Tax, to lay and collect a direct, for 1896 117
Tax for the payment of expenses of public schools, to lay and collect a 118
Tax for the support of the Police Department, to lay and collect a 119
Tax for the payment of interest on stock debt, to lay and collect a 119
Tax for the payment of certain expenses, to lay and collect a 120
Tax for the support of the city poor, to lay and collect a 121
Tax for the payment of the city's portion of benefits assessed for opening, widening, and closing streets, lanes or alleys, to lay and collect a 121
Tax for the General Sinking Fund, to lay and collect a 122
Tax for the Water 1916 Loan Sinking Fund, to lay and collect a 123
Tax for the Water 1926 Loan Sinking Fund, to lay and collect a 123
Tax for the Water 1922 Loan Sinking Fund, to lay and collect a 124
Tax for the Internal Improvement 1928 Loan Sinking Fund, to lay and collect a 124
Tax for the Public Iimprovement 1940 Loan Sinking Fund, to lay and collect a 125
Tax for the Four Million 1945 Loan Sinking Fund to lay and collect a 126
Tax in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Wards, to lay and collect a 126
Topographical Survey, providing for the payment of expenses incurred by Joint Special Committee appointed to investigate the work done by the 208

Twenty-third street, to grade, pave and kerb, from Oak street to York road 214
Twenty third street between Charles and Calvert streets, authorizing the Mayor to accept deed of bed of 229
Twenty-second street between Charles street and Guilford avenue, authorizing the Mayor to accept deed of bed of 229
Twenty first street between Charles street and Hunter alley, authorizing the Mayor to accept deed of bed of 229

V

Vaccine physicians, providing for the appointment of 33
Visitor to the Enoch Pratt Free Library, providing for the appointment of a 60

W

"Water," sub-title "Water Board," to repeal Section 1 of Article 54 of Baltimore City Code of 1893, title, and to re-enact same as amended. 44
Whitelock lane between North avenue and Francis street, to condemn and close all that part of... 142
Wheelwrights and wagonmakers, allowing, to build fires in front of their premises 231

Y

York street, to repave and rekerb, from Light street to Johnson street 14