No. 95.

An Ordinance to condemn, open and widen Burrow street, fifty feet wide, from Fort avenue to Claggett street, by increasing the width of said Burrow street thirty feet on the west side.

To condemn, open and widen.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Commissioners for Opening Streets in the City of Baltimore are hereby authorized and directed to condemn, open and widen Burrow street, fifty feet wide, from Fort avenue to Claggett street, by increasing the width of said Burrow street thirty feet on the west side.

Right of appeal.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That any person or persons, or body corporate, who may be dissatisfied with the assessments of damages or benefits which shall be made by the said Commissioners, may appeal therefrom to the Baltimore City Court, at the time, in the manner, and after like notice by the City Register, as provided for in Article XLVII of the Baltimore City Code; and the Collector and Register of the City shall also perform such duties in relation to said Burrow street as are required of them under the provisions of said Article XLVII.

Approved May 27th, 1892.

FERDINAND C. LATROBE, Mayor.

No. 96.

An ordinance appropriating two thousand dollars ($2,000) additional for Manual Training School at Maryland House of Refuge.

$2,000 appropriated.

Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the sum of two thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated additional to the sum of five thousand dollars already appropriated for the purpose of a Manual Training School at the Maryland House of Refuge, said additional sum to be taken from any money in the City Treasury not otherwise expended.

Approved June 13th, 1892.

FERDINAND C. LATROBE, Mayor.

No. 97.

An Ordinance providing for the sale to James Sloan, Jr., of certain real estate held by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore in trust for the McDonogh Educational Fund and Institute.

Preamble.

Whereas, By his last will and testament the late Samuel H. Tagart devised all the rest and residue of his property, real and personal, after paying certain legacies and devises to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, in trust for the McDonogh Educational Fund and Institute, absolutely, which said devise and bequest in trust has