THE LADIES' STORE, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

JEFFERSON.

SEMI-SUMMER REDUCTIONS.

AS the summer is fast passing away and finds us with a few odds and ends in the various lines yet on hand which we will close out at a great reduction to rid our shelves in order to make room for the vast array of fall goods which will soon begin to arrive. While the price in these "odds and ends" are exceptionally low, they are in no wise damaged but are genuine first class stock and as represented or money cheerfully refunded.

WE desire to call especial attention to the fact that "Ladies Store" is the only dry goods and notion house in the town that closes at 7 p. m. during the months of July and August and hope that the public will appreciate this and call during the day and secure some of the bargan offereds below.

MILLINERY AT HALF PRICE.

Our Millinery parlors must be cleared AT ONCE. We need the money, we need the room. There are some few choice pattern hats, sailors, trimmed and untrimmed hats, flowers, ribbons, etc., here which must go; we say 50c on the dollar takes them; all persons can find real bargains here. Don't wait, come inspect, but meditate not for the price will surely please.

White Goods.

We have just finished our largest season on white goods, and the cause for the amount of business has been the quality of the line. This has been equal to any to be seen in the city. We are now ready to close out the odds and ends at great sacrifice.

Persian Lawn, 32 inches wide, 15 and 18 cents, at 12½c
" " 45 inches wide, 30, 35 and 40 cents, at 27c
Hand-woven Battist, Chiffons, Kristols, French Muslins, Organdies, etc., 50 and 60 cents, at 45c. 65 and 75 cents at 50.

LAWNS! LAWNS!

In our stock of Lawns and Colored goods which will be closed out at prices to suit all. We have some of our best patterns, and since the price has been dropped they are going. Colored goods 25. 30, 35c, at 15c. Lawns 18, 15 and 12, at 10 and 12½c.

Muslins! Muslins!

7½c PER YARD

We have recently purchased a job lot of Muslin Remnants from one to ten yards to the piece. Regular price 8, 10 and 12½c per yard, we offer them while they last at 7½c.

A GREAT SHOE CLEARANCE.

You know what that means. It's a clearing up of all Spring and summer shoe stock. "Six months and out"—is the rule—and here they go.

Pumps and Oxfords—every pair—good reliable shoes—no trash in our regular stock. It's the opportunity of the season to get good shoes at little prices.

First Choice is Always Best

Just look at this list. We think the prices will make your purse uneasy.

All Tan and Gun Metal Pumps, the regular $3.30 line, go in this clearance sale at $2.90

A number of pairs of Black Kid, Patent Leather and Gun Metal Oxfords. The regular $3.00 line go at $2.50

Come out, ladies, during the day. You will find the store pleasant, fans plentiful, cool, refreshing water and a souvenir to all who call between 7 A. M. and 7 P. M.

HARRY F. JEFFERSON,

THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall, Chestertown Md

OBITUARY.

MRS. ARIANA ELIZABETH ESTES.

Mrs. Ariana Elizabeth Estes, wife of Mr. Charles Estes, Notary Public of Chestertown, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter U. Lusby, on High street, on Thursdry evening at seven o'clock, of heart failure, in the 65th year of her age. The deceased was the daughter of the late William and Elizabeth Frazer, and was born in Chestertown, where she had spent her entire life. Mrs. Estes was a woman of noble christian character. Having united with the Methodist Protestant Church when a little girl, she was devoted to its interests, even until her death sickness, and throughout her long life she sought to practice her religion in her home as well as with those with whom she came in contact. When but a little girl she was given a Bible by her pastor, the late Rev. David Wilson, for her great knowledge of the scriptures, and that same Bible shows today the evidences of careful study and reading. Being of a somewhat retiring disposition, Mrs. Estes made her home her castle, and it was here that she practiced those virtues and lived that life which always tended towards making her home happy and bright. For many long years she and her esteemed family had lived in happiness and devotion, and not once was there a jarring word or unkind act from mother. The deceased was one of the oldest members of the Methodist Protestant Church, and her continuous residence in the town made her one of our oldest inhabitants.

She was assistant postmaster under the late John Collins, during the term of President Buchanan, when mail was transported from point to point by stage, and she was always delighted to relate reminiscences of the olden times in her native town. During her last illness she had received the most devoted attention from her daughter and family, and though she suffered long, she was patient, and when the end came she passed peacefully to the great beyond. She is survived by a husband and four children, Mrs. Walter U. Lusby, Messrs. James and Ollie Estes, of Chestertown, and Mr. Fred Estes, of Atlanta, Ga. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Benanna Russell and Mrs. Wm. A. Wheatley, of Chestertown. Funeral services will be held from the residence of her daughter on High street tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. Interment in Chester Cemetery. The pallbearers will be Wm. A. Wheatley, Lewin S. Fowler, Frank H. Howard, Wm. F. Russell, Charles S. Smith, Wm. H. Robertson. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

HARRY C. JARRELL.

The funeral of Harry Corneilus Jarrell, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jarrell, took place from the residence of his parents, near Kennedyville, on Sunday morning, August 16th, at 10 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. E. H. Collins, of Still Pond M. E. Church. assisted by Rev. E. S. Fooks, of the Kennedyville M. P. Church. Beautiful tributes were paid to the high chaaacter of the deceased, who, fifteen years ago, had connected himself with the Methodist Protestant Church of Kennedyville, and had been one of the staunchest members, and an active worker in the Christian Endeavor Society. After his removal to Rochester, N. Y., he became a constant attendant of the Brick Presbyterian Church of that city. During the funeral services the Kennedyville choir sang "Abide With Me," "Looking This Way," "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Lead Kindly Light." The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. T. Hague, W. A. Pote, E. L. Redmile, R. R. Hill, John N. Bennett and Wm. Cleaver. The large gathering of friends attested the high regard in which the deceased was held and was a mute expression of deepest sympathy for the grief-stricken family. During the services touching references were made to the death of Mrs. Oscar Jarrell and to the serious illness of her husband and her mother. Earnest petitions were offered for the recovery of the sick and for grace to bear their great bereavement. The interment of Harry Jarrell was in Still Pond cemetery. Since the funeral beautiful letters have been received from many friends. Among those most highly prized are from the Brick Presbyterian Church, of Rochester, the Rev. Webster M. Strayer, of the M. P. Conference, at present visiting in Rochester and from the Bausch & Lamb Optical Company, of that city. Up to the time of his death Mr. Jarrell had been an honorary member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of Kennedyville.

S. ROL HURLOCK.

Mr. S. Rol Hurlock, one of the most prominent agriculturists, and an active member of the Rick Neck Farmers Club, died at his home in Queen Annes, near Chester bridge, early Saturday morning of paralysis, aged 60 years. The deceased was the son of the late J. S. and Henrietta Hurlock, and was born at Blackiston's Crossroads, Del. Sometime ago Mr. Hurlock had his arm seriously injured in a corn sheller on his farm, and since that time his health had not been good. He had recently been to a Baltimore Hospital for treatment to his arm, and the very day the physician was to remove the cast the fatal stroke came. The deceased was one of the most highly esteemed men in Queen Annes county. By careful business methods and persistent toil, he had amassed a fine landed estate whereon he employed the most modern methods of farming and was among the earliest crop producers in this section. It was the general verdict of all who lived near him, that he was a splendid neighbor, kindhearted and generous, and a man who loved his family and its interests above everything else. He was for years an active member of the Rich Neck Farmers Club, an influential and progressive association of Queen Annes farmers, and in many ways Mr. Hurlock sought to improve the agricultural, social and moral welfare of his and adjoining counties. He was a good man, and he will be a great loss to Queen Annes county. He is survived by a widow and one son, Mr. Wilbur Hurlock. He also leaves three brothers, Messrs. John J., of Snow Hill; J. Edwin, of Millington, and Walter N. Hurlock, of Centreville; and two sisters, Mrs. George R. Bullen, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Rudolph Wallace, of Kent county. Funeral services were held
