Pleasant street, providing for repaving, from Holliday street to Jones' falls 42
Poppleton street, providing for repaving, from Lexington street to Columbia avenue 54
Patuxent street, authorizing the Mayor to accept deed for bed of, from Elliott street to Boston street 91
Plant, machinery, &c., to repeal and re-enact with amendments, Ordinance No. 7, approved February 8th, 1881, in relation to the exemption of 120
Poles in streets, lanes and alleys, fixing the tax on telegraph, electric light and other 152
Preston street, to repave, between Gay and Washington streets 180
Police and Fire-Alarm and Police Patrol System, to place underground the wires of 182
Pratt street, to repave, from Howard street to Frederick avenue 207
Patterson Park avenue, to grade, pave and kerb, between Monument and Oliver streets 210
Pulaski street, to grade, pave and kerb, between Pratt and McHenry streets 212
Pulaski street, to grade, pave and kerb, between Baltimore street and Frederick avenue 221
Pleasant street, to repave, from Calvert street to Holliday street 278
Patterson avenue, to repave, from Fulton avenue to Fremont street 291
Poudrette and glue factories, to prohibit the erection in the City of 295

Pearl street, to repave, from Baltimore street to Saratoga street 296
Patterson Park, to provide for the continuation of the improvements of 317
Park avenue, to repave, from Lanvale street to North avenue 319
Patuxent street, to repave, from Boston street to Elliott street 324
Park, to acquire land for a public, in south Baltimore 327
Police and Fire Alarm Telegraph and Police Patrol System, to repeal Ordinance No. 106, approved May 1st, 1893, for placing underground the wires of 342

Q.

Quarantine Station, to construct a disinfecting chamber at 122

R.

Rubbish in streets or on sidewalks, to prohibit the throwing of 88
Rose street, authorizing the Mayor to accept deed for bed of, from Foster avenue to Lancaster street 91
Ross street, to change the name of, to Druid Hill avenue, west of Howard street 103
Read street, to provide for the repaving, from Calvert street to Cathedral street, of 130