No. 33.

Resolution directing the City Commissioner to have Aliceanna, Broadway and Pearl streets and Patterson avenue repaved.

Whereas, Heretofore certain ordinances were passed for repaving certain streets, and there are not sufficient funds in the city treasury remaining unexpended from that portion of the $6,000,000 Loan which was set apart for the purpose of repaving streets to pay for all the work called for by the said ordinances; and

Whereas, The Court of Appeals has decided that it is the duty of the City Council to declare which of the streets provided to be repaved by said ordinances shall be repaved, and in what order, and has affirmed the decision of the Circuit Court No. 2 of Baltimore City, enjoining the expenditure of the balance of said fund, except as may be designated by the City Council; now, therefore, be it
