No. 125.

Resolutions upon the death of the late Enoch Pratt.

Whereas, Our whole people have heard with deep sorrow of the death of Enoch Pratt, a citizen of Baltimore; therefore be it

Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That in his death our city has lost one of its most valued citizens, one who was ever faithful to every trust reposed in him; his marked ability and conscientious fidelity to duty while acting as one of the Finance Commissioners has conferred a lasting benefit upon our city, and his services will be remembered with sincere gratitude; and be it further

Resolved, That the City of Baltimore recognizes and appreciates his philanthropy in the gift to this city of the Pratt Free Library; and be it further

Resolved, That we hereby express to Mrs. Pratt our deepest sympathy, and the earnest wish that the blessings which the noble husband sought so unselfishly to secure for our beloved city, and for all who needed the helping hand, may in manifold form and power come to and remain with her household; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes and a copy suitably engrossed be sent Mrs. Pratt.

Approved October 20, 1896.
