him.

Sleep on, dear papa, and take thy rest,
In God's sweet mansion fair,
For it may not be long before I'll join you
In our Father's palace there.

BY HIS DAUGHTER RUTH.
