of the sale of said bonds shall be used for the surveying and building of roads, paths and other ways in Clifton Park; for the building of a sewage system in said park, the erection of such permanent buildings as may be necessary for sanitary or other purposes demanded by public parks; for the lighting the said park by gas, electricity or other illuminant. These plans shall be executed by the said Baltimore Centennial Association from plans made by it, but not until the same shall have been approved by the Park Board of Baltimore city; and provided further, that this ordinance shall not go into effect until it shall be approved by the General Assembly of Maryland, and ratified by the votes of a majority of legal voters of the city of Baltimore cast at the time and the place hereinafter designated, and not then until the Mayor and Commissioners of Finance shall file a certificate, signed by them, in the office of the City Register, stating that in their judgment the said Baltimore Centennial Association has a bona fide paid up subscription of five hundred thousand dollars to its capital stock derived from subscribers other than the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, the State of Maryland, or the United States of America, or any of them.

How plans are to be executed.

Of no effect until this ordinance is approved by the General Assembly and ratified by a vote of the people and a bona fide paid up subscription of $500,000 is derived from individual subscribers.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That none of the bonds, the issue of which is provided for in this ordinance, shall be sold by the Commissioners of Finance until after the said Baltimore Centennial Association shall have actually expended the five hundred thousand dollars received by them from subscriptions derived from other sources than the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, the State of Maryland and the United States of America.

No bonds to be sold until the Associat'n has expended $500,000 of private subscriptions.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted and ordained, That the said bonds shall be issued in sums of not less than one hundred dollars each, redeemable on the first day of January, 1937, and bearing interest at the rate of not more than four per centum per annum, as may be determined by the Commissioners of Finance of Baltimore City; said interest to be payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July of each and every year, and on condition that the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall pay all taxes imposed by the State of Maryland, for which the holders of said bonds may be thereon legally liable.

Description of bonds.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted and ordained, That a tax of five mills on every one hundred dollars' worth of assessable property in the city of Baltimore, and in like proportion for any greater or less amount, shall be annually levied and imposed upon the same, and the proceeds of said tax, when collected, shall be paid over to the Commissioners of Finance to be by them applied to the establishment and maintenance of a sinking fund for the redemption of the bonds herein provided for.

A tax of five mills to be levied for the sinking fund.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted and ordained, That this ordinance shall be submitted to the legal voters of the city of Baltimore for their approval or disapproval at the election to be held on the sixth day of November, 1896; that the Supervisors of Elections in Baltimore City shall cause to be placed in a column on the right of the official ballots to be used at said election, with a margin to the right of said column, the words: "The Five Hundred Thousand Exposition Loan." In the said margin shall be placed two boxes or squares—in the

To be submitted to the legal voters.